WATER CO. ASKS MANDAMUS

Would Compel City to Levy Tax to Pay Hydrant Judgments.

WANTS PAY FOR TWO YEARS

Hearing is Set by Judge Munger for Next Tuesday in the Federal Court—City Falls to Appeal.

The Omaha Water company filed a petition for a writ of mandamus against the city of Omaha in the federal court Wednesday morning asking the court to compel the city to levy a tax on the people the proceeds of which shall be used in paying the water company $21,467.28 which it alleges is due for hydrant rentals to the city for the four periods of six months in the years 1909 and 1910.

The Omaha Water company recently sued the city in the federal court for hydrant rentals for the two years. On May 5 of this year the federal court gave the water company judgment for the following amounts: First six months of 1909, $15,909.22; second six months of 1909, $5,098.52; first six months of 1910, $10,223.52; second six months of 1910, $10,223.52.

Further Break in Prices for Cotton

Old Crop Drops More Than Four Dollars a Bale on New York Market Since Last Saturday.

NEW YORK, July 19.—There was a continuation of yesterday's activity and excitement in the cotton market this morning, and a further sensational break in prices, particularly in the old crop months. Inside of the first half hour, August contracts sold off to 12 cents or 34 points under the closing figures of last night, while July broke from 12.70 to the opening to 12.20, or to a net decline of 42 points and old crop positions at this level showed the tremendous loss of from $2 to $4.50 per bale, from the closing prices of last Saturday and of from $12.75 to $11.25 per bale from the high records of the season.
