Now for the political fireworks. Twenty-Three-Year-Old Girl Missing—Headline, Skiddoo. It is said that few trains get through Tarrytown without being delayed.

Why seek distant summer resorts when we have such a superior article at home? The enemies of Dr. Wiley are so proud of themselves that they stay securely hid.

Wizard Burbank is so provoked at some of his critics he could turn them into onions. Strange that a man who hails from Alaska can get as hot as Delegate Wickersham.

The fellow who tells folks to "keep smiling," probably never thinks of the home team losing. What those South Omaha recallers really should be petitioning for is annexation to Omaha.

The country knows how I stand," says Champ Clark. Come to think of it, how does he stand? Kansas City now has its packet line in operation on the Missouri river.

Senator Owens is arrested for auto speeding. It is a good thing Senator Jeff Davis does not ride in an automobile. If bouquets in the shape of convention resolutions could do the business there would be no need of holding any primary elections at all.

Not Afraid to Be Fair. The president defies precedent and sets a very good example in his personal statement, giving credit to the democrats for their part in the passage of the reciprocity bill.

Power of Public Opinion. The power of public opinion seems to be recognized as a positive factor in monarchical England, as well as in democratic America.

Democrats Poorly Managed. The democrats in congress are at sea in their plans of procedure. They have a wool tariff and a cotton tariff project and others hanging fire.

Police and Street Car Reform. Minneapolis police, if asked their advice about legislating the strap-hanger into his inalienable rights, would undoubtedly shake their heads despairingly.

Who Disenchant? There is an almost unanimous opinion that the best schedule congress can take up is the railroad schedule on trains out of Washington.

The Hoodoo Number. Mr. Bryan's catchword for presidential candidates embraces thirteen questions. That looks as though it might be unlucky for the one who answers them all.

NEBRASKA POLITICAL PEN POINTS. Stanton Register (dem.): A great deal of editorial comment is appearing in the republican papers as to the chance of Taft being able to carry Nebraska.

Changing Her Face. Any woman not satisfied with her complexion can remove it and have a new one. The thin veil of sufficing hair-cream is an encumbrance and should be removed to give the fresh, vigorous young skin a chance to show itself.

Looking Backward This Day in Omaha. Compiled from Bee files. July 25. Thirty Years Ago. Traces are found of B. DeLoach, the employee of the Union Pacific freight auditing department who had disappeared a week before, while temporarily deranged.

Twenty Years Ago. Colonel Cunningham R. Scott goes to Philadelphia to present the Real Estate Owners' association claim to the executive committee of the national republican committee for the holding of the next national convention in Omaha.

Ten Years Ago. President Charles M. Hays of the Southern Pacific passed through Omaha en route to Chicago to confer with J. C. Stubbs, traffic director of the Harriman lines.

People Talked About. The colonel is one of the best bridge players in New York and can play a good game of golf, too.

"Don't Worry" Wiley. A Lively Scrapper in the Governmental Pure Food Campaign, and He Smiles as He Scraps. Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, pure food champion, deserves to rank as president-elect of the "Don't Worry" club.

Lines to a Smile. "A man ought to be able to read his title deed." "He certainly ought, if he expects an American girl to pay a million of her papa's dollars for it."

The Switch. J. M. Lewis in Houston Post. Someone else switched today because— Now how do you suppose? Before we tell you why let's pause a minute and look at your face.

Weak Heart. Many people suffer from weak hearts. They may experience shortness of breath on exertion, pain over the heart, or dizzy feelings, oppressed breathing after meals or their eyes become blurred.

Help for All. Andrew Carnegie once suggested as an epitaph for his own tombstone what he said was the secret of his success: "Here lies a man who surrounded himself with men abler than himself."

SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES. SEND YOUR YOUNG PEOPLE TO TABOR COLLEGE. An accredited school of the highest standing, in a community remarkable for its clean, wholesome, uplifting influences.

ST. MARY'S ACADEMY. CONDUCTED BY THE SACRED SISTERS OF NOTRE DAME. This institution is pleasantly located. The curriculum embraces all that is required for a refined education.

"The School That Builds Manly Boys." CHIEF JUSTICE WINSLOW. Your boy will be returned to you stronger mentally, morally and physically.

Changing Her Face. (From the Household Friend) Any woman not satisfied with her complexion can remove it and have a new one. The thin veil of sufficing hair-cream is an encumbrance and should be removed to give the fresh, vigorous young skin a chance to show itself.
