

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Receipts of Winter Wheat from Fields Continue Heavy. CANADIAN CROPS IN DANGER. Hains in the Corn Belt Have Caused Shifting of Demand to Large Degree, but Buying is in Evidence.

Receipts of wheat continue heavy, increasing stocks at primary market; these are slight, however, of a falling up in country movement. Some export business is being done from day to day, indicating a healthy position in the market.

NEW YORK STOCKS AND BONDS

Events at Home and Abroad Have a Disquieting Effect. TRADING INCREASES LARGELY. Wall Street Looks Upon the Freight Rate Decision as Favoring an Excuse for a Bear Attack.

NEW YORK, July 25.—Events at home and abroad combined to unsettle the stock market today. The order of the Interstate Commerce commission for a readjustment of transcontinental freight rates and reports of the present gravity of the situation in Europe were the chief factors of sufficient influence to bring on a heavy selling movement. The market lost its indifference to news and increased largely.
