KELLY FAMILY MOST ELUSIVE

Members Are Leading Associated Charities Merry Chase.

THEY SEEM TO PREFER TO BEG

Home Has Not Been Located and Charity Workers Are Now Trying to Locate Their Whereabouts.

The Kelly family is running the workers for the Associated Charities a merry race. The workers are trying to catch up with them and discover what their financial condition actually is. The Kelly family is trying to collect as much money as possible, begging with the plea that the charity authorities will not help them. Several times they have been apprehended and helped in the regular way as they are very evidently without means, but they will never tell where they live.

Describing their abode as some vaguely indefinite place "down by the river," they escape from the charity workers so that they can work the very profitable begging scheme.

If definitely located, they will be forced to take what help they really need from the authorized forces and kept from begging from house to house.

Judge Says Eulogy is Not Worth Fifty

Charging heavy fees for preaching funeral sermons is said to have become a common practice in Omaha of late. One instance of this sort was brought to the attention of County Judge Leslie in a claim against an estate. The claim was for $50, but the judge did not think it worth that much to die and have a few words of praise passed. Accordingly he cut the bill to $10.

Let a Bee Want Ad Do It

When you lose your pocket-book you make a frantic rush to put a Lost Ad in the paper.

Why not use the same good judgment when you lose a roomer? Your Lost Ad only has significance for one person—while the room for rent ad will appeal to thousands, if properly worded.

Telephone Tyler 1000 and let our want ad taker write your ad for you in such a way as to find a tenant for your room.
