

FASHION HINTS

Many's the time a dress of this order fills a particular want. It is a soft blue serge, with embroidered lustrous collar and cuffs. Buttons straight down the front to a deep hand of silk.

To Remove Fruit Stains. Fruit stains should be carefully looked after at this season before the linen is put into the hot suds which always sets all stains. They are removed easily by boiling water or a little suits of lemon without damage to the fabric.

CLOTHES FOR THE CO-ED Tendency is Toward Simplicity in Garb of the Present Day College Girl.

The tendency in dress among girl students at the large universities and also at the women's colleges in the east is toward simplicity rather than toward elaboration. This should comfort mothers who are about to get their daughters ready for the college year. The following list will be helpful in determining actual needs: Underclothes—Six union suits, six combinations, twelve pairs of black cotton stockings, four white petticoats, two seer-sucker petticoats, two black petticoats, three night-dresses, twenty-four handkerchiefs, two pairs of corsets. Dresses—Four school dresses, one tailor-made suit, one evening dress, one dark silk or velveting frock, one lingerie gown. Wraps—A raincoat, a utility coat, a party cape, a white sweater. Lounging Clothes—A kimono, a bathrobe, boucler shoes, hair ribbons or a lingerie cap. Sporting Outfit—Gray sweater, rough homespun skirt, flannel shirt, washable hunting stocks, heavy boots, moccasins, skates, snowshoes, tennis racket, canoe, gymnasium suit, tennis blouses, rowing Jersey, bloomers. Boots and Shoes—Calf boots, overboots, low shoes, dancing slippers, button shoes, rubbers. Accessories—Two laundry bags, umbrella, work-bag, suitcase, trunk, rum clock, desk fittings, steamer rug, sofa pillows, hot water bag, chafing dish, tea outfit, waste basket. Gloves—Woolen gloves, one pair of dogskin, one pair of grouse castor, two pairs of short white gloves, two pairs of long black ones.

Personal Gossip

Mrs. Fred Burch has gone to Excelsior Springs, Mo. Mrs. George C. Bonner is making a few weeks' visit in Minneapolis. Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Boughtnot leave this evening for Frankfort, Ky., where they will make their future home. Mr. and Mrs. John J. Donahue, Jr., and two children, have returned from a month's stay in Los Angeles, Cal. Mrs. Inogene Oakley of Philadelphia, will arrive October 15 and spend a few days with Mrs. M. D. Cameron. Mrs. Nathan Merriam and Miss Mildred Merriam are spending the summer at Glenwood Springs, Colo.; they plan to remain until September 1. Judge W. H. Munger left last night for Boston to join Mrs. Munger, who has been spending the summer in New England and who will return home with him in about two weeks.

CRUSH HATS ARE POPULAR

Paul Polret Attractive and Practical Headgear for Between-Seasons Wear. The felt hats designed by Paul Polret in Paris and shown in the local stores are the most appropriate and up-to-date headgear for the woman whose summer hat is no longer presentable, but who does not wish to purchase a fall hat so early. Most of the Paul Polrets are in white. They are in round, close fitting shapes and in sailor shapes and are simply trimmed in straw braid bindings, scarfs and wings in light and dark blue, grass green, royal purple, salmon, coral and black. These white crush hats go extremely well with white linen and serge suits. They have many other attractive features. They are lightweight and may be worn with the minimum of false hair. They are really practical, although they are white, for they can be easily cleaned with cornmeal. The soft white felt is also becoming to most women. Veils are more popular than ever. The woman who would be in style must have at least a yard of veiling floating from her hatbrim. The veil to wear with one of the white veilet hats would be of white coarse veiling with a three-inch border of white silk fringe. This may be easily cleaned too. Just wash it in a suds of white soap.

Rhubarb Made Palatable

CORN not the lowly pie plant, the other name for which is rhubarb. It has much food value and may be served in attractive and palatable ways. Rhubarb Sauce—To get wild taste out of rhubarb, peel, cut in one inch cubes, sugar to taste; let cool. Take one egg, beat it well, then stir in rhubarb; beat constantly for five minutes to prevent eggs from curdling. Rhubarb Tarts—Bake one large or several small shells made of rich pie crust. Thicken stewed and sweetened rhubarb with corn starch, adding a tablespoonful of butter and have a tablespoonful of salt for five people. When cold fill the shells and cover with a meringue made from whites of eggs. Rhubarb Puffs—One cupful finely chopped rhubarb, one cupful sugar, two tablespoonfuls butter, one teaspoonful baking powder, one-quarter cupful milk, two eggs, sufficient flour to make a thick batter; cream butter and sugar, add well beaten eggs, milk, flour, rhubarb and baking powder; half fill well greased cups and steam for half an hour. Rhubarb Shortcake—One and one-half cups flour, one and one-half teaspoons baking powder, one-fourth teaspoon salt, one-half cup butter, scant, milk enough to moisten. Mix flour, salt and baking powder. Rub the butter into this. Moisten with enough milk to make a stiff dough. Spread this on a well buttered tin. Skin and cut thin a pound and a half of rhubarb. Add a cupful of sugar and shake well. Pour over this a custard made of a half cupful of sugar, yolks of two eggs and a cupful of rich milk. Bake twenty-five minutes.

A Trunk Rag.

A trunk rag for the guest room will protect a pretty carpet or matting from the disgusting marks often made by a visitor's trunk. The rag may be of the same material as the floor covering and cut a little larger than a good-sized trunk. Take care to see that an incoming trunk is set squarely on the rug.

Sororities Active

Although the "rush" season for the sororities will not start for several weeks, the active members, most of whom attend the University of Nebraska, are enjoying a number of house parties and social affairs during their vacation. Misses Carol Howard, Gretchen Williamson and Ida Darlow have gone to Wall Lake, Ia., as guests of sorority sisters form Harlan, Ia. All of the members of the house party are Delta Gamma. At this week's meeting of this sorority at the home of Miss Margaret Guthrie there were three guests of honor from Lincoln—Misses Dorothy Watkins, Josephine Sanford and Frances McNabb. For visiting Kappa Alpha Thetas Mrs. John K. Morrison and Miss Irma Staples entertained at tea at the Delta Tea room Tuesday evening for Miss Florence Dutton of Hastings, Miss Geraldine Gray of Columbus and Miss Emma Sweeney of Lincoln. Invitations were issued to twelve guests. Wednesday the visiting girls were honor guests at a picnic luncheon at Lake Manawa. Miss Augusta Houston of Tekamah will entertain the Omaha Thetas and their guests at a house party Friday. The girls left this morning on an early train and return this evening. An Alpha Phi luncheon was given yesterday at Happy Hollow by Mrs. Herbert Hays of Stella, Neb., who is visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Milroy. Miss Mayenne Thompson, whose engagement to Mr. Thomas M. Murphy of Kansas City was announced, was the honor guest. All of the young women present were members of the Alpha Phi sorority. The Kappa Gamma are planning some entertainments early in August for visiting sorority sisters. Miss Irene Bailey of Fairbury will arrive the latter part of next week to visit Miss Ola Belle Hervey and Miss Pollard of Fairbury and Miss Della Ladé of Albion will arrive the same time to visit Miss Ruth McDonald. The members of the Pi Beta Phi sorority recently had a luncheon at the Field club when about twenty guests were present. Other affairs are planned for the middle of August. Border Decorations. Practically every weave from the wispiest of chiffons, nets and muslins to the volles, pounces and foulards are decorated with borders.

Pleasures Past

The Sunday school of the Dundee Presbyterian church had a picnic Thursday in Elmwood park. Mrs. Isaac Douglas entertained at luncheon Wednesday at her home for Mrs. Stephen A. Young Men of I. O. B Entertain at Rod and Gun Club

The I. O. B.'s are a real "old" bunch of young men who not only have a good time among themselves, but also entertain their friends in the most hospitable fashion. The Young Men's club and most of them are members of Trinity cathedral. In the winter they hold their good times at the hall. The members of the I. O. B. are Norman Burgess, William Chino, George Bushart, Raymond Keller, Vincent Suter, Archie Shepherd, William Hughes, LaRus Hildum, Jerry VanRensselaer, Arthur Daley and Ernest Hughes. Monday evening they gave a large dinner and dance for sixty of their young men and girl friends at the Rod and Gun club.
