HALL SLAUGHTERS HOPEFULS

Rourke's Rejuvenated Youngsters Wade Into Des Moines, 3 to 0.

CAPTURE GAME WITHOUT ERROR Every Man Plays Like a Veteran and the Team Work Has Never Been Better.

Pa's rejuvenated youngsters tore into Des Moines yesterday afternoon and came out of the battle with Bill Dwyer's scalp hanging from Arbogast's belt. Hall did the slaughtering, and that he did a neat job is shown by the final count, which

Hall was the hero all through the game and in only one instance was he in danger. that being in the seventh inning, when, after one was dead he passed one, gave a hit and passed another. The next man up popped up a little one to second. With a man on second and third and two down Hall settled and struck the next one out.

For six innings he kept the Hopefuls popng little ones all over the infield, and but three men reached first. In the seventh, however, he was found for his first bit, which falled to tally. The next inning Mattick, the big Des Moines center fielder, got the longest hit of the day, and likewise the second and last hit for the Hopefuls. It was a drive across the first sack for two bases. Hall had the spitter working and all that could be gotten off ft were bingles and grounders. This fact is barne out by the box score, which credits Kane with eighteen putouts at the initial sack.

It looked like an entirely different team which lined up yesterday afternoon. Moore played second like a vet. Niehoff at third handled five assists without an error. Kneaves was there with the big mitt, and pretty pegs, and nothing could get by his territory at short. Arbogast piloted the team from behind the bat for eight innings and allowed but one man to get away. In the seventh inning he was struck y a foul tip on the meat hand, which put him out of commission for a few minutes. Lynch kept up Arbles good work, however, and made the Deserters hug the sacks. Thomason made two of the prettiest catches of the season, and held his batting average up with two hits out of four times The team played so well together under the new arrangement that no errors were made.

Scanlon, the new shortstop, did not appear in the lineup. He, however, was in form and put in some stiff practice before the game. He is a fast man on his feet and if his work in a same is equal to that put up by him in practice, there will be no kicks registered by the fans.

New Umpire on Staff. A new face in the umpire end of the game was noted. Morgan is back again, but with him came Knapp, a member of the umpiring staff of the defunct Kansas State league. He held the battery end of he work yesterday, while Morgan did the honors at the bags. Everything went off lovely and the game ended with no enmity between the fans and the indicator hand-

Omaha made the first run of the game walk. Kneaves struck out. Arbogast sin- Routt, Arbogast ran over first on his hit and Was caught between the bars While he was caught between the bags. While he was working the second and first base-
