ROURKES WIN IN ELEVEN INNINGS

Des Moines Takes the Lead in the Eleventh, but Omaha Goes One Better.

WILLIAMS STRONG WITH STICK Hits the Ball Three Times for Extra

GAME IS FULL OF BAD ERRORS Demott Pitches a Strong Game for Home Team.

ROURKES AHEAD IN NINTH Des Moines Ties the Score and the Real Battle Starts, to Be Ended

by Hard Hitting in the Higgins' Hopefuls and Pa's Colts batted for eleven innings yesterday afternoon for the second game of the transferred series and with the able assistance of Demott, the Rourken took the long end of a 5 1 4 Omaha had the game cinched with a one yun lead at the opening of the ninth inring, but Demott handed out free transportation to Kores, who was sent to second on a sacrifice hit. Graham then fanned and the fans were crowding to the top of the stands, when Moore muffed Ulatowski's drive in his direction allowing Kores to tie the score. Nothing happened in the Rourkes half of the ninth.

The tenth sailed by with a hit apiece for each teum, and Des Moines speared another run, of a walk and a triple. Everything looked dublous for the Rourges, when they romped in from the field in the eleventh inning, but things looked brighter, when Williams landed on the first ball handed him for three bags to the right garden. Kneaves then pelted the horsehide for a single to center, scoring Williams. Lynch followed with a pretty sacrifice. Pick was sent in to save the day and drew a walk. It was then up to Moore to even matters for his error in the ninth and he pushed the sybere along the third base line and Kneaves ambled across the plate with the winning

Game Full of Errors. Despite the fact that the game was littered up with errors by both teams, it was some classy article of base ball. Demott had the ball under control and had everything at his command. Seven men before his curves and but three men got to first on balls. He allowed but seven hits, and scattered them throughout the game so that they failed to count in most cases. In only one inning did he

For the Hopefuls, Hersche was there with the goods and pitched a good game saide from the two innings when the hits were bunched off him. When he was found by the Rourkes they were all good ones. Four three-base hits and one double sion in the sixth and seventh. Score; were made off him. Williams was the Tartar that Hersche had to contend with. In four times at bat he made two triples and a double. Demott also went after Hersche for two hits in three times up. Kheaves and Thomason each came across with a brace of hits, as also did Moore.

Lyuch Behind the Bat. Lynch was at the receiving end of the Rourkes' batery and showed class in his heaving to second and time and again plucked the Des Moines pilferers off second. Moore had an off day and made two errors which meant two cuns. His errors were made, however, in attempting to handle the ball too fast when he got Veteran Jack Hankell, accompanied by McDowall, floated onto the field just be fore play and announced that they would work with the indicator, as Morgan and Knapp had been ordered to Lin-McDowell worked on balls and Des Moines took the first run in the second inning. Anderson walked, stole second and took third on Graham's infield hits and kept on going until he reached home safety on a slide and a poor throw to the bag from ilrst.
