

LOOK FOR COMPROMISE BILLS

Conference Expected on Cotton, Steel, Sugar and Other Schedules.

TAPT MAY EXERCISE VETO POWER

Insurgents Say They Will Not Try to Put Any of the Big Schedules on the Free List.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—The fight of the democratic-progressive republican coalition for broader tariff revision gained ground yesterday and it was confidently predicted in both houses that a conference created compromise wool bill, the farmers' free list bill and possibly the cotton bill, with steel, sugar and other schedules, would be passed.

Meantime the indications are stronger than ever that President Taft will exercise his veto power on tariff legislation prior to the submission of the tariff board report in December. The cotton bill probably will pass the house next Thursday.

Democratic leaders asserted that if the present program is carried out there is nothing to prevent a free list bill from being introduced. The wool bill will be a compromise wool bill on a 30 per cent ad valorem raw wool duty basis. This measure will go to conference either next Monday or Tuesday.

The free list bill, instead of being handicapped with the sugar, steel and other schedules, will be handled by the free list amendment, which strikes out the provision placing farm products on the free list.

This amendment is necessary to insure the republican insurgent vote.

Democrats of both houses expressed certainty that the wool bill will be put through the senate next Tuesday by the same combination that put the wool bill through.

Free List Bill Next Tuesday. The intention of the free list bill, as a whole, is to compensate the farmer for the loss supposed to have been inflicted upon him by the acceptance of Canadian reciprocity, and they will not consent to an extension to other countries of the free import provision on the products of the farm.

Practically all the opposition to the bill on the democratic side will be because of this amendment.

"We are not going to try to put any of the big schedules on the free list bill as was at first contemplated," said one insurgent senator.

"We want the president to have an opportunity to say whether he is willing to do anything to reciprocate with the country for the loss occasioned there by forcing the passage of the reciprocity bill and we shall not give him the excuse for a veto that he might find in a cotton or a steel schedule."

The wool bill will be sent to conference next Monday or Tuesday. It will be called up in the house then by Democratic Leader Underwood, disagreed to and both houses will appoint conferees. The house conferees will be Representative Underwood of Alabama, Randall of Texas, Democrats, and Payne of New York, republicans. The senate conferees are not as certain.

Regulars Will Not Participate. Chairman Penrose and other regular republicans on the senate finance committee firmly disavow any intention of participating in the conference and added that he would make an official statement to this effect whenever the question of selecting conferees comes before the senate.

Senator McCumber of North Dakota, if developed, will decline to serve, notwithstanding he voted with the conferees on the modified La Follette bill which passed. Mr. McCumber wants to get away from Washington early next week.

Senators La Follette, progressive republican, and Simmons, North Carolina, democratic, doubtless will be among the senate conferees.

The wool bill reached the house today, the formal announcement of its passage by the senate being greeted by democratic applause. The bill now lies on the speaker's table, where it will remain until called up next week for action as to a conference.

Democratic Leader Underwood said it would be three or four days before serious consideration could be given it.

Mr. Underwood is busy with the cotton bill, debate on which began in the house today.

Roads Will Combat Any Reduction in the Rates Upon Express

Burlington Passenger Traffic Manager Says, with Others, Fight Will Be Made to Finish.

CHICAGO, July 29.—Leading railroads throughout the country are preparing to combat the widespread demand for a general slash in the express rates. Their position, which heretofore has been a subject of speculation, was made clear today at the second day's hearing of the express charges and rates committee.

Reports were read to show that the Great Northern Express company made a profit of 90 per cent during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909. The investigating committee adjourned and will continue its hearings in Chicago, August 11.

"Our company proposes to go into the express rate question on two grounds," said Mr. Rustia, one pertaining to the reasonableness of rates. If we can show that the express service is two and one-half times better than the freight service and that the express rate is only one and one-half times the freight rate, the commission will be compelled to consider the proposition from that viewpoint."

CITY OF BEATRICE ENJOINED

Restraining Order Given to Permit Litigation Over Cut in Electric Light Rates.

BEATRICE, Neb., July 29.—(Special Telegram.)—A restraining order was issued in the federal court by Judge Munger today preventing the city of Beatrice and its officials from enforcing the electric rate ordinance against the Beatrice Electric company until the merits of the case can be heard in court.

The order is returnable September 1 and the position on which the order was issued claims that a compliance with the ordinance would mean the bankruptcy of the company.

The company has for some time been operating under a 15% cost ordinance, but the council recently passed another ordinance cutting the rate to 12 cents. The company alleges that it cannot operate and pay expenses under such a rate.

Old Folks of Beaver City Make Fine Showing at Lawn Party

BEATRICE SOCIETY OF BEAVER CITY AND ITS GUESTS, WHOSE AGES TOTALLED 536 YEARS, WITH AN AVERAGE OF 76 YEARS.

With their combined ages totaling 536 years and an average age for each of 76, the guests of the Beatrice society who met on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. A. Gaudin at Beaver City have elapsed more years together than have elapsed since the beginning of the world's history.

Grocer is Shot by Striking Peddler

Probable Murder Occurs Soon After Mayor Harrison Refuses to Suspend Anti-Noise Ordinance.

CHICAGO, July 29.—Shortly after Mayor Harrison had refused to suspend the enforcement of the anti-noise ordinance at the request of a delegation of striking peddlers, headed by Congressman A. J. Sabath, Pinkus Schoups, 38 years of age, was shot three times, and perhaps fatally wounded by Frank Sovera, a striking peddler.

Schoups is a grocer, and he was accused of buying fruit to turn over to a peddler. Sovera was arrested.

Later H. Tuckman, an ice dealer, was assaulted, but his assailant escaped. Hostilities were suspended during the early morning hours, while the peddlers made a final appeal to Mayor Harrison for relief.

In addressing a peace meeting of 400 peddlers tonight, leaders of the strikers announced their willingness to call off the strikers and it was agreed to permit members of the peddlers' organizations to return to work.

Congressman A. J. Sabath headed the delegation which appealed to the mayor. He made a dramatic appeal on behalf of the women and children who, he said, were suffering as a result of the strike. Mayor Harrison intimated that he would take the question of the anti-noise ordinance up with the council, but said there must be no further rioting.

WORDS OF LEONARD HART TRUE

Says if the Boiler Explodes He Will Go Along, and Then He Goes.

ALGONIA, Ia., July 29.—"If the boiler blows up, I'll go along with it." As these words left the lips of Leonard Hart, a well known traction engine living near here, the boiler of a threshing engine on which he was working exploded, tearing his body to fragments and fatally injuring Frank Meyers, late this afternoon. Hart had just been warned the high pressure would result in an explosion.

PEARL FISHING IN WAPSHIE RIVER

Number of Valuable Finds Reported Within Last Few Days.

MASON CITY, Ia., July 29.—(Special.)—Some splendid pearl finds have been reported during the last few days. Mrs. Rose G. Hamm of Nashua, while combining vacation and pearl fishing, picked up in the Wapsie river one that she quickly sold for $12. Will Parish did this a little better and he found one that brought him $24. Roy Goodale of Waverly, had found several nice ones. He has a beautiful one weighing thirteen and one-half grains and another weighs ten and three-fourths grains. These are as fine specimens as were ever found in this part of the state. He values these two at $400 and will not dispose of them at a less figure.

The invited guests numbered seventy-five, which included all persons who are 70 or over in a town of 1,000 inhabitants. Some of the subjects for discussion were "How Girls Dress and What They Like," "The Old-Time Sunday School,"

Governor Carey Orders Company Out

Sheridan National Guardsmen Are Relieved of Service and Company Goes to Basin.

SHERIDAN, Wyo., July 29.—(Special Telegram.)—In accordance with instructions from Governor Carey and M. C. Barkwell, adjutant general and chief of staff of the Wyoming National guard, and pursuant to the refusal of Captain Bert A. French of Sheridan to comply with similar orders, Lieutenant A. H. Beach of Newcastle, Wyo., quartermaster and commissary of the second battalion of the Third regiment, Wyoming National guard, has arrived in Sheridan to take charge of the affairs of Company D, the local militia company, which has been ordered to disband.

Following a series of internal troubles in the National guard, and the subsequent resignation of Major Kirby, Colonel Zander and Captain Parker of Sheridan and a number of other officers, the adjutant general decided to muster out the company.

Coincident and following a visit to that city by Adjutant General Barkwell and Colonel Blaney, a militia company was organized at Basin and designated company D. The new company has been assigned the equipment of old Company D of Sheridan.

Captain French, who held the position of quartermaster of Company D, upon receipt of the order asked to be relieved of the responsibility of mustering out the company, pleading lack of time. The task was then assigned to Lieutenant Beach.

Local officers, picked at the governor's action, have laid themselves open to court martial by refusing to turn over the keys of the armory to Lieutenant Beach, and recourse to legal procedure may be necessary to obtain possession.

Last night the lieutenant forcibly examined an entrance and made a cursory examination of the equipment, which he has orders to invoice, pack and ship to Basin. Lieutenant Beach is issuing a call to all members of the disbanded company to turn in any guns, ammunition, uniforms, blankets, tents or other equipment they may have in their possession. If they refuse to comply, the federal government may be asked to force obedience.

Governor Carey states that honorable discharge will be issued to all officers and enlisted men upon receipt of a report from the mustering out officer properly accounting for all government property.

People from All Dakota at Burial of "Scotty" Philip

PIERRE, S. D., July 29.—(Special.)—The funeral services of the noted cattleman, James Philip, better known as "Scotty," were held today at his late home at the ranch house near his famous buffalo pasture. Ever since the time of his death Sunday morning the word had been passing over the great territory west of the river, and men, women and children had been gathering to take part in the last services to be tendered their dead friend.

Business in the city of Pierre was entirely suspended on Wednesday afternoon. So thorough was this suspension that even the saloons were closed until 6 o'clock, and no money or friendly pull could induce any one in that town to break the suspension of trade that was agreed upon as a mark of respect to the dead neighbor and home booster.

After services under Episcopal and Masonic auspices the body was borne to the hearse by six old-time friends and the procession started to the picturesque burial spot two miles distant, which Mr. Philip himself had selected the day before he died.

Almost every old-time cattleman from the Cheyenne river to the country beyond the Bad Lands to the south of White river was present at this funeral. White men, Indians and mixed bloods, men in automobiles, carriages and on horseback, people on foot, white-aproned Masons, plumed Knights Templar, typical cowboys on their bronchos and every class of life represented in this section of the state was in evidence on this memorable occasion.

It was a sad but sincere farewell to a man whose heart was large, whose disposition, though stern, was kind, and whose life had been one that won for him a reputation and respect that will ever be remembered by those who knew him anywhere on earth.

Bigger, Better, Buser—That is what consistent and persistent advertising will do for legitimate business.
