Omaha Ties for Fifth Place; Cubs and Tigers Beat Phillies and Athletics

ROURKES WALLOP CHAMPS Win in Spite of the Suberb Work of Barber of Sioux City. WILLIAMS STILL HITTING HARD New Pielders for Sloux City Drops a High One at a Most inopportunte Time, Letting in two Runs.

Fitzgerald, the new left fielder for the Champs, who was recently secured from the New York Giants, lost Sloux City the first game of the series when he dropped Schoonover's high fly in the first inning and allowed two men to score. Barber, who did the twirling for the Iowa boys. was never in better form and deserved to win. The final score was 4 to 2 with the Rourkes on top.

Barber was the whole show for the Champs. He allowed but four hits during In all, only twenty-nine faced him and Kearney York ... the game, one of which was a scratch, five of these fell before his mysterious wrinkles. The error by Fitzgerald gave Omaha the first two runs, and in the second Williams opened with a double and was sacrificed to third, scoring when Lynch laid a nice one down the line to Hartman, who failed to get it to the plate in time to catch Williams.

Sloux City made a vain attempt to tie the score in the fifth inning. They succeeded in getting two runs across the pan. but Dawson, who had slammed the ball to the right field fence for two bags, could get no further. Another attempt was made to even up in the ninth when Ferer was sent in to bat for Stem. He struck out. Robinson is Steady.

For Omaha Robinson pitched a steady game of ball and was found for but six hits, and these were scattered throughout five innings. The star work of the men behind him retired the Champ batters without a chance to get more than the two runs. Robinson had superb control of the ball and but six balls were batted out of the infield, and two of these were speared. Thomason again starred in the outfield and nothing could get past him. Moore at second played one of the best games at that position seen at Rourke park this year. He covered all the space between first and second with a lightninglike movements and in two instances, by supreme efforts, spoiled what would otherwise have been hits. Moore has taken eighteen chances in the last two days and has not made an error. Kneaves at short was there with the goods again and played King, cf..... like a fiend. The entire infield worked Beecher, cf. Whitney, ib together and nothing could get by. Niehoff covered third like a blanket and to % six chances without a bobble.

After Moore had gone out on a grounder in the first inning Niehoff got to first safely on a hit to left. He stole second. Thomason went out. Hartman to Stem. Kane walked. In order to catch Niehoff napping at second Dawson threw the ball to Hartman, who missed, and both men Cole, cf. advanced a notch. Schoonover sent a high cone te Fitzgerald, who muffed, and both Niehoff and Kane scored. Schooney was caught stealing second. In the next inning Williams doubled to right, was sacrificed to third by Kneaves and scored on Applegate, p...... Lynch's grounder to short, when Hartman failed to get the ball to the plate in time
