Humphrey Doctor Held Under New Law for Toting a Gun

Controversy Ends in Mixup With Marshal When Physician is Arrested.

HUMPHREY, Neb., Aug. 1 .- (Special Telegram.)-Dr. W. M. Condon, president BRIGHT young man of 18 wants clerical of the Ottis and Murphy bank at Humphrey, and prominent in social and political circles, was bound over to the district court yesterday for carrying concealed weapons.

The doctor waived examination and no evidence was submitted by the prosecution, but it is well understood that the affair resulted from the street carnival and firemen's tournament at Humphrey. It is generally known that women of ill repute were in Humphrey during the carnival to which the doctor entered his protest with the local authorities. The local Catholic priest also condemned the failure of the town marshal to arrest the disreputable women and drive them from the town. After the carnival the town marshal Address mixed words with the doctor over the affair. During what the doctor construed

The case is attracting considerable attention and the doctor says he will force the issues at the trial in the district court YOUNG man would like steady job; willing to work. W-869, Bee. to the end, alleging justification of his and packed the Temple to the doors. C. M. Fieder, delegated by the American Federation of Labor to come to Omaha and organize the barbers, of which he is a member, took up a greater part of the evening, because there was no one there who could outtalk him, and because there was interest in everything he said. He announced that although he had accomplished his original purpose of closing the shops on Sundays he was going to remain in Omaha indefinitely and do even more for his favorite union. The meeting marked the real beginning of bettered conditions to Pacific. NEW YORK, Aug. 1 .- From Coney Island to the Pacific coast on horseback is the trip which is being undertaken by the Abernathy boys, the two little veterans of the saddle who last year rode into New York from Oklahoma. It was one minute after midnight tonight when Louis Abernathy, 11 years old, and his brother, Temple, four years his junior, started on the trip which will take them 3,600 miles. If they make the ride in sixty riding days and abide by certain conditions they will win $5,000. The boys have agreed that they will not eat or sleep under a roof during the ride. They will ride up the eastern shore of the Hudson to Albany, thence west and will conclude their trip at Presidio park, San Francisco.
