Alderman Minnick is watching the prog ress of the Broadway paving with more than usual interest. A few days ago when some of his friends were complaining about the work going forward slowly he offered to bet both sides of the street would be finished as far as Main street by tonight. Yesterday afternoon the pavers entered the idest part of the territory to be repaved, intersection of Fourth street, where adway is more than 200 feet wide. Alderman Minnick stood watching the tolling pavers placing the long rows of bricks and the work seemed to progress so slowly that he had excellent reason to fear losing his wager. Then he told his troubles to Contractor Wickham. No one is capable of better appreciating the work that Alderman Minnick is doing on the streets as head of the streets and alleys committee than is Contractor Wickham, and he work seemed to progress so slowly as head of the streets and alleys commit-tee than is Contractor Wickham, and he immediately decided that the alderman's confidence should not be shaken. He gave instructions to rush the paving and get down to Main street before quitting time tonight if it required all of the pavers in the three cities. The tarring gang are away behind the pavers, but their work doesn't count in Minnick's bet.

PROMISES TO GIVE GOOD BACKING

Officers Proceeding Here on Theory Exposition Will Be Held in This City Again This Fall.

The 1911 exposition of the National Hortilitural congress may be held at Buffalo, N. Y. Three of the chief commercial and municipal organisations of the city are anxious to bring about conditions that will permit the location to be changed from Council Bluffs to the western New York town.

President Keeline of the National Horticultural congress yesterday morning reeived a letter from the secretary of the envention committee of Buffalo asking if the officers and directors of the congress would consider a proposition to have the national exposition held there this fall. The letter states that Buffalo will take hold of the matter with enthusiasm and bring forward whatever capital and other forces necessary to make it a big success. The application is endorsed by the Buffalo commercial club and the Chamber of Com-

President Keeline will lay the matter be fore the executive committee of the congress at once and give an early and un doubtedly favorable reply. President Keeline, Vice President Hess and E. H. Doolittle, chairman of the executive committee, have expressed themselves as favorable to the change and will do all they can to bring it about. All of these gentlemen, however, would have preferred to have seen the next exposition held at St. Joseph, but the St. Joseph people have had very

BUFFALO WANTS FRUIT SHOW Women End Work of Their Convention

Temperance Workers Conclude Ses sion of Sixth District with Plea for Woman Suffrage.

"The saloon would put the church out of existence if it could: the church could put the saloon out of existence if it would; the women will," was the dictum of speakers and delegates in all of the sessions yester day of the annual convention of the Sixth district of the Iowa Woman's Christian Temperance union. The convention closed last night. The suffragette sentiment was distinctly uppermost in all of the discussions and addresses. "The Woman's Christian Temperance the line of working up sentiment against the liquor traffic." declared Mrs. Ida B.

secretary. "It's ballots that count." There was no line of action marked out, no resolutions adopted declaring for woman's suffrage, but there was the expression of a united purpose to bring it about. And the women looked very capable and fit to do anything they attempted. Mrs. Ida Rider of Council Bluffs gave an address on the subject of the 'Relation of Equal Suffrage to the Liquor Traffic." Mrs. Wise, in a lengthy address, recited the situation in Iowa and voiced the purpose of the organization to bring about changed political conditions. She quoted federal reports showing that it cost $1,600,-000,000 in 1910 to pay the nation's liquor bills, and she was sure there was $400,000,000 of illicit trading done.

When it came to the election of officers it was decided that the work of the present officers had been so satisfactory that they should not be changed and all were reelected. They are: Mrs. O. G. Oldham, Council Bluffs, presi-

DES MOINES IS AT STANDSTILL

Only 129 Increase in School Population During Five Years.

CENSUS FIGURES TELL THE STORY

Governor Carroll Soon to Return from Trip to Illinois, Where He Went to Learn of Prison Methods-Leprosy Near Iowa.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, In., Aug. 5 .- (Special Tele gram.)-There are 24,272 children in Des Moines of school age, according to the annual school census report. Of this number 11,983 are boys and 12,389 are gtrls. In comparing the two census statements this union of Iowa has no further work to do in morning it was discovered by J. C. Byram, school truant officer, that there are 119 more boys of school age in Des Moine Wise of Des Moines, state coresponding today than on the same date last year To offset this increase in number of boys there has been a decrease in number of births of firls of fifty-six, making a gain in births for the boys of 163, More children were born in Des Moines within the last five years than were brought to the city by new residents. Despite all that has been said about new residents coming to Des Moines, there has not been more than 129 increase to the school population within the last five years.

Leprosy Near Iowa. Discovery of a genuine case of leprosy in Minnesota near the Iowa line has caused some alarm in the vicinity of Northwood, but the state health authorities believe there is no danger of a spread of the malady. The case is that of a woman. She has two children and an effort is being made to find some way to care for them and prevent them having the same malady.

Carroll Looks Into Prisons. Governor Carroll is expected home tomorrow from a short trip into Illinois and elsewhere to look into prison methods. He will take up the various charges made against the management of the Fort Madison prison and probably cause an investigation to be made. One life prisoner at Fort Madison is strong in denunciation of the warden and of the system maintained by the state and political leaders are making much of the accusation.

Countles Fail to Report. Three counties have thus far falled to report as to the number of townships they have, and the state treasurer is unable as yet to distribute the automobile tax money for road purposes. Until a complete list of all the townships is received none of the money will be sent out. The treasurer has $111,000 to distribute.

Will Make Exhibit of Game. State Game Warden Lincoln is in the city making arrangements for a game exhibit a the state fair this month. Last year the game department brought 10,000 birds to the fair and distributed many of them to the farmers who thereby became interested in the propagation of game birds. It is proposed this year to have the fish exhibit the most important.

Rights of Auto Owners. A question that will be taken to the courts at once from a western Iowa town He relates to the duty of owners of automobiles to have lights on them after dark. ### Employe Wants the Trains Held Until He Gets His Back Pay

John Pugh Makes a Peculiar Request of the Justice of the Peace for Help.

John Pugh, an empeoyee at the Missouri Pacific round house, appeared in Justice Eastman's court Friday afternoon and wanted him to send a constable down to the railway station and stop the train service until the company paid him his back salary of $54.

Pugh quit work at the round house last Monday and demanded his pay. The foreman explained to him that it would be a few days before he could give it to him as it had to come through the general office. This slow method of getting his just dues did not suit Pugh and he thought by the simple method of tying up the train service for a few hours he would quickly receive his needed $54.

WALSH FALLS WITH BIPLANE

Aviator Drops Thirty Feet at Kearney -Machine Wrecked.

CLOSE CALL FOR LIFE of Spectators Swoop Down on Ruined Machine and Finally Takes it Away in Pieces as Souvenirs.

KEARNEY, Neb., Aug. 5 .- (Special Tele gram.)-Charles F. Walsh, one of the Glenn Curtiss aviators, drove his Farman biplane into a telephone wire and completely wrecked it yesterday, before 5,000 peo ple. The aviator was only thirty feet from the ground when the plane veered, keeled over as it struck a telephone wire, and smashed into a grove of trees bordering the water of Lake Kearney. Walsh was uninjured.

The machine was crumpled into a mass f junk, but the engine is not damaged beyond repairs. As the aeroplane tilted toward the ground, the crowd stood voice less and then as it crashed through the trees they swooped down on it at a swift run. Company A. Nebraska National guard. doing police duty for the day formed a ircle about the broken bi-plane and with fixed bayonets held the crowd back. However, within two hours the crowd was so clamorous for souvenirs that Walsh allowed hem to take parts of the broken machine and within fifteen minutes the silken planes were gone and the bamboo frame had been carried away. Walsh said: "If I had been going into he wind I could have easily gone above the wires or landed without accident. There was a wind from the east and I was flying west and it was difficult to go higher. "I felt the machine tilt and tried to rise but could not, although I never had so much power. When the machine struck the ground I thought it was turning over on men and got out of the way as quick as I could. "The accident will result in cancelling the date at Fremont Tuesday and I will have to have another machine. It was completely Walsh received not a scratch, though his machine shot almost straight down into the earth. The Kearney Commercial club ten days ago secured Walsh for four flights. He was then performing at Laramie and later flew at Cheyenne, Special trains had been run on all railroads leading ey and a huge crowd had gathered

DEMOCRATS OUT AFTER SCALP Majority in House Seeks to Diamisa

Captain Michael. (From a Staff Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, Aug. 5 .- (Special Telegram.)-The minority in the house today made a hard fight to prevent consideration first, near Paul St., Rev. John Albert the Dent resolution which provides for Williams, Priest-Eighth Sunday after of the Dent resolution which provides for taking up and considering the report of the committee on expenditures in the State department which calls upon the president a. m. to instruct Secretary Knox to dismiss Captain W. H. Michael of Nebraska, now United States consul general at Calcutta and Thomas Morrison, disbursing clerk of W. the State department, because of their connection with the now famous payment for the portrait of former Secretary of State

Day. Immediately after the resolution was presented a point of no quorum was raised, which was immediately followed by a motion to adjourn for the day. On this roll call was had and the house decided not to adjourn. Then followed an extended debaie on the form in which the resolution was couched, in which Daizell of Pennsylvania, Lenroot of Wisconsin and Madison of Kansas and others participated.

Judge Madison bitterly assailed the find ings of the committee in their efforts to coerce the president through his secretary of state to dismiss Michael, who is now on the other side of the world and has never been given an opportunity to refute in person the allegations made against him. However, the democratic steam roller was in good working order and finally the many prominent men saying they will be findings of a majority of the committee on expenditures in the State department with its censure of Michael and Morrison, former chief of the bureau of forestry, and and request for their discharge from the James H. ### HE HAS JEWELS TO Maharaja of Baroda Outshines All Other Monarchs of the World.

Another native ruler who is likely to attract public attention is His Highness Maharaja Sir Sayaji Rao Gaekwar Bahadur of Baroda, who possesses probably the finest collection of jewels in the world.

The gaekwar represents a state which has been in the hands of the Mahrattas since the early part of the eighteenth century, when his ancestor, the first gackwar. wrested the territory from the hands of the Moguls. He became the ruler of Bh. roda at the age of 12. His palace at Baroda is one of the most remarkable buildings in India. It has cost millions to build from first to last. It is called Lakahimi Vilas-"the Abode of the Goddess of Fortune." The corridors are of alabaster and pearl, inlaid with precious stones, and the throne room is magnificent in its gorgeous splendor. The gackwar's jewels are the wonder of Asia. In the "tosha-khana"-the treasure chambers of the old Nazi Bagh palace-there are precious stones the like of which not even Aladdin or Sindblad ever saw. There is the famous "Star of the South." one of the great diamonds of the world, bigger than our own Koh-i-noor, and the only second to the Cullinan. Then there is St. John's, Twenty-sixth and Franklin, Rev. W. H. Bayley, Rector—Holy communion, 6 a. m. Children eucharist, 10 a. m. Choral eucharist, 11 a. m. Evensong row of pearls, and knotted with immense pigeon blood rubies on the left shoulder: and the necklace, which falls from the throat to the waist, made up of sevenrows of pear-shaped diamonds as large as hazel nuts. There is a carpet, large enough to cover the floor of a fair sized room, covered with seed pearls, and is worth a king's ransom. And, besides all this, there are bushels of uncut stones and cups carved out of solid emeralds.

Nor are these gems and precious metals confined to the treasure chambers. They may be found in the elephant stables as well. These have their gold and jeweled howdahs, one of which is the gift of the Empress-Queen Victoria. Another for the little princes is borne by silver leopards, which have spots of chrysoprase and aquamarine. There are great forehead plaques, gulding prongs and leading chains of pure gold inlaid with every gem. And for those who wish to climb up into the howdah there are ladders of solid silver. The stables contain other treasures. There is a victoria made of gold, and a litter for the use of the Maharani also made of gold. set with rubies. And then there is the wonderful silver bullock wagon with beautiful embroidered hangings of gold tissue. And last of all, there is a cannon of solid silver which a former ruler of Barado had made, and another of solid gold which a successor, not to be outdone, had cast. But fortunately for his people it is not in his treasure houses that the heart of the gackwar is to be found. His training under European influences has led him to see aside until tomorrow.

The case grows out of the voucher for $2,450 in payment of a portrait of former Secretary of State Day, the artist having and also in the evening at 7:45.
