

New Season at the Local Theaters Now Almost at Hand

YET a few more days and the Omaha theaters will invite the public to come again and be amused by a variety of entertainment.

Opening dates are already being announced. The Brandeis will have for its first attraction Harry Bulzer in "The Flirting Princess."

When the roads meet at a parting and the time comes to say good bye, memory runs back to the earlier days when we were young and strong and full of hope and endeavor.

ENTERTAINER AT THE ROME SUMMER GARDEN.

CHARLES TOBIN.

LADY COSSACK RIDER WITH "THE BILL" SHOW.

ARLINE PALMER. Who Daily Does a Daring Stunt With the Wild West and Far East.

pony express rider, army scout, Indian fighter, guide to the Grand Duke Alexis, chosen comrade of Sheridan, Sherman, Custer, Merritt, Crook, Miles, Carr and other United States generals of the army, has gone over the world, carrying with him his congress of Indians, cowboys, vaqueros, and cavalry of all nations—teaching history in a way never before attempted.

The distinguishing feature of "The Wild West" has always been its naturalness, the absence of all pretence of artificiality. This fact won for it a reception and approval never before extended to any exhibition offered to the public.

This is the last visit of Colonel Cody in the riddle in our city. Then will we see in this connection for the last time the man who has made for himself a fame seldom attained by anyone.

Inasmuch as this is practically the windup week for the run of vaudeville this summer at the Gayety, the management announces a bill for the first half of the week, starting this afternoon.

Among the many are the premier comedians, Ben and Max Gordon, who are said to start in their chit-chatting and goose flesh raising act where all others leave off.

Fields in "The Lady from Paris," an one-act play, mostly of up-to-date comedy song hits. For good measure, the management has re-engaged Mr. Alexander Barthold, who will introduce some classical vocal selections ranging from operatic selections to sentimental ballads.

OMAHA TRICK BICYCLE RIDERS COME HOME.

DON AND MAE GORDAN.

The American Band of Providence is drawing tremendous crowds to Courtland Beach. Two concerts will be given today—the afternoon starting promptly at 3:00 o'clock and the evening at 8:15. The band is led by Bowen R. Church.

engagement continues up to and including Friday night, August 18, with a special Wednesday afternoon concert. The American band this year is under the leadership of Warren R. Fales, well and favorably known in the east.

The near approach of the opening of the season at the Orpheum is evidenced in activity within the pretentious theater. Decorators, scenic artists, carpet men and other artisans are pushing their work to completion for the opening, Sunday, August 27.

Max Spiegel's "College Girls" of 1911 open the season for the Gayety Theatre, week of Sunday, August 27. This musical extravaganza is but the fore-runner of thirty-seven more organizations of the same general make-up that will be seen at the Gayety from week to week.

CORNET SOLOIST WITH THE AMERICAN BAND.

BOWEN R. CHURCH. Who is Delighting His Hearers at Courtland Beach.

Warehouse Men to Meet Here Next Week

Central Association to Hold Two Days' Session at the Commercial Club Rooms.

When the Central Warehousemen's club holds its semi-annual session here on Monday and Tuesday morning in the Commercial club everything that pertains to the business of the warehousemen will be discussed pro and con.

The central club recruits its members from all of the central states in the union and is composed of nearly all of the larger companies in all the big cities. Invitations to the meeting have been sent to the following members: Cedar Rapids Transfer company, Cedar Rapids, Ia.; Calder Storage and Transfer company, Cedar Rapids, Ia.; Council Bluffs Grape Growers' association, Council Bluffs, Ia.; Denver Storage and Warehouse company, Denver, Colo.; Denver Transit and Warehouse company, Denver, Colo.; D. H. Falke, Denver, Colo.; Turner Moving and Storage company, Denver, Colo.; Welker Transfer company, Duluth, Minn.; Duffy Moving and Storage company, Denver, Colo.; Clagett Storage and Transfer company, Kansas City, Mo.; Globe Storage and Moving company, Kansas City, Mo.; K. & M. Storage Co., Kansas City, Mo.; Brine Transfer and Storage company, Wichita, Kan.; Merchants Transfer company, Springfield, Ill.; Crutcher Warehouse company, Kansas City, Mo.; Garrison Van and Storage company, Dallas, Tex.; Cummings' Storage company, Canton, O.; Western Transfer company, El Paso, Tex.; St. Joseph Transfer company, St. Joseph, Mo.; Dougherty & Bryant, Sioux City, Ia.; St. Louis Transfer company, St. Louis, Mo.; Hastings Van and Storage company, Hastings, Neb.; Norfolk Implement Transfer company, Norfolk, Neb.; and F. S. Knapp, Fremont, Neb.

AMUSEMENTS.

OMAHA ONE DAY ONLY MONDAY, AUG. 14 GROUND 21ST AND PAUL STREETS

Advertisement for Buffalo Bill's Wild West Frontier Days. Features a large portrait of Buffalo Bill and text: 'BUFFALO BILL THE MAN WHO ORIGINATED, CREATED AND MADE THE WILD WEST FRONTIER DAYS HISTORIC ANNUAL FESTIVALS NOW BIDS YOU GOOD-BYE'.

The Workmen's Compensation Act--Its Constitutionality

(Editorial in The Outlook.) With one exception, Switzerland, all the nations of Europe (including Russia, but not Turkey), and also a number of states in this union, have passed what is known as workmen's compensation laws. These laws differ in their method, but agree in their fundamental principle. They recognize the truth that in modern, highly organized industries an accident to an individual workman, like an accident to the machinery which he uses, should be regarded as occurring, not to the individual, but to the business, and the loss should fall, not upon the individual, but upon the business.

of the United States, an opinion on this subject more authoritative. We think that the states in the union it will carry greater weight than the decision of the court of appeals of the state of New York. In the light of this signed statement and of what The Outlook has hitherto said editorially on this subject we do not hesitate to affirm our conviction that the decision of the court of appeals of New York state on this subject is in accordance neither with facts of life, with the principles of justice, with the historical development of law, with the analogies which may fairly be traced in the decision of the supreme court of the United States, nor with the legal opinion of the best legal authorities in the nation. The statement, with an explanatory preamble, is as follows: "The decision of the court of appeals of New York, declaring the workman's compensation act of that state unconstitutional, while to no binding force in other states, is apt to be regarded by those who are not in a position to form an independent opinion as an authority for the entire country adverse to any mandatory scheme requiring an employer to pay compensation to employees for injuries suffered in the course of their employment, which are not traceable to fault or negligence."

upon explicit constitutional provisions, or upon the established interpretation of the constitution, or upon the principles implied in the spirit and history of our institutions. The new principle of workmen's compensation is not opposed to any explicit provision, nor to any previous judicial decision interpreting the constitution. The case concededly presented a new problem. It is submitted that a court should not limit our vision to the narrow confines of any limitations that stand in the way of the progress of the law toward better social justice within the limits of established institutions. The constitution commits the lawmaking and the law-changing power to the legislature, and not to the people. The implied guaranties and the guaranty of due process should be confined to principles which the courts regard as essential to justice, to liberty, and to the institution of property. No principle which we should be willing to see introduced by constitutional amendment should be held contrary to the principles of our state process, or to the principle of the permanent and essential principle that it was intended to be. A court which condemns a rule of law as contrary to due process should not suggest a remedy by an appeal to the people; for such a suggestion creates the impression that the principle of due process is one susceptible of improvement. Due process of law should not mean one thing in the state constitution, and another thing in the federal constitution, and it cannot mean in the federal constitution either a variable way of more perfect justice. To quote from the opinions of the supreme court of the United States: "The constitution of the United States, which is necessarily and to a large extent inflexible and exceedingly difficult of amendment, should not be construed as to deprive the states of the power to so amend their laws as to make them conform to the wishes of the citizens as they may desire best for the public welfare, without bringing them into conflict with the supreme law of the land. Of course, it is impossible to forecast the character or extent of these changes, but in view of the fact that from the day Magna Charta was signed to the present moment amendments to the structure of the law have been made with increasing frequency, it is impossible to suppose that they will not continue and the law be forced to adapt itself to new conditions of society, and particularly to the new relations between employers and employes as they arise." (10 U. S. 383.) "There is nothing in Magna Charta, rightly construed as a broad charter of public right and law, which ought to exclude the best ideas of all systems and of every age; and as it was the characteristic principle of the common law to draw its inspiration from every fountain of justice, we are not to assume that the source of its supply have been exhausted. On the contrary, we should expect that the new and various experiences of our own situation and system will mold and shape it into new and not less useful forms." (19 U. S. 53.) PERCY BORDWELL, University of Iowa. formerly of the University of Missouri. ANDREW A. BRUCE, University of North Dakota. ERNST FREUND, University of Chicago. E. A. GILMORE, University of Wisconsin. FRANK J. GOODNOW, Columbia University. FREDERICK GREEN, University of Illinois. JAMES PARKER HALL, University of Chicago.

C. H. HUBERICH, Leland Stanford, Jr., University. WILLIAM CAREY JONES, University of California. ISIDOR LOEY, University of Missouri. ROSCOE POUND, Harvard University. HENRY SCHOFIELD, Northwestern University. H. M. TOWNER, University of Iowa. W. W. WILLOUGHBY, Johns Hopkins University. "Prof. Haynes of Cornell university concurs in the conclusion that the decision is erroneous and much to be regretted, and substantially agrees with both the grounds of criticism suggested. His name, however, is not included in the list simply because he is not ready to subscribe to certain sentences in the latter part of the second section.—The Editors."

Dresher Bros. Engage Special Repair Force

Many Winter Garments Already Coming in Make More Workers Necessary.

Hundreds of Omahans, and even those living in "outside" towns, are taking advantage of Dresher Bros.' offer to store away winter clothes after cleaning and repairing them. The garments at the same time to be insured against fire and burglary at Dresher's expense.

The influx of work has made a large additional repair force necessary; most patrons wanting their winter clothes thoroughly dry cleaned; then re-lined; equipped with velvet collars and cuffs in many cases, and in some cases Dresher experts are even called upon to completely change the style of a garment.

All this can be done to the best advantage if the repair force has plenty of time at its disposal; therefore, the advisability of getting your work in now before the cold season rush is on. Leave your work at Dresher Bros.' establishment at 2311-2313 Farnam St., at the corner of 23rd and Farnam Streets, or Dresher's up-town receiving station in the Pompeian Room of the Brandeis Stores. Or better still, phone Tyler 1300 or Auto A-2225 for a wagon. If you live out of town send in your work by express; Dreshers pay charges one way when work amounts to $3 or over. Remember, winter is not so very far away after all; be prepared.

Knights of the King to Hear Colonel Cody at the Den Monday

Hotel Men Will Also Join the Merry Feast Provided for the Cannibals.

Ak-Sar-Ben knights will also share in the "fast appearance" of Colonel W. F. Cody Monday night. For the knight of the saddle, through Samson's tireless activity, has promised to give the knights of Nebraska's great king a special speech at the initiatory exercises Monday night and also to put on some sort of a special "stunt." Just what the special stunt is like is to be kept a secret, it having been planned by Samson to come as a glad surprise. A fourth group has been added to the three organizations that will be entertained at the Den Monday night. It will be made up of the hotel men that assemble here from surrounding points to catch the Transmississippi express Tuesday morning for the Northwestern hotel men's convention at Grand Forks, N. D. The number, although not definitely known, is large, and Samson wants every local bonfire to come out and help entertain the visitors. The other organizations to be entertained are the Transmississippi golfers, the Central Warehouse Men and the Travelers' Protective association posts of Omaha, Council Bluffs and South Omaha. Fifty thousand inserts are being sent out to Omaha jobbers for them to put into their country correspondence. The inserts bear approximate Ak-Sar-Ben advertising and have a coupon attached which if presented at the Den counter signed by the jobber will admit the bearer to the delights of an evening's entertainment at the Den. A $900 piano player goes in the new Bee Booklovers' contest. See announcement Sunday, August 13.

IF IT'S AT THE GAYETY IT'S GOOD

Advertisement for the Gayety Theatre. Text: 'STARTING AT 1 P. M. TODAY Coattless Vaudeville A HUM DINGER SHOW CLOSING WEEK YEA, A RIP SHORTER Runs Like This Until Thursday--THE SENSATIONAL CYCLISTS, DON & MAE GORDON Hippodrome Stunts That Start Chills & Gooseflesh Prof. Hayden $1,000 Cremona Talking Biskley & Mils' Famous Bill and Famous Stunts That Start Chills & Gooseflesh The Paris-Evelyn LISLE in Gorgeous Singe With Chic, Frenchy Abandon Noneless, BERT PAGE The Inside in Comparison a Corkscrew is Straight The Gayety's Own Distinctive MOVING PICTURES Largest, Clearest, Best West. Another All New Show Thurs. Big Special Good-bye Coattless Show All Next Sun., Aug. 20. Come Any Time; Stay As Long As You Like DAILY 7 TO 11. 10c. KIDS 5c Regular season opens Sun. Mat., Aug. 27, with "The College Girls." Seat Sale Starts Monday, Aug. 21.'

Courtland Beach

Advertisement for Courtland Beach. Text: 'TODAY AT 3:00 TONIGHT AT 8:15 BIG FESTIVAL OF BAND MUSIC GIVEN BY THE AMERICAN BAND OF PROVIDENCE, R. I. Warren R. Fales, Director. Bowen R. Church, Cornet Soloist. Positively Greatest Concert Band Entour.'

Don't Fail to See THE LATEST, FAMOUS PASSION PLAY

Advertisement for Lake Manawa. Text: 'LAKE MANAWA Sunday Evening, Aug. 13, 1911. FREE Three thousand feet of films, correctly and beautifully colored, taken at an expense of $55,000 at the latest of the famous plays at Oberlinburg. Many Other Attractions'

ROME SUMMER GARDEN Vaudeville and Photo Plays Dine Out Doors

Advertisement for Rome Summer Garden. Text: 'COOLEST PLACE IN OMAHA ORCHESTRA EVERY EVENING Admission 10 Cents' and 'Doug 1602 FRANKLIN TAXI & SERVICE CO. Day and Night Service Ind 41602'

BASE BALL OMAHA vs. ST. JOSEPH ROURKE PARK

Advertisement for Base Ball game. Text: 'Aug. 12-13-14 Sunday Aug. 13--Two Games First Game Called 3:30 Monday Aug. 14--Ladies' Day GAMES CALLED 3:45 Car Leaves 15th and Farnam at 3:30 Better than any and less than a penny FOR COUNTY TREASURER. W. G. URE.'