powers and lived to see hig leaguer hauled from the ground heels first, and with him evidently went the Rourkes' only chance for a run, as the rest of the fracas was o the no run style.

Kneaves Throws Wild. But for one error made by Kneaves in the sixth inning, the game might hav gone until darkness. Kneaves, in his hurry to pull off a double play threw the bal wild to Kane, alowing Meinke to rac all ih way from second base to the homplatter. It was the last run of the game and the one which beat the Rourkes Kneaves, however, could not be blame much for th throw as he had to dodg the runner coming towards him and sti get the ball away in time to catch th man at first. Thomason made he secon error he has made on the home ground this season, but it was harmless and n runs came in. Chellette sent & high on to the center garden, and after much juda ing. Tommie got the ball in his mitt onl to have it bounce out.

St. Joseph Begins Early,

St. Joseph made the two first runs game in the opening round, due mostly, to Demott's inability to get a line on th pan. He passed the first man up, Kelly and then struck out Reilly. He then thre the ball away, allowing Kelly to get t third. Zwilling, after getting three will ones, stepped in and shot the leather t left for a clean single and scored Kelly Borton was an easy out to Kane. Crit tenden, the new catcher, acquired by th Holland, and who played the center ga den position yesterday, broke up the in ning with a double to left, sending Zwil ing across the pan for the second tally. Omaha failed to get anything in the fir two innings, but in the third a triple, a infield hit, and a double, after two ha gone out, deadlocked the score. Moor tripled to left. Neihoff laid a pretty bun down the third base line, and beat the ba to first, while Moore slid under Gossett legs for the first Rourke tally. Nieho stole second and road home on Thomason double to center.

Two More for Rourkes. Neither team did naything in the ne inning, but the Rourkes, by the aid of th willow, pulled down a couple more run in the sixth. Moore walked, Niehoff an rificed. Thomason slammed the ball again the right field fence for three bags as scored when Kane hammered the hors hide to the left field fence for two bag In the aixth St. Joseph broke up the mer ing. Borton opened up with a double left. Crittenden secured free transport tion. Giffin flew out. Meinke singled center and Borton ambled across the pa Gossett followed with a single to les Meinke getting to second, and Crittende reached the pan in safety. Demott se one to Kane who threw Gossett out second. Kneaves in an attempt to a Chellette before the reached first, sent t ball to Kane, but it went wild of the ma and Meinke came home with the last a winning run of the game, Score:
