Other news of the day embraced a meet-ing of the Union Pacific directors, at which no action in the matter of electing ing of the Union Pacific directors, at which no action in the matter of electing Mr. Frick's successor was taken; the shad-ing of rates on time money, due to recent stock liquidation, another advance in cot-ton and weakness in the grain markets. Canadian Pacific's annual statement shows an increase of $4,200,000 in total in-come, despite an increase of $6,300,000 in operating expenses. Louisville and Nash-ville for the year reported a loss of $2,000,-000, in net revenues, which is fully ac-counted for by an increase of almost $3,400,-000 in operating expenses. The bond market was steady, save for a sharp decline of 2% points in New York, New Haven and Hartford convertible sizes. Total sales par value, $1,645,000.
