CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS Peatures of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—The grain markets were quiet and firm today, the close being from % 1/2 to 10 over yesterday. Provisions closed 2½ to 5c up. Trade in all pits was slow. Strength in the cash wheat market, based on decreased receipts and foreign demand, was reflected in the futures by advances all along the line. Minneapolis, which ruled strong all day, thus giving color to reports of disappointing yields in the northwest, was an influence, especially as many speculators believed that a reaction was due after the recent continuous decline. Receipts at Minneapolis are increasing but the quality is said to be believe part. Canadian reports were rosy. Cash discounts on September are disappearing rapidly, the trade going into December and May options. There was growing apprehension as to the effect of the English strike on American grain market. September sold between 90/1994c and 89/2094c, closing close to the top.

The close in the corn pit found prices at the top for the day. The volume of business transacted vas small. The cash demand here was slim. September sold between 64% 200 and 64% c and closed at the top.

NEW YORK STOCKS AND BONDS

Improvement is manifested by Market During Day.

Quotations of the Day on Various PRICES STILL AT LOW LEVELS Most Encouraging Feature Buying and Resultant Strength of U. P., Which Regains More Than Three Points.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—Some sight improvement was shown by the stock market today. At the opening a drive of the shorts served to depress prices of many issues to a new low level, but the list soon became relatively steady.

Shortly before the close another selling movement obliterated a majority of the gains, the general list being lower than the preceding day.

The most encouraging feature was the gains, the general list being lower than the preceding day.

The most encouraging feature was the buying and resultant strength of Union Pacific, which, after selling down to yesterday's low point, rebounded, and by midday had gained more than three points. If surface conditions may be accepted as a guide buying of Union Pacific today eminated from substantial sources which have vehemently dealed much of the gossip recently current and denounced the selling of Union Pacific as having originated in obscure or irresponsible quarters.

United States Steel also reflected good support at advancing prices, although turning heavy when offerings became too free. The stock was taken in large amounts, the day's output being 21.000 shares.

Many stocks displayed a distinct backward tendency, particularly St. Paul, Reading. Lehigh Valley and the Hill Issues. The street was plainly discouraged over the prospects of indefinite prolongation of the congressional session and the apparent failure of the efforts to adjust the labor situation in England. The statement of the Bank of England conveyed no idea of any undue strain. Its proportion of reserves to liabilities increased almost 2 percent and was well above the average for the last ten years. London was fairly active here, selling about 15,000 shares on balances, mostly Union Pacific, Southern Pacific and United States Steel.

The bond market was easy, Total sales, par value, £2,205,000. United States government bonds were unchanged.

are closing firm to perhaps a little higher in spots.

Good lambs moved with a fair degree of freedom around $8.50[6.05, indicating a steady trade and a quotable limit of $6.90 or $7.00. Much of the strength apparent earlier in the week has vanished and current values average generally steady with those of last Friday.

Feeder demand failed to show as much life as on recent days, but this condition was not very surprising in view of the fact that a reduced week-end supply is generally large enough to satisfy a country demand of curtailed volume on the closing days of any week. Prices were well sustained, even though trading was quiet, leaving a set of quotations that show 159 40c advances over last week's close. Feeder purchases yesterday amounted to 4.800 40c advances over last week's close. Feeder purchases yesterday amounted to 4.500 head, about half of total receipts.

Missing High School Girl Found, Prisoner in Her Home City

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Aug. 17. Breaking into the offices of A. W. Mc David, a dentist, at midnight, Chief of Police Mespelt found huddled in a corner baby at her breast, Miss Jessie McDonald, the high school girl, missing from her home for eighteen months. The girl declared she had been held in subjection in house adjoining the dentist's office.

Miss McDonald, who is 20 years old, was pitiful figure, clothed in ragged garments stopping it. and wasted almost to a skeleton. McDavid, who is a married man, was arrested on a statutory charge.

Miss McDonald declared she had been held in subjection by McDavid through hypnotic influence and had undergone awful suffering. Almost in the same breath she declared that she loved McDavid. District Attorney Goodsell declared that only at night, and then closely veiled, would McDavid allow her to leave the apartment. On these occasions he would take her buggy riding in the outskirts of Theodore Roosevelt Writes Article on Subject for Magazine.

ACTION NECESSARY AT THE TIME Subsequent Control of Business

Through Ore Property Does Not

Absolve Company from Vio-

Intion of Sherman Act. NEW YORK, Aug. 17-Ex-President Roosevelt has an article on "The Steel Corporation and the Panic of 1907" in the Outlook appearing today. Mr. Roosevelt discusses his recent appearance before the congresional committee investigating the Steel Corporation, repeating the written statement he then presented and dealing with some of the lines of inquiry and his responses. He says;

On Saturday, August 5, in compliance with the request of the chairman of the congresional committee investigating the absorption of the Tennessee Coal & Iron company by the Steel corporation, I appeared before that body. I had nothing new to which to testify. There was not a fact of the slightest importance or of the slightest bearing upon my action which was not already known, and which had not been known from the time I acted and incidentally I may mention that this is also true as regards Panama, the dealings of my administration with the Sugar Trust or any other trust, and as to any other action of my administration. Nobody need feet either concern or hope as to whether anything done by my administration will be "discovered," for the excellent reason that there is nothing that was hidden.

Did Not Inquire About Motives. "I made to the committee the statemen which follows. Several questions were then asked by different members of the ommittee. Most of these questions dealt with matters not of sufficient moment to warrant allusion to them here. Many of them were as to what my belief was concerning the motives of the Steel Corporation people in acquiring the Tennessee Coal & Iron company's property; to which, of course, my answer was that it was not my business, and neither was it in my power to search the hidden domain of motive, and that my action was conditioned, not upon what I believed to be the motives actuating the Steel Corporation, but upon my belief that the action which they proposed taking would be enormously to the benefit of the community at large at that particular moment. Whether the chief motive for their action was a desire to absorb the Tennessee Coal & Iron company, or whether their chief motive was to save the threatened New York firm from fallure, and thereby stop the panic, was of no concern to me. "That both motives were in their minds thought possible, and now think possible What was the predominant motive was of no consequence. My concern was that the action should be taken and the situation saved to the interests of the people of the United States. Most individuals have short memories and the events in question took place nearly four years ago; but if any one will look back and think the matter over seriously and in good faith, he will understand that it was not a question of saving any bank or trust company from failure; the question was of saving the plain people the common people, in all parts of the United States from fearful misery and suffering; and this was what my action did.

Action Was Necessary. "One of the questions put to me indicated disbelief, or, to be more accurate, perhaps, I should say that it was meant to be under stood as indicating disbelief, that the action taken was really efficient in stopping the panic. At the time, and for some month after the panic had been stopped, no man would have ventured to express such disbelief unless prepared to be greeted with derision by every human being who knew anything whatever of the actual facts. The question is not be be treated seriously, for It cannot be so treated. The action taker was, in my judgment, the only action that could stop the panic, and it most certainly was of enormous, and in all human probability of decisive, influence in actually

"Certain other question related to the alleged fact that during the last four years the ore lands formerly owned by the Tennessee Coal and Iron company have been developed until they are of such enormous importance as to give to the steel corners. tion nearly complete control of the steel business, through control of the sources of the raw material. Whether or not this is so has no bearing upon the action taken four years ago. The purchase as made did not by itself, one way of the other, affect the status of the steel corporation so far as the Sherman law was concerned; and this statement is not affected by consideration of what may not be a totally different infant had been her only companion while state of affairs four years later. I dealt with facts as they were, not with facts as they might or might not afterwards become. I believe that this covers every point of any consequence raised in the questions put to me after I had made my statement." SIGNAL MAINTAINER KILLED
