Read the Rules Carefully ads with the same courtesy as a paid ad. Domestic help and situation wanted ads cannot be counted as votes.

No entry fee is charged. The receipt by The Bee Want Tad Editor of a nomination blank properly filled out, constitutes sufficient entry, and counts as ten votes for the candidate. Only one nominating blank will be counted for each contestant.

Receipt books will be furnished all the contestants on application.

Everyone is eligible except em-ployes of The Bee and members of their families. Only paid want ads brought in or sent in by contestants count as votes.

Each paid want ad counts as one vote each time the ad appears. Want ads from Omaha real state dealers and those already advertising in The Bee do not count. All ads subject to investigation and rejection by The Bee.

Only bona fide ads will count; ads found to be of bogus address and in-serted only for the purpose of getting votes will be declared void and not counted. The Ad-Getter contest will close Saturday evening, August 15, at 5 P. M.

SAYS HE STOLE ELECTRICITY

John C. Hodgson is Charged with Tapping the Wires of the Electrie Light Company.

John G. Hodgson, charged with stealing electricity, was arrested on complaint of the Omaha Electric Light and Power company and arraigned in county court Wednesday afternoon. He pleaded not guilty and was admitted to bail in the sum of $280.

The complaint was made under a new statute against the tapping of electric wires. It is charged that Hodgson, a South Omaha resident, tapped one of the electric company's wires and transported the ourrent to his home, where he used it for lighting and for power.
