The Badge of Prestige

The diamond is much more than the rarest of all gems. It means more to its owner than this. It's possession is a badge of prestige and a stamp of worldly success. Aside from its beauty and charm as an attractive article of adornment, the admitted distinction and class that it implies to the wearer should be an additional incentive towards the acquisition of one or more. Moreover, diamonds are steadily increasing in value, which fact makes them a good, permanent investment. People who put their money into diamonds ten years ago today can realize more than 100 per cent on their investment. Those who know the value of diamonds and the manner in which they are increasing in value are yearly putting several hundred dollars into these stones. They form one of the best kinds of investments for the cautious money-saver.

Autumn is fast superseding summer as wedding time. The cool fall days are coming more and more to be chosen by prospective brides and grooms for the celebration of the greatest event in their lives, and June is losing popularity. Many Omaha young men and women will be married this fall. Some of them will marry out of town—the young women going to other places to make their future homes and the men bringing their brides to Omaha. The earliest of these weddings will be that of Miss Margaret Whitney, daughter of Mrs. C. W. Morton, and Prof. Brainerd Mears of Williamstown, Mass., which will take place August 23 at 5 o'clock at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Salter, in Williamstown. Miss Whitney spent her girlhood in Omaha, was graduated from the high school and later from Wellesley college. She will be attended by her sister, Miss Dorothy Morton, and by her cousin, Miss Edith Salter. After a trip to Canada the young people will reside in Williamstown, where Prof. Mears is junior professor in chemistry in Williams college. One of the first of the September weddings will be that of Miss Ethel Mearns, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Alfred S. Mattson, and Mr. Prescott Head of Peoria, Ill., September 1. This will be a home wedding with the Rev. D. E. Jenkins officiating. The wedding of Mr. Joseph Barton and Miss Gladys Graham of Portland will be a large church affair in September, with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Barton among the attendants. In September Miss Frances McCreary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCreary, will be married to Mr. Thomas Lynch. The wedding of Miss Ruth Brandeis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Brandeis, and Mr. Irving C. Stern of New York City will lead off the October nuptials. It will be held October 18 in the Maxine Elliot home on East Eighty-first street, which Mr. and Mrs. Brandeis have taken in New York. The marriage will be followed by a tour of Europe which will include a visit at the home of Mr. Stern's sister, Baroness Leo de Giffentheim, in Paris. The wedding of Miss Susan Holdrege, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Holdrege, and Dr. R. R. Hollister will take place in early October in Unity church. Two other weddings which will occur on the same day early in October are that of Mrs. Anna Yates and Mr. John Lindsay and Miss Ethel Ballman and Mr. Charles Johnson. The marriage of Miss Mayone Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Thompson, and Mr. Thomas Moonlight Murphy of Kansas City, Mo., will be held in October. Most elaborate of the November weddings will be that of Miss Brownie Bess Baum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Baum, and Mr. John Rouse of Baltimore. The wedding at All Saints church will be followed by a reception at the beautiful Baum home. Miss Baum will have a number of attendants in her wedding party, several of them from the east. Some of the weddings scheduled for the future will be held in the early winter. Among these is that of Mr. Ross Towle and Miss Hazel Dewese of Canon City, Colo., which will be held in December. There will be a large church wedding. The wedding of Miss Rosina Mandelberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Mandelberg, and Mr. Edward Freedman of Springfield, Mass., will take place during the holidays. The date for the marriage of Miss Edith Patrick, daughter of Mrs. M. T. Patrick, and Mr. Myles Standish has not yet been set.

Golf was the big attraction last week socially as well as athletically. Although the women at the Country club were not in the Transmississippi tournament, they took part in the festivities for the golfers and watched for some time the play. In no other local golf tourney have the women shown so much interest. The presence of the wives of some of the golfers accounted for this in part. Among the visiting women were Mrs. McLoughlin of Denver, Mrs. Ferguson of Oklahoma City, Mrs. Hires of Kansas City, Mrs. Scrimman of Marshalltown and Mrs. Darr of Des Moines. The approach of fall brings with it many festivities among the college sets, particularly with the fraternities. Friday evening the Beta Theta Pi fraternity gave a large dinner dance at Happy Hollow club. About fifty local members of the Delta Tau Delta fraternity and an equal number from out in the state and surrounding states will meet Tuesday at the Loyal hotel. There will be a dinner at 6:30 o'clock and after that the remainder of the evening will be spent in preparing to leave for Chicago to attend the Karnes, the fraternity's bi-annual national convention. This will be held in the Chicago Auditorium hotel. The members of Phi Gamma Delta will be entertained this evening at supper by Earl Sage in South Omaha. The decorations will be in purple and white and the emblem, the "Phi," will be used. Those present will be Dana Van Dusen, Harold Van Dusen, M. C. Rohrbough, Earl Holmes, John Brain, Wallace Troup, Morris Blush. All of these young men attend the University of Nebraska. Miss Dredemona Baldwin, one of the out-of-town guests at the Beta dance, is giving a house party for some of the Betas and her girl friends at her home, Happy Hill, 32 Rikhorn, Neb. The party of young people left Saturday evening in automobiles for Elkhorn and are being entertained at the Baldwin home today. One of the stunts planned is a swimming party in the Elkhorn. In the party are Miss Marjorie Howland, Miss Dorothy Dale, Miss Louise Bedwell, Miss Bernice Whitney, Miss Sibyl Nelson, Miss Tress McCoid of Logan, Ia., and Miss Baldwin; Bob Thompson, Chester Baker, Harold McKinney, Clarence Siberson, Lawrence Robinson, Temple Robinson and D. B. Baldwin of Waterloo. Some Omaha people are still loyal to the horse, although they own automobiles, and horseback riding is proving to be one of the most popular diversions at some of the summer homes and summer camps. Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Cudahy are entertaining a house party this month at their summer home at Blackhawk. The young people include Miss Frances Nash, Miss Helen Cudahy, Miss Alice Cudahy and Miss Florence Cudahy, Mr. Alexander Shoeller of Germany, who is spending this year in New York; Mr. Edward Cudahy and Mr. Robert Burns. The latter is spending part of the time as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Kountze. Although the young people have sailing and swimming parties, each morning is devoted to horseback riding. The young women of this party are all expert riders, as well as the men. Omaha people who are spending the summer in the western mountains are also riding horseback. Miss Alice Carry McGrew returns home today from Wyoming, where she has been on a camping trip with her brother and Mr. and Mrs. McGrew. The principal diversion was horseback riding. Mr. Charles Saunders has just returned from Tepee Lodge from a hunting, fishing and camping trip. Other Omaha people now at the Lodges are Miss Ella M. Brown, Master Oroutt, Beaton, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Keeline and Mr. Charles Brown. Horseback riding is the principal recreation there, as well as at the Howard Eaton ranch, where Mrs. Wilson Low and Miss Miss Louise Hamilton spent a part of the summer.

Miss Grace Sorenson, who left Omaha March 1, for an extended vacation on the Pacific coast, has been having interesting experiences. From San Francisco Miss Sorenson went to Los Angeles, San Diego, Coronado Island and other attractive spots in southern California, after which she went through the Yosemite valley and returned to San Francisco and Alameda for a month. Miss Sorenson made a study of the Indian legends and historical places, particularly the old missions with a view to using them as material for future literary work. From San Francisco, Miss Sorenson visited Shasta Springs and Portland, her former home, and from there went to Tacoma and Seattle. She is now in Alaska, having reached Skagway Friday. On her return she will visit Seattle, and enroute home will visit in Helena, Butte, Salt Lake City, Colorado Springs, Denver and will make the trip through the Yellowstone park. Mrs. John Mahoney and daughter, May, are tied up in London, because of the strike which has stopped navigation. It is impossible for them to travel to Liverpool to get a boat bound for home. May Mahoney has been in Belgium for the last year studying French. Last June Mrs. Mahoney went to Belgium to meet her daughter and, accompany her home, when the school season closed the last of July. They went to London a few days ago and secured transportation to this country on a steamer which was to have left Liverpool Wednesday. They are still Miss Hope see for a piano free Everybody is looking for "something for nothing." There is no denying this. Everybody is willing to accept something for nothing. There are few places in this world, though, where things are given free. For this very reason, then, the Hospe plan of giving customers a slightly used piano free is a big hit with all people. Hospe does not charge a cent for a slightly used piano—a beginner's piano on which the children can learn to play. All he asks is that you return this first piano and buy a new one. The payments which would be charged for the first instrument in case you wanted to keep it for all time are applied on the second piano. These slightly used pianos are priced from $60 to $110. They are in perfect tone and in highly finished cases. Hospe will rent you one of these pianos by the month with stool and beautiful scarf for $3.00. PAY WHILE YOU PLAY A.
