TAFT WRITES TO AK-SAR-BEN

President Sends Letter in Reply to Invitation to Fall Festivities.

ITINERARY NOT YET MADE UP

Cannot Say When, if at All, He Will Visit Omaha During His Tour of the Western States.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 22.—(Special Telegram.)—Senator Brown today received the following letter from President Taft in answer to the one he delivered on behalf of Victor White of Omaha and other members of the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben inviting the chief executive to visit the Gate City during Ak-Sar-Ben week.

Mr. White endeavored to deliver this letter to the president at Beverly but his absence from the summer capitol made it impossible. Senator Brown acted in the capacity as messenger to the king on this occasion with this result:

"THE WHITE HOUSE, WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—Dear Senator Brown: The president very greatly appreciates the cordiality of the invitation to visit Omaha which you have presented to him on behalf of the Ak-Sar-Ben, and would be glad to have you convey to officers and members of the organization an expression of his warmest thanks. While he is sorry that he cannot now say definitely whether or not he will be able to include Omaha in the itinerary of his prospective western trip, he will be very glad to give careful consideration to the matter when the schedule is taken up after adjournment.

"Meanwhile, with renewed thanks in the president's behalf I am sincerely yours,

"CHARLES D. HILLES,
"Secretary to President.

"Hon. Norris Brown, United States Senate."

Senators Gamole and Crawford and Representative Martin of South Dakota have left for home and Representative Burke left tonight.

Prior to leaving, the South Dakota delegation were entertained at dinner by President Taft and of course affairs political were discussed, but incidentally Mr. Taft was again reminded that the following South Dakota cities would like to see him, however briefly, during his coming trip: Deadwood, Rapid City, Pierre, Huron, Redfield, Aberdeen, Milbank, Mitchell and Yankton.

Iowa senators and members are urging the president to stop at Cedar Rapids, Ottumwa, Sioux City, Des Moines, Waterloo, Keokuk and other Hawkeye cities.

To all who have called within the past few days bearing invitations the president is almost uniformly replying "that he will be very glad to give careful consideration to the matter when the final arrangement of his schedule is taken up after the adjournment of this session of congress."

Senator Brown will leave Washington tomorrow afternoon for Des Moines for a visit with his mother and that concluded will proceed direct to Kearney.

Miss Anna Howland, secretary to Senator Brown left tonight for her home in Lincoln.

Maxwell Cook of Lexington, Neb., left Wednesday for home.

Walter George, state treasurer of Nebraska, accompanied by Mrs. George, arrived in Washington today from Boston and other eastern points. Treasurer George came east to attend the ad writers' convention recently held at Boston and since its conclusion has visited various eastern cities. Today Mr. George called upon Representative Kinkaid and other members and also upon Senator Brown. Mr. George and wife will remain in Washington several days before starting for home.

Installation of Water Meters Causes Riot at Pocatello, Idaho

POCATELLO, Ida., Aug. 22.—Because Superintendent William Winter discharged a revolver at Sheriff James Francis, who was attempting to serve an injunction preventing the company from interfering with the water supply, 200 armed citizens attacked the reservoir of the local water works plant today and arrested the superintendent and employes. Tonight the water works is in the hands of city officials and for the first time since last Friday the city has water.

The entire trouble started when the company began to install a meter system in the city to replace the old rate system. The citizens refused to permit the meters to be installed. To retaliate, the company is alleged to have arbitrally shut down the water supply. Last Friday the city got out an injunction against interference with the water supply, setting up that Superintendent Winter was mentally irresponsible. When Sheriff Francis tried to serve the injunction today he was fired on.

DEPORTATION AROUSES CUBA

Gomez' Action in Regard to Newspaper Men Causes Discussion.

SONS TO CONTINUE NEWSPAPER

Young Villaverdes, American Born, Will Attack the Government—Spanish Coony Divided on the Matter.

HAVANA, Aug. 22.—The deportation to Spain Sunday night of Jose Maria Villaverde, managing editor of the conservative organ, Cuba, and his nephew, Manuel Villaverde, a member of the staff of the Cuba, has created intense excitement throughout the island and everywhere is the universal topic of conversation.

Administration newspapers stoutly defend the action of President Gomez in ordering the deportation of the men, while the openly hostile papers, such as El Dia and Cuba, denounce it as an outrage of the rights of foreigners resident in Cuba. El Mundo declares the only thing to be regretted about the incident is that the Villaverdes are Spaniards as between Spaniards and Cubans there should exist the warmest ties of racial affection.

Supporters of the administration cite in support of the action of President Gomez a resolution at an international conference held at Hamburg in 1894, to which it is alleged, all the powers subscribed, declaring it the absolute right of any ruler summarily to deport a foreigner whose conduct shall be considered detrimental to the interest of the country. They also point out as a precedent the deportation of Jose Pennino Barbato, an Italian adventurer charged with sedition, by order of the late President Palma.

The opponents of the administration declare there is nothing analogous in the case of Pennino and the Villaverdes, the elder Villaverde having been a highly esteemed resident of Cuba for nearly fifty years while Pennilo came here from New York where he was refused permission to land on the ground that he was a militant anarchist. Moreover, they say, Pennilo, immediately he landed in Cuba, began a campaign of sedition against the government.

Spanish Minister Waiting.

The Spanish minister is standing aloof from the controversy. He says he has made no representations to his home government, desiring first to ascertain all the facts and also to decide whether the Cuban government is acting within its international rights.

A few minutes before the departure of the Spanish steamer Alfonso XIII on which the Villaverdes were deported, General Freyre Andrade, former secretary of the interior, and Antonio Gonzales Lanuza, the conservative leader of the house, applied for writs of habeas corpus on behalf of the men, but these were denied on the ground that the application failed to give the names of the persons who arrested the Villaverdes. Secret police stormed the Villaverde home and took the men on board the Alfonso XIII.

The younger Villaverde, according to the advice of counsel, on the arrival of the steamer at the first Spanish port, where there is a Cuban consul, will appeal to the consul as a Cuban citizen for protection. The sons of the elder Villaverde who are Cuban born, today announced their intention to continue the publication of the Cuba and resolutely to pursue the policy of their father, who has persistently attacked the government.

The Spanish colony is divided in sentiment over the affair. The Spanish casino, the principal club of the Spaniards and of which Jose Villaverde is a former vice president and honorary member, decided today that it was inexpedient to take cognizance of the deportations in advance of action by the Spanish minister. The impression seems to prevail that the administration only proceeded with the deportation of the Villaverdes after having sounded the Spanish minister.

The Bee Offers More Than $5,000 in Free Prizes in the Second Booklovers' Contest

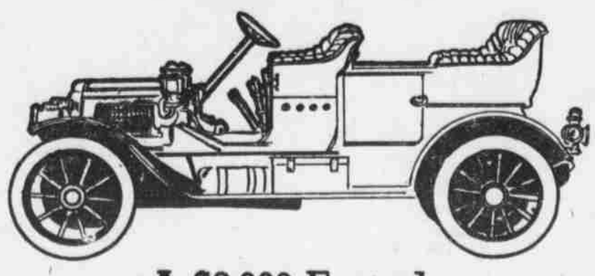
See Pictures and Rules on Paper This Issue.

FIRST PRIZE



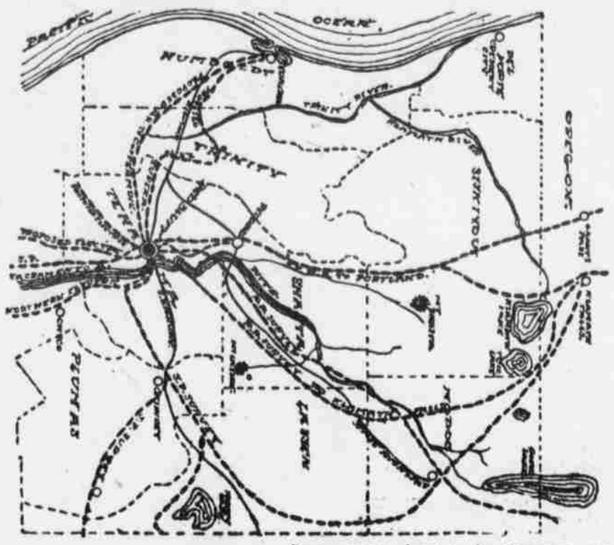
A $2,000 Famed White Steamer AUTOMOBILE

A Speedy Car. A Strong Car. A Hill Car.

This automobile will be on exhibition in Omaha at a later date.

This 5-passenger 1911 Model White Steamer Touring Car—odorless, smokeless and noiseless—is in the tenth year of its success. No car has stood the test of time with necessity for fewer changes. For stability in construction as well as in purpose and performance the White Steamer has held a high place in the mind of the motoring public. The car needs no cranking nor shifting of gears to get any desired speed. The increasing number of White Steamer cars being sold each succeeding year, together with the practical endorsement of the U. S. government, which owns and operates more Whites than all other makes combined, is sufficient guarantee of high quality.

SECOND PRIZE

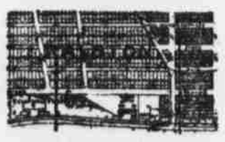


In a climate shown by the Government chart to be the same as that of Los Angeles, Fresno, etc., lies Tehama county, California. It is within two hundred and fifty miles of San Francisco and there is situated the famous Lutheran colony which has had so much discussion in Omaha by reason of a local clergyman taking the initiative in its formation. The Bee offers this 10-acre ranch as Second Prize in its Booklovers' Contest. Here is a livelihood for man, wife and children for the rest of time. Here is $1,250 in land, carrying free water, waiting only for the plow share and intelligence to cultivate it and produce almost any variety of fruit.

Full information concerning this land may be had at the office of THOWBRIDGE-BOLSTER CO., in the City National Bank Bldg., Omaha.

FOURTH PRIZE

Value $275.00



Ralston is to be a manufacturing city. They have a fine start with the Brown Truck Manufacturing Co., the Rogers Motor Car Co., and the Howare Stove Works. Everything desirable to comfortable living may be found there. On one of the main business streets The Bee has selected its fourth prize—a business lot, 25x100 feet, and valued at $275.00.

FIFTH PRIZE

Value $225.00

In the same town and with the same prospect of advancement, The Bee has selected a residence lot, 50x120 ft., and valued at $225.

Ralston is on the only interurban trolley line running out of Omaha, and within forty minutes of the Omaha postoffice.

Complete information about this property at the office of the RALSTON TOWNSITE COMPANY, 308 South 17th St., Omaha.

THIRD PRIZE

The accompanying illustration tells only of the outside of this magnificent KRELL AUTO-GRAND PIANO. It tells not of the vast excellence that lies beneath its magnificent, fancy walnut case. Well informed piano men are insistent in the claim that the Krell Auto-Grand is positively the most complete and efficient player-piano offered to the music-loving public.

The modulating pedals and the mechanism to carry the tune above the accompaniment are marvels of simplicity. The Krell Auto-Grand claims to have in the absolute, the "human touch" so prized by player-piano makers. From the inside to the case, from the pedals to the levers, this magnificent $900 player-piano may be examined with every facility at the piano warerooms on the third floor of the big

Governor Honors Hosick Requisition

Los Angeles Detective Must Stand Trial on Charge of Kidnaping John J. McNamara.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Aug. 22.—Governor Johnson today honored a requisition from the governor of Indiana for the return to Indianpolis of James Hosick, a detective of Los Angeles, for trial on the charge of having kidnaped from Inianapolis, John J. McNamara, now held in Los Angeles in connection with the destruction of the Times newspaper plant last October.

In order to enable the defense to take habeas corpus proceedings, it was agreed that the requisition should not issue until Thursday morning at 9 o'clock.

In honoring the requisition, Governor Johnson said:

"I think Hosick should be returned to Indianapolis to stand trial on charges brought in indictments against him. There is no more reason why he should not be taken back to Indianapolis to stand trial on the kidnaping charge that the McNamaras should not have been brought to California."

After being signed the papers were placed in the hands of William Hold, state agent from Indiana.
