ETHEL WEDGE ENDS HER LIFE

Dependent Young Woman Sends Bullet into Heart at Elmwood. BODY IDENTIFIED BY HER AUNT

SUICIDES IN AUGUST.

August 11, Frank F. Witt; gunshot wound. August 16, John Sullivan, 1811 California street; carbolic acid. August 21, Rose McGahan, 2422 Valley street; carbolic acid. August 23, Ethel Wedge, 1524 Webster; gunshot wound.

The beautiful young woman who shot herself Monday night near the east entrance of Elmwood park, was identified Tuesday morning as Miss Ethel Wedge, by her aunt, Mabel Graff, 1524 Webster street. Investigation developed that the motive for suicide was dependency. Until four months ago she had lived with her aunt in 1524 Webster street. She came to Omaha a year ago from San Diego, Cal., where she had lived all her life with her mother. Four months ago she left her aunt and roomed and boarded somewhere on Harney street. Her exact address was not known by her aunt.

Seeks Secluded Spot.

She sought a secluded spot among the bushes to end her life. August 19, 12 years old of 519 Leavenworth street, was near the place when she was called to it. Calling the boy, she gave him 10 cents, directing him to go and buy himself some crackjack at the peanut vendor's. The boy had gone only a short distance when he heard the report of the revolver and ran back to find her dead, the revolver in her hand.

BIG BANQUET FOR DEMOCRATS

Forty in the house. To this complexion has it come at last, that the president, who rode into power by a huge majority, is glad to escape the humiliation of having his votes overridden in a house containing a majority of only sixty-three. Small favors are thankfully received by the administration.
