TRIPLE MURDER IN INDIANA

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lee and Son, Clarence, of Booneville Killed.

OLDER SON CHARGED WITH CRIME

Man and Woman Beaten to Death and Boy is Shot—House is Set on Fire in Attempt to Conceal the Deed.

BOONVILLE, Ind., Aug. 24.—Richard Lee, Mrs. Lee and their son, Clarence, were killed in their beds today with a hammer and their house set on fire.

William Lee, an older son, was arrested today, charged with the murder. The house was found burning early this morning and when the firemen reached it they discovered that all the doors and windows were locked. Breaking down the doors, the firemen found the incinerated bodies of Lee, his wife and younger boy.

Examination of the bodies resulted in the discovery that the skulls of the father and mother had been crushed in with a hammer, while they were lying in bed. The 17-year-old boy, it was found, had been shot.

Robbery it is believed was the motive. It is known that the Lees had sold property in Newburg and divided the money.

Story of Accused Man.

William Lee claimed at the time of his arrest that he was awakened by the blaze and barely escaped with his life, not having had time to rescue his parents and brother. It was said that Lee and his father had quarreled frequently over money matters. William, the son who is now in the Warrick county jail, was engaged to wed Miss Minn Taylor of Newburg, daughter of a wealthy farmer and the nuptials were to take place today.

Insurance policies amounting to $5,000 were found today on the lives of Richard Lee, the father, and his son, Clarence, both victims of the tragedy.

BEATTIE ON TRIAL FOR LIFE

This line and directed a recess of an hour for luncheon.

Victim Dies Instantly.

Dr. Herbert Mann, one of the physicians called to the Owen home on the night of the murder, testifying, related how he had examined Louise Beattie's body. It was at the physician's opinion the death of the victim was instantaneous. When Dr. Mann dressed the scratch on Beattie's nose he asked Beattie if a white man or negro had fired the shot and the boy had replied: "A white man."

"Did you see him shed any tears while you were there?" the physician was asked. "I did not," he replied.

The court sustained the defense in objecting to questions concerning Dr. Mann treating the prisoner for a disease some time before the murder.

Dr. K. G. Loving, the coroner, testified that he inspected the car the night of the murder and found a bloody gauntlet glove on the bottom.

BAD EGGS IN STORAGE

Rumor that Thousands of Cases in Were Shipped from Kansas City to Chicago.

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—Commissioner of Health Young today began an investigation of a charge that large quantities of bad eggs are being put in cold storage here for use later when the supply of fresh eggs is inadequate to meet the demand.

It is reported here that a large quantity of bad eggs which has been held in cold storage for a long time had recently been shipped to Kansas City, where they were purchased by dealers at from 75c to $1 a case. It is said these eggs were unfit for food when they reached Kansas City.

Dr. Benjamin Ferry, chief food inspector of the Chicago health department, has already had received information that a firm in Kansas City made a specialty of buying No. 3 eggs at $1 a case for shipment to the Chicago market and that thousands of eggs unfit for food were now being held in cold storage plants.

PECULIAR FATAL ACCIDENT

Man Tries to Sharpen Knife on Rapidly Moving Belt and It is Driven into Heart.

ABERDEEN, S. D., Aug. 24.—(Special.)—Frederick Hootman, a county farm hand, met death in a most peculiar manner. He was at work on a threshing machine, and undertook to sharpen his knife on the blower belt of the machine, which was revolving at great speed. The belt was split, and when the knife struck one of the spokes it was hooked from Hootman's hand with great force. The flying knife struck the unfortunate man in the heart, and he dropped to the ground. His fellow workmen thought he had fainted, and a physician was summoned, but Hootman died within twenty minutes after receiving the injury.

Auto-Train Accident at Galva Raises Many Fine Points

Miss Fern Johnson, Surviving Member of Family, Sues Northwest-ern for Forty Thousand.

Follows Him to Saloon.

The last three months he hasn't been at home only on Saturday nights. Then he would come to get clean clothes. He told me he had worked at the lumber office all the time. I followed him once and saw him go into a saloon to get a pitcher of beer and take it into a house near the office. I went in and there were a lot of men and women there drinking. He ran out and I went home.

IDA GROVE, Ia., Aug. 24.—(Special.)—M. M. White of Ida Grove and A. L. Teaton of Akron, as attorneys for Fern Johnson, the one surviving member of the A. F. Johnson family of Akron, whose automobile was demolished at Galva by a Northwestern train August 9, will sue the railroad for $40,000 damages. That the railroad anticipates a suit was shown Monday when the coroner's inquest was held at Galva. The road was not only represented by Attorney A. A. McLaughlin of Des Moines, Claim Agent Lewis of Chicago and Reporter Giles, but it had its Chicago staff photographer there, Morrison, and by stopping the afternoon passenger, he posed the train at the crossing and approaching the crossing. He also made photos of an auto approaching and going over the crossing.

It is said that the suit will develop a fine point in law as to just how many estates there are to settle with. The father outlived the mother and Dorothy and their estates passed to him. In a few minutes when he died his estate passed to the two children, Florence and Fern. A few hours later, Florence died on the train at Moxville while being hurried to the hospital, and the estate then passed to Fern, who is now the sole heir. She is in St. Joseph's hospital at Sioux City.

It is the contention of the attorneys for the Johnson estate that the railroad crossing at Galva was a dangerous one and that it will not be sufficient to show that the engineer gave the usual signals and took the usual precautions, but they insist the road must show that it used extraordinary care.

Des Moines Carmen Ratify Contract

It is Understood that Arbitration Clause Grants Everything They Desired.

DES MOINES, Ia., Aug. 24.—By a practically unanimous vote the Carmen's union today ratified the action of the executive committee of the union, accepting the terms of the new working contract, already agreed to by the officials of the street car company. By this action all danger of a strike on the point which caused the recent trouble disappeared. The Carmen, it is understood, are granted in the new contract everything in the way of an arbitration clause which they desired.

ATHLETE CAUGHT UNDER EIGHTEEN FEET OF DIRT

Member of Grinnell Basket Ball Team Rescued After Two Hours' Hard Work.

OTTUMWA, Ia., Aug. 24.—Scores of workmen have been digging for two hours to reach James Slutz, Grinnell college athlete and son of former Mayor Frank Slutz, who was buried by a cave-in of eighteen feet of dirt while working on the new federal building. Slutz was helping dig a well into which the water in another well covered by the building might be drained. The drain pipe connecting the wells had afforded air enough to keep him alive two hours and at 1 o'clock, speaking through a pipe, he assured the workers that he was not injured.

LEAVES WIFE, WEDS ANOTHER

Mrs. Freds Reads of Marriage of Her Husband to Miss Henderson.

Deserted Woman, Prostrated with Grief, Recounts Story of Treatment She Received During Her Married Life.

Already a married man with a home and wife at 830 South Twenty-second street, Charles D. Freds married Miss Druella Henderson, an Omaha woman, Monday evening and left with her for parts unknown, according to Mrs. Wilma Freds, who says she will ask the county attorney to have her husband brought back to Omaha and prosecuted for bigamy. Four weeks ago Freds told her for the first time that her marriage to him ten years ago was illegal, she said, when talking to a Bee reporter.

Mrs. Freds is prostrated with grief and worry. The serious illness of her son by a former marriage, Joseph Nugent, and the fact that her absent husband drew their small savings from the bank before he left add to her troubles.

Mrs. Freds told a touching story of her life since she married, or thought she married, Freds a decade ago.

"We went to Kearney, Neb., shortly after we were married and started a restaurant there," she said. We got along all right for a while. Four years ago he sold out the restaurant and came to Omaha. It was carnival time. I followed him here to get the money he had got from selling the restaurant. He said he didn't know how he happened to do what he had done and begged me to forgive him. I did and we started together again. He never supported me, but was fairly good to me and gave me some of his earnings. He worked most of the time for the Omaha Hardware Lumber company at Thirteenth and California streets.

Follows Him to Saloon.

The last three months he hasn't been at home only on Saturday nights. Then he would come to get clean clothes. He told me he had worked at the lumber office all the time. I followed him once and saw him go into a saloon to get a pitcher of beer and take it into a house near the office. I went in and there were a lot of men and women there drinking. He ran out and I went home.

"Four weeks ago he came home to get some clean clothes and I begged him to stop. He said he had gone to work and had called me into the bedroom and told me our marriage was a fake. He said we never had been lawfully married. He just fixed up a fake ceremony to get my money. That's the last I ever heard of him until I saw his marriage license to marry this other woman in the paper. I went to see Rev. Savage and found out he married them."

"I suppose he has taken the money we had in the bank. It was about $100. I am going to the bank and see. I'll never let him into this house again. I'll be prepared to kill me if he comes. He has threatened to kill me and I will protect myself and my house."

Mourning for Wife, He Ends Existence

Kansas City Man Drinks Carbolic Acid in Rooming House on Douglas Street.

"My beloved wife in heaven is calling me. I must obey her command." This inscription was found, together with the cold body of H. E. Schlessinger, in a rooming house at 111 Douglas street at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon. He had been dead evidently about twelve hours, and evidence shows that he drank carbolic acid.

Among his possessions were found letters which give his address as 411 Minnesota avenue, Kansas City, Kan., and indicate that he is a traveling salesman. In the note left he directed that Mr. Goldstein, secretary of the Brotherhood of Abraham, Paxton block, be notified. Goldstein does not know the man. Schlessinger directed that he be buried beside his wife, and also explained that he had a bank account in Kansas City.

BANKS ADOPTING NEW SYSTEM

Plan is Adopted Whereby Work Will Be Facilitated Greatly in the Clearing House.

Omaha banks are already using to a very considerable extent the system of bank numbers adopted by the American Bankers' association at its meeting in Nashville, by which it is planned to materially simplify clearing house operations the country over. The first of the local banks to adopt the plan was the City National, which has had it in use since July 1, but the other banks are putting it into use as rapidly as the necessary changes in blanks and accounting can be made.

Formerly each bank has provided its correspondents with a numbered endorsement stamp which had it in use since July 1, but the other banks are putting it into use as rapidly as the necessary changes in blanks and accounting can be made.

The commissioners will notify the company that arrangements can be made for it to receive its pay direct rather than from Caldwell & Drake, the general contractors.

DEATH RECORD.

Adolphus W. Forney.

FAIRBURY, Neb., Aug. 24.—(Special.)—Adolphus W. Forney, a well known farmer living in the north part of this county, extending back to June 15. On that date Mr. Forney was prostrated with heat while enroute to Fairbury and never recovered. He was born February 9, 1851, near Hanover, Pa. He later removed to Benton, Ill., and was married October 18, 1869, to Miss Mary E. Deihl. Six sons were born to this union and all survive. Mr. Forney brought his family to Jefferson county in 1880 and located on a farm three miles west of Daykin. He was recognized as a progressive farmer.

THOUSANDS OF TEUTONS COME

German Veterans Will Hold Annual Convention Next Week.

BIG PROGRAM IS ANNOUNCED

Association is Composed of Men Who Have Served in Either the German Army or Navy and the Membership is Large.

Plans for the convention of the Federated Associations of the Veterans of the German Army and Navy, which is to be held in Omaha this year from September 1 to 5, have been announced. Local members of the association say that there will be at least 7,000 Teutons here that week.

The Federated Association of German Army and Navy Veterans is an organization formed of five auxiliary bodies composed of men who served either in the German army or navy. As military service in Germany is compulsory, it will be easily seen that the number of veterans of the service is great. The United States and Canada is divided into five districts, and each of these districts has an organization of its own, but is affiliated with the other four organizations. Once a year the delegates from the five bodies meet in some city for the purpose of promoting friendship and to live over again the scenes of the war.

Attacks Woman and Leaves Her Senseless in Burning House

PURCELL, Okla., Aug. 24.—While a mob of 500 men was searching for a negro who had just escaped from a young married woman named Stagner and set fire to the Stagner home, one mile south of Purcell, officers captured a negro, who was identified by the woman as her assailant, and spirited him away in time to prevent a lynching. The assailant left the woman unconscious and burned together and she would have perished had not her husband and several farm hands been attracted by the flames and rescued her. The house was destroyed.

Independents Name Some Republicans

Ballots for Independents Are Blank and Candidates on Other Tickets Are Nominated.

Several republican candidates at the recent general primary, some successful and others unsuccessful, have been nominated by the people's independent party, and their names probably will appear on the official ballot under the party head. When the official canvassing board opened the poll books returned from the Fifth precinct of the Sixth ward Thursday they found the record of one people's independent ballot cast. The ballots for this party were blank, there being no avowed candidates, but the voter had written in the names of Robert Smith for clerk of the district, Seth C. Lundgren for sheriff, George McBride for surveyor, Henry Ostrom for county commissioner from the Fifth precinct, William Alstad for justice of the peace, I. L. Beisel for treasurer and T. L. Dymart for county judge. Ostrom, Dymart and Beisel were defeated as candidates for republican nominations. They say they will not run on the independent ticket, but the board will have to place their names on the ticket under the law.

I. L. Beisel gained ten more votes by the official canvass of the Second precinct of the Seventh ward. He still is at least 125 votes behind W. G. Ure.

Work of the board was again stopped for an opinion from the county attorney's office when it was found that the poll book from the Fourth of the Tenth showed no tally count for the candidate. The clerk evidently had done the tallying on another sheet, had started to copy the tally count into the book and had tired and simply put down the results. Some of the figures on the tally papers do not correspond to those on the final record sheet. Deputy County Attorney Magney was sent for at 3 o'clock.

The O'Brien Yarnish company of South Bend, Ind., wishes to make sure it will get its pay before it furnishes any more material for construction and finishing work on the new Douglas county building. The county commissioners received a letter from the company Thursday morning asking whether or not there is any way in which subcontractors and firms furnishing material can secure protection against loss. Under the law there can be no liens on public property.

The commissioners will notify the company that arrangements can be made for it to receive its pay direct rather than from Caldwell & Drake, the general contractors.

From each of the five district organizations, one delegate is chosen for every fifteen members and there will be about 3,000 delegates, besides the members of the association from nearby states who will attend to meet their former comrades. The convention opens Thursday and extends through Labor day, and this fact is expected to bring many members here from near cities, as it will give them time to enjoy themselves two days and not lose any time from their business.

The program: Friday, September 1—Reception of the delegates and societies that attend in a body at all hotels. In the evening reception in honor of the visitors at the German home.

Saturday, September 2—Reception of delegates and societies; entering in the quarters list Saturday afternoon reception of the president of the national organization, Mr. Richard Mueller of New York, and his staff. In the evening exhibition of scenes of the Franco-German war of 1870-71, with exploding music and illuminations. Grand military ball at the Auditorium.
