

The Bee's Home Magazine Page

How to Train a Wife

"Queer about that society girl eloping with the gardener, isn't it" observed the Confirmed Commuter, looking up from his ening paper: Then he added, roeditavely, "Women take strange freaks."

And some women don't take strange freaks," the Hopelul Housewife interrupted. They prefer to marry the men they love. If you'd ever studied as I have the sort of young man that frequents the summer resorts to which society girls are conveyed every year you'd be astonished that more of them don't take the bit in their teeth and marry the chef, the chauffeur, the gardener of any other hopest young man that works for a living." "Is that the theory upon which you accepted my hand and heart" inquired the Commuter mischievously.

Now, you know that's silly" exchaimed his wife. "I'm considering this matter seriusly. A girl at a fashionable resort has to choose her husband, if she takes him in her own set, from the idle sons of rich men or from the foreign and domestic fortune hunters, who are frankly after money, if she has any, and who ignore her if she normal girl, if she is not warped by the such things."

the Commuter good naturedly. driving an outomobile, handling a plough, similar elopements have turned out badly- is less than the best that he might be. or even a pick? I respect and admire any the social differences are too great." woman who has the singleness of heart and purpose to know what she wants of dicted the Hopeful Housewife firmly. "No of a how! she creates."

that the only difference between the mil- aristocracy, by her marriage?" lionaires and the gardener is one of money. suppose if he did the courts would call it sleeves to shirt sleeves."

uel and inhumae freatment?" iopeful Housewife exclaimed, reproach- not so awfully poor, because shirt waists "You insist on the unimportant aren't really becoming to me. hings! If a man has any trivial faults (Copyrigh, 1910, by the N. Y. Herld Co.)

Should you see a man suddenly side-remarked the Troubled Tourist.

stap or duck as you approach him these

'don't think he regards you as a highway-

"Just take a look at his boiled lobster face and you will see that he has recently acquired a lovely case of sunburn that no summer around here seems to be absolutely "That painful sidestep and look of exreme apprehension are merely mute aphough somebody had scraped his shoulder

'Also, he would spend ten minutes in the water and three hours on the sand, where he could be properly admired. For that reason he gets no sympathy from you, especially as he tried to cool his rapidly istering skin with the sea water, which

But he had a good time. Oh, yes, he the lineed oil and lime water over his were once more lying comfortably on the

'And to insure his being perfectly comfortable and enjoying the seaside souvenir of starch into his negligee shirt sleeves so that he is gently rasped every time he elbow with one hand and pumps away at your forearm with the other, he runs and Whenever he sees a professional parboiled arms and shoulders be wishes he blades with a sheet of sandpaper, and he is thoroughly enjoying himself. He can't stretch either arm out straight, and he is certain he must be a red-hot proposition. Of course he had to go and wear that atheltic looking costume suit with nothing but straps over the shoulders and the rest of it as shrinking as a violet.

ade it burn ten times more.

rands, does he not? He does not peals to keep off, for he's probably just been slapped on the back by some cheerful diot at the last corner. He feels as man or that he has been vaccinated.

complete without

IGNORES HER IF SHE HASN'T ANY MONEY."

hasn't. No other type of men can afford like those you mention it's the easiest thing mind of Christ thus understood is that of to stay there all summer and the man in the world to correct them' All you sympathy. Every word and act of his with a two weeks or a month's vacation have to do is to pretend not to notice them, make it clear that He was most profoundly would rather spend it in the infernal but to say you feel so sorry for Mrs. Jones, moved by every ill man suffers. His words around her, admires a man for what he is dryly. "More light on the system: You sympathy forms a part of she finest con-'No-I'm not through yet, she continued might like a copy and after she's read it, knew how trail men are impatiently. "How many men in that girl's go after a record. For it'll be a record if If one has the mind of Christ his most

"The social differences are nil." contralife and to take it, no matter how much family can rise higher than its source and what are the sources of our plutocratic 'I'm rather glad to hear you express families? They're the first to want to forsuch sentiments," ventured the Commuter, get them: What do you suppose George I had the idea a woman was too snob- Washington and Benjamin Franklin and bish to stand up for another who took a Thomas Jefferson would say if they could Two or three days ago the School Marm in a shocked voice social cropper. But, of course, you know read in some of the newspapers that Miss descended the gangplank of an ocean our argument isn't sound. You assume Jones will enter the ranks of American steamer, to the delight and relief of her Marm, "and if you once experienced it

"Oh, they'd see the humor of it." the Now, there are all sorts of other differ. Commuter answered castly. 'Our pretenences of point of view-of taste-of man- sions don't last long enough to be taken tropic corner of the world, but it was the things-spices and mint, incense, pepper, means only one thing." ners-why." he added banteringly, the seriously That old fellow knew what he was only season in which she could go. So saffron, the breath of the sea-and bridegroom might even eat green peas with talking about who said that in America she went.

spoon or ple with his thumb! Do you they're just three generations from the shirt "And from shirt walst to shirt waist, You see, you won't be serious!" the amended his wife. "Only I'm glad we're

"A SUNBURNT MARK.

What he enjoys most, however, is to get into the subway in the rush hour, where the guard begins by shoving him through a doorway into a crowd that finds a fresh sunburn every ten seconds. He arrives home all aglow with the exercise, and is pup, who paws at his sunburned legs till he fairly yells and rushes into the house only to find that his wife has company

He gets no sympathy in his suffering, for he was advised not to go down to the

When at last the company has gone and he rushes for more linseed oil and lime water, he makes up his mind he will com-at the water's edge on every foot of ocean

(Copyright, 1911, by the N. Y. Herald Co.)

for dinner and he's got to dress up.

Told by the Troubled Tourist

M little Sermon for the Week Finds

"But we have the mind of Christ."-1

This is the distinguishing fact in the life of the Christian. He has the mind of The mind of Christ" It does not express merely one phase of his being; nor does it simply define psychologically a special aspect of his life. The mind of Christ is rather the summation of all that he is; it includes everything that goes to make up the Christ men know.

This is never understood until one appreciates Christ's impressions as his eye sweeps the world, and his purposes, his plans and his efforts growing out of his impressions as he hotes the world's many races and cults, its divisions and discords, its sufferings and disappointments. Christ standing with clear eye, fully conscious of the world's condition, and then all that He undertakes to do for mankind-this gives you a true conception of the mind of Christ. What is thus seen in him must be dis-regions than in a fashionable hotel. The whose husband embarrasses her by doing are marked by deepest pathos. His works Paster First Presbythrian Church, Council Bluffs, Is. by the livellest interest in every condition self-interest and snobbishness of those "Humph!" interrupted the Commuter resulting harmfully to mankind This himself and what he accomplishes himself." ought to get up a complete treatise on the ception the world has ever received of "So endeth the first lesson," interrupted art of husband taming for the benefit of God's attitude toward men. God knows. young brides! Maybe the gardener's bride and Christ's sympathy indicates that He

A very prominent element found in th particular set could earn their own living she 'lives happily ever afterward.' All tender sympathy goes out to every one who Men were not living upon the highest plane there His life. The Christian has the mind possible to them. They were suffering the of Christ

Deeply appreciating what men might be is Christ knew His own life in its relation. o God. His attitude toward men was that f the must intense optimism. This hope was based upon no uncertainties, but upon he nature of man and God's provisions for im. The kingdom of right would by and prevail. The gospel of love would draw if one has the mind of Christ his life oust be characterized by hopefulness as ie looks into the future of his fellow men. A third element in the mind of Christ as He studied men, was love. Love for the favored few, love for the teas favored many, love for all. Love in the sense that He knew that which would make men better and happier than they were: that which would make them really partikers! in the life of God and pleasurg in His sight, and love that with absolute forgetfulness of self prompted Him to give them

This is the key to real Christian livingof man to the life that will permit of his coming into his own; love for men thoroungly disinterested and self-forgetting. Another element in the mind of Christ this greatest of tasks? Of his assurance of was that of hope. This grew out of His victory?

August 26, 1911

ARTHUR WILLIAM WOODMAN, 2003 Capitol Avenue.

The BEES Junior Birthday Book

Name and Address. If one has the mind of Christ he loves James Arringdale, 939 North Twenty-fourth St. School. Kellom ..........1899 Windsor ......1903 the mind of Christ. Sympathy for all who Lillian Blecka, 202 Walnut St. suffer, whatever the form of their misery: Anna Burton, 3305 California St. ..... optimism in view of the ultimate turning Irens L. Carman, 2326 South Twelfth St ... Bessie M. Christensen, 5177 North Eighteenth St. Mayte Fry, 1811 North Twenty-first St...... Kellom ....... 1903 audacious faith of the Christian, leading Edward C. Haley, 1105 South Thirteenth St..... Pacific ....... 1903 him to undertake the reconciling of the Ruth Hammond, 2824 Franklin St..... Long world to God? Of his unsparing efforts in Dorothy Hegeman, 4415 Parker St. .... Carl Jensen, 2566 Cuming St...... Kellom ...... 1896 Alma E. Kock, 1404 Bancroft St. . . . . . . . . . . . Germ. Lutheran . . 1902 Annaline J. Lyck, 822 South Twenty-eighth St ..... Gladys Lyons, 1607 Howard St. . . . . Leavenworth . . . 1897 Charles A. McCarthy, 2236 South Eleventh St. .... St. Patrick ..... 1899 John R. McCaig, 3315 Hamilton St. . . . . . . . . High . . . . . . . . . . . . 1893 Virginia McFarland, 2501 Farnam St ..... Central ..........1902 Ellen McInerney, 3920 North Twenty-first St ..... Sacred Heart .... 1897 Leslie Plummer, 4509 North Sixteenth St. ..... Saratoga .......... 1903 Lothrop ........ 1900 Ruth Redfield, 2004 Binney St. "Oh, the old meaning," she said; "old Frances Robinson, 2523 Capitol Ave..... Central ........1904 force, all to no avail. She went. And The School Marm never argues with as the Garden of Eden and Adam and Mildred Rylen, 2409 Davenport St ...... Central .........1901 Castellar .......1905 Elverna Seymour, 1942 South Seventeenth St. .... women, veiled to the eyebrows, dressed Rose Skupa, 1204 Atlas..... Edw. Rosewater. . 1826 "What are they?" asked Aunt Emnia in ghastly white and living their narrow Dorethea Skriver, 1421 Military Ave...... Gladys Sund, 917 South Twenty-fifth Ave .... "They have no tongues in their heads. Agnes M. Thompson, 902 South Fifty-second St. Bessie Wessman, 1008 Miller St. . . . . . . . . . . . Edw. Rosewater . . 1899 Vinton Helen Weston, 2024 Vinton St. Fred B. Walrath, 1109 South Thirty-third St. Mande Williams, 3816 North Eighteenth St .... Lothrop .......... 1902 Marguerite Wood, 3416 Parker St. .... Franklin ...... 1903 Sands F. Woodbridge, 2614 Capitol Ave...... High ............ 1895 Arthur Woodman, 2323 Capitol Ave ..... Central ......... 1902

The School Marm's Visit to Morocco anxious family. She had taken a flying trip to Morocco. Summer is not an ideal time to visit that gands and cholera and other Moroccan breath of the orient." probabilities. They had pleaded with her. threatened her and almost tried physical Aunt Emma decidedly. during the five weeks of her absence they Aunt Emma. She knows better now. had worried and waited. Here she was, "After the smells come the sounds." her, took her to their arms and carried night one listens to the buibuls." her off to the mountains for "a real rest," back in her hammeck and talks of Africa other sounds, vague and indeterminate finish: as she raw it her listeners are charmed. In a bamboo grove, for instance, you of her own, but she wants to know those I shall never forget the cries of the of everybody else. tion for a moment.

rocco is the smell." she said. "My dear!" expostulated Aunt Emma hear the weird minor voices of crickets. Youngstown Telegram.

"It's a pleasant smell," said the School ing to a great antiphony. you'd never forget it!" Aunt Emma looked incredulous.

camels. Even those are only a few of its

"Then it must be unwholesome, said answer.

as they called it, before she started in for "Are they a sort of African geisha?" "Bulbul is the oriental name for nightsighing and groaning.

Then the atreet noises are fascinating. water venders: 'Sweet water' In the The School Marm considered the ques- name of Allah! Water! Sweet water! the word futility? "The night noises are the most mysowls and innumerable little voices add-

"More insistent than all the others is "And that is?"

It was Aunt Emma's question. By the Her family had warned her against bri- many component parts. It's the very tone of her voice the School Marm knew that she expected to be shocked by the Eve!

"One thing made me glad I was an however, safe and sound, stepping again went on the School Marm. "All day long American, especially since I am a woman, on her her native shore. So they forgave the blackbirds make their music. At It was the sight of those poor oriental little lives.

The School Marm feels that her course ingale," said the School Marm. "They apparently. They work where they was justified. At any rate, as she sits sing all night in the cypresses. There are stand until they fall. And that's their

Erudite Explanation.

woman."

Teacher-Tommy, what is the meaning of Tommy-I don't know exactly, but an ex-"I guess the principal thing about Mo- terious. All through the purple night, be- ample of it would be trying to tickle a tween the paises of the nightingales, you curtle's back with a chicken feather.-

What's 350n 35 Your 35 Mind?

Loretta's Looking Glass Held Up to a Neighborhood Watchwoman.

There you are at your post. You have appointed position as the chieftainess of are regarded. You are Mrs. Know-All. window, you keep a wary eye on every. by the boys of the community whose inthing and everybody that comes and goes nocent-or otherwise-depredations along the street. You note that Mrs. Blank never fall to see, as Mrs. Rubberneck. runs into Mrs. Nil's at least three times & day. It's none of your business, you know, if she chooses to take the contents of her Cipher, you make them both feel like the refrigerator and stay to lunch. But cat must that was caught at the cream. A wouldn't you nearly fall out of the window sense of guilt overwhelms them, where, if she did it. You would pry, with your until they knew you were watching, there glance, under the lid that covered the cold was nothing but the wholesome expression beans and you would investigate with your eagle eye just what the reception was when the beans and the bearer arrived at their destination

When Mr. Naught comes from the car ou are in sight. He knows he is, too. It makes him feel like becoming the owner of one of the weapons with which he brought havoc as a boy. He would like to hide behind the fence, and, when you are cranking your elastic neck to see who Mrs. Cipher is walking up from the avenue with, he would enjoy bean shooting at your aggravatinglyactive optics. It's not that people want to do anything they do not want you to see. It's just the fact that you make yourself a kind of supervision committee of one to keep tab on the whole community about that riles them. It's irritating to know that one cannot pass along the street without being seen by you. It's embarrassing to discover that something is forgotten, and a return must be made under your inspection while your mind is busy conjecturing the why of the retreat.

You are so afraid that you will miss something that you cut short your meals and neglect the baby. You are utterly mad on the question of supervising business that is not your own. If you had to work as hard and give as steady attention to any useful pursuit you would think yourself awfully ill-used. As it is, your neighbors think themselves abused by your continued When Mrs. Zero shakes her rugs she has the feeling that you are watching and wondering "why she doesn't hire some one to do it. You wouldn't do it." Of course.

If you could take your mind off even put a pillow on the window sill to that observing for a while, you might be able you will be more comfortable in your self- to imagine the indignation with which you the rubbernecks. Lying half out of your You are "too smart." You are catalogued

> When Mr. Minus happens to exchange bit of repartee with bright little Mrs. of good feeling. They freeze up into conventional clams. The whole part of your street that comes under your eyesthey are doing full duty with the aiding and abetting of your well-developed neck-gets grouchy and disagreeable because you are always aloft at your post, seeing things that are none of your affaw. When you got that slight sunstroke from exposure at your window there was a general and fervid retolding at the wisdom of old Sol. They only regretted his lack of thoroughness

Exit the Loafer

been made in Chicago that will make it impossible for a hobo to continue being e hobo. This discovery is a serum which at once turns the loafer and vagrant into an animated seeker for work

The serum, according to the writer of letter to the municipal judges, was accidentally discovered during some expreiments for a cure for cancer.

The writer declares that a Swedish girt who was inoculated with the serum immediately sought a position, though she had been unable to work for months, and "best carpets so hard that she blistered her hands." A man who was known as a chronic loafer had to seek employment at night to supplement a day job he got in order to work off the surplus energy en-

Rat Killing Day Gibson county, Indiana, has an annual you would not. It might take you from rat killing day, at which time the most your observatory just when the Minuses strenuous kind of measures are taken. The were having that big ice cream freezer de- observance of the second annual rat day oclivered at their door. And that would curred recently, at which time 4,000 rate shorten your daily gasette, reporting the were slaughtered. The government estineighborhood happenings. It would rob you mates that each rat costs 2 cents a day for of an excuse to call down to Miss Minus as maintenance, so Gibson county by this she passed that you knew they were hav- slaughter saved nearly $30,000 for a year, to ing company "because you saw the ice say nothing of the saving from future descendants of the rodents thus killed.

Oddities of British House of Commons

ad a buily time, and whenever he pours greeted by his neighbor's Newfoundland the laundry man has put an extra dash beach that blistering hot day, anyway, tandshaker, the kind that grabs your pel the state to plant shade trees right front it possesses.

Parliaments of the seventeenth century from Parliament before a general election. later date maintained the tradition of pri- conviction of treason or felony, every Brit ing king. had been generally recognized that public- member of the House of Commons is deity of debate is an essential feature of scribed as a lord, he is either an Irish parliamentary government, that without it peer, or, more frequently, a commoner formed as to the course of public affairs, peer. and the responsibility of the representative forced-even then the House of Commons. indeed still are, in theory private, though from Plantagenet times and takes place in in practice public.

Until 1875 a single member of the House of Commons could insist on the withdrawal in a sonorous voice the commission which of strangers, including reporters, and until authorises the assent to be given. 969 there was no official report of its de- clerk of the crown at one side of the table to retire from Parliament he takes ad-Norman-French formula by which the vantage of the disqualifying statutes by king's assent is signified: "Little Pedasking for appointment to some old of lington Electricity Supply Act. Le roy le fice to which nominal duties and emol- veult." Between the two voices six cenuments are attached, and which he re- turies is -Sir Courtney P. Ilbert. signs as soon as his acceptance of it has made his seat vacant. The office usually selected for this pur-Stoke, Desborough and Burnham. In the borhood and the view, I find it rather difounty of Bucks. Acceptance of the Chil- ferent from what I expected. ern Hundreds is the door by which a Landlady-Well, you're different from claimed against the Stuart kings the right | Subject to disqualifications arising from of private deliberation. Parliaments of peerage, holding of office, bankruptcy and vacy long after the reason for secrecy had ish subject who is of full age is eligible disappeared, and in the eighteenth cen- to the House of Commons. A peer of the used against the press and the public United Kingdom or of Scotland is not the weapon of privilege which their eligible, but a peer of Ireland, unless he predecessors had used against an interfer- be a representative peer is eligible for any but an Irish seat. For instance, Lord Even in the nineteenth century, when it Palmerston was an Irish peer. Where a the elector cannot be enlightened and in- helding a courtesy title as a son of a When a bill has been passed by both to these whom he represents cannot be en- houses the final stage is the royal assent. The assent is given periodically to whilst relaxing and indeed reversing its hatches of hills, as they are passed, the practice, declined to alter its rules, so largest batch being usually at the end of that the sittings of the house were, and the session. The caramonial observed dates the House of Lords. A clerk in the House of Lords reads out reads out the title of each bill. The clerk A member of the House of Commons of the Parilament on the other side, makcannot resign his seat, but, if he wishes ing profound obelsances, pronounces the Expectations.

Lodger (to his landlady in the country)cose is that of steward or bailiff of his I am bound to confess that after the glowmajesty's three Chiltern Hundreds of ing description you gave me of the neighmember escapes when he wishes to retire what I expected, too .- Lustige Blatter.