GUARANTY COVERS STATE COIN
 Attorney General Martin Makes Ruling on State Deposits.
 NO NEED OF DEPOSITORY BONDS
 Fund Exacted from State Banks to Insure Deposits of Patrons Also Guarantees Funds of State of Nebraska.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
 LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 25.—(Special.)—Attorney General Grant Martin has given an opinion holding that the amended portions of the guaranty law passed by implication that portions of the law governing the deposit of public funds, the effect of the ruling being that with the guaranty of deposits act no bank is required to give bonds for the deposit of state funds. In the future when the funds of the state will be secured in exactly the same manner as those of private depositors. With the $6,000,000 state funds now on deposit in various banks over the state the opinion contemplates the securing of $6,000,000 deposits by a fund of $1,000,000.

When the assessment was made on the banks of the state for the depositors' fund no provision was made for insuring in the "average daily deposits" moneys designated as "otherwise secured." As all of the $6,000,000 of state funds was secured at that time by fidelity bonds none of the banks was assessed for these amounts on deposit in their institutions. State Treasurer George has maintained that the banks should not be released from this fidelity bond given for the protection of such state funds as they had on deposit. When these bonds expire therefore the attorney general's opinion would indicate that they would no longer be forced to take such steps, and on the other hand will be subjected to an inclusion of state funds in their reports of "average daily deposits."

Attorney General Martin's opinion is written in response to an inquiry from George Hall of Franklin, last fall a candidate for the state treasurership on the democratic ticket.

Havelock Shops Thrown Open.
 Havelock people and the Burlington railroad are staging a two days gala day performance at which the railroad shops, the largest of any company west of the Missouri river were thrown open to the inspection of the visitors. For the amusement of the people a regular carnival is in progress and balloon ascensions and street sports comprise the attractions. The sports complete the attractions being up at the shop city.

Charivariants Must Pay.
 Charivariants and readers and suggesters of things to come are confronted with a proposition at the present time here which does not make them feel at all jubilant. The city authorities in their desire to go after the seers have heretofore neglected enough upon their appearance on the streets of a campaign, which it is said will wage on these people. The license fee, which is $1.50 for each week or fraction thereof, is considered steep by the palmists, at osters, and, although but two have been called upon to dig up, others of the twenty-five or more who are said to be operating here will be called to time by the police department. It is said.

Board Still Disagrees.
 The State Board of Public Lands and Buildings has again disagreed with the city engineer of Omaha in regard to the kind of water main to be built for the State School for the Deaf. A majority of the state board believes the main provided for by a bill that passed the legislature should be for the benefit of the state and not the owners of platted lots along the route. Secretary of State Watt and Land Commissioner Cowles say emphatically that a six-inch main is large enough for the purpose of the state, while the city engineer and the lot owners want an eight-inch main. The difference in cost is about $700.

MANY KNOX DEMOCRATS DO NOT LIKE TICKET
 Renomination of Men Who Failed to Keep Promises Two Years Ago Causes Much Dissatisfaction.

BLOOMFIELD, Neb., Aug. 25.—(Special.)—The following candidates have been nominated by the republican and democratic parties of the county for the various offices to be voted on at the fall election: For treasurer, republican, Joseph H. Stodard; democrat, Howard Crandall; for sheriff, republican, Nick Medinger; democrat, Vao Vlasnik; for clerk of the district court, republican, Frank A. Barta; democrat, Allen S. Stinson; for county clerk, republican, Wilbur Jones; democrat, Matthew T. Lawler; for register of deeds, republican, H. P. McQuinn; democrat, Thomas C. Green; for superintendent, republican, Miss Nina Longcor; democrat, Miss Abbie M. Newberry; for judge, republican, no candidate; democrat, D. C. Laird; for coroner, republican, Dr. F. C. Genig; democrat, Dr. Frank Kluener; democrat, Leroy L. Seelye.

The republican ticket is made up of splendid candidates from top to bottom and the republicans have strong hopes of electing the major portion if not all of their ticket. The democrats captured all of the county offices two years ago, but the most sanguine democrats have mighty little hopes of electing their present treasurer and sheriff. The present treasurer, Howard W. Crandall, and all the leading democrats of the county made a campaign two years ago against putting relations into that office as assistants in case Mr. Crandall was elected, but as soon as he was elected he appointed his brother deputy, Mr. Vlasnik, the recent sheriff, promised another democrat the deputy sheriffship in order to get him out of the way in the primary two years ago, and when he was elected he failed to keep his promise and appointed another man his deputy.

These two candidates have hundreds of the best and leading democrats of the county fighting them openly for reelection. The rank and file of the democrats do not propose to support such officeholders, even though they were to support a couple of republicans. These two officials won their victory two years ago by using dishonest methods and consequently both deserve to be defeated at the coming election.

KILLING OF GREEK CAUSED BY REDUCTION OF FORCE
 Quarrel in Camp at Roscoe Grew Out of Order to Let Out Fifteen Men.

OGALLALA, Neb., Aug. 24.—(Special.)—The Greek who was killed at Roscoe last evening was Peter Salkadaris. The verdict of the coroner's jury was that he died and killed by Nick Agalinas, with murderous intent. Sheriff Beal got two bloodhounds from Lexington, but they could not pick up the trail. Parties are out hunting for the murderer, but there is no direct information as to what direction he went. It is thought he may be located by some of the five gangs of track layers in this county. They are camped in care at every siding, about seventy-five men in a gang, and the reduction of force, which came on Monday, took fifteen men out of each gang. It was owing to a dispute which arose among the gang at Roscoe as to who should be laid off that led to the killing. It came out in the inquiry that there were four men in the quarrel, and Nick Agalinas was the only one that was armed, when he drew his gun and fired once, the shot penetrating the heart of Salkadaris and he died immediately. He then got loose from the two men who were trying to hold him and fled. The dead man had just been paid off Saturday and had sent all the money to his old country. The gang chipped in to buy a coffin and he was buried in the potter's field today.

KEARNEY CANAL COMPANY WINS THE WATER SUIT
 Court Holds that It is Entitled to Hundred Twenty-Five Cubic Feet a Minute.

KEARNEY, Neb., Aug. 25.—(Special.)—Judge Grimes at North Platte today decided the case of the Kearney Water and Electric company against various irrigation companies in Dawson and Lincoln counties in favor of the Kearney company. This decision establishes the right of the Kearney canal to appropriate waters from the Platte river in Nebraska to the extent of 125 cubic feet per second, when that volume flows in the river and also forbids the western companies to take water from the river in quantities to lessen that flow when it has reached Kearney. The State Board of Irrigation takes cognizance of the decision of the district court and hereafter will be compelled to close the headgates of all irrigation ditches whenever the water by them would interfere with the rights of the Kearney canal. The decision follows the law as established not only in Nebraska, but in adjacent irrigation states and should aid in making the Kearney company feel confident of having its rights of priority confirmed. The right of the Kearney canal to the canal, but will result in great good to the entire Platte valley for more than 100 miles.

MODERN WOODMEN FILE SUIT IN MADISON COUNTY
 Order Asks New Trial of Bryant Case Because It Could Not Perfect Appeal.

MADISON, Neb., Aug. 25.—(Special.)—The Modern Woodmen of America have commenced suit in the district court of Madison county, Nebraska, against Hannah Bryant, nee Bryant, alleging in its petition that on August 10, 1907, the defendant, then Hannah Bryant, commenced action against the plaintiff for $2,000 upon a benefit certificate issued by the plaintiff insuring the life of Einar E. Bryant, her husband; that on November 20, 1910, as a result of a trial before Judge A. A. Welch, a verdict was rendered against the plaintiff herein; that immediately thereafter the plaintiff filed a petition for a new trial and requested Official Court Reporter W. H. Powers to transcribe shorthand notes taken at the trial, and that he failed to do so; that on December 29, 1910, a motion for a new trial was overruled, and by reason thereof plaintiff is denied right of appeal. Prayer of the petition is that verdict and judgment be set aside and a new trial granted upon the issues raised in the original pleadings and for a restraining order preventing enforcement of judgment during pendency of petition.

 Directors Arrange to Meet Deficit and Announce Another Session Next Year.

FAIRBURY, Neb., Aug. 25.—(Special.)—Frank L. Rain, secretary of the Fairbury Chautauqua association, has just prepared a statement which shows that the seventh annual session of the Fairbury chautauqua, which closed August 20, was a failure financially. Coffman, treasurer. The directors of the chautauqua include S. M. Bailey, M. Coffman, A. Lynch, F. L. Rain, L. M. Nelson, Rev. T. A. Maxwell and William McDonnell.

 THE HOME OF QUALITY CLOTHES

Good News for Omaha Men—
Our True Blue Serges for Fall Are Here

Some two years ago we discovered a line of Blue Serges possessing exceptional points of merit. We proposed to use them exclusively in our clothes making providing the makers would confine their Omaha sale to us. Being the most important store, an agreement was easily reached. This was our famous True Blue Serge line. We started to advertise their superiority at once. Competitors at first paid no attention. Later they began to tell their customers theirs were True Blues. In less than a year, most every store in town had their windows filled with serges which they called True Blues. Not a few dealers actually advertised them in the daily and weekly papers. Just goes to show how keen a demand for a superior article will make imitators out of most stores.

The superiority of King-Swanson's True Blue Serges soon became common talk. In less than a year we were selling more Blue Serge Suits than all other Omaha stores combined. So much are we in favor that for several weeks we've been besieged with inquiries as to when the fall styles would be ready. Therefore, we call this announcement our Fall Showing of True Blue Serges for men and young fellows "Good news for Omaha men."

You cannot appreciate True Blue Serges until you see them. When you observe their fine, soft, evenly twilled fabric, their deep, rich, unfadeable color, and note the easy, perfect fit and the extraordinary tailoring in each individual suit you will wonder how it was that you were content with common serges for so long. Any one of our ten polite, painstaking clothing salesmen will gladly show you through and point out the many excellences that justify us in claiming that True Blue Serges are better by $5.00 to $10.00 than any serges sold elsewhere. Buy or look as you please. You're welcome.

DRAGNET OUT FOR HESSE
 Tecumseh Sheriff Sending Out Pictures of Man Wanted for Murder.

C. S. McMASTERS IS LOCATED
 First Husband of Mrs. Hesse is in Newcastles, Pa., and Takes Little Interest—How Hesse Deserted Third Wife.

TECUMSEH, Neb., Aug. 25.—(Special.)—Sheriff E. L. Roberts has received from Ogden, Utah, a late picture of E. E. Hesse, wanted in Tecumseh for the murder of his wife and stepdaughter, Waineta Lavern McMaster, and the burying of their bodies in an old well. The picture was taken since Hesse was married in Ogden, the young wife he has deserted is his third one. The sheriff is having copies made of the picture and they will be sent all over the country in connection with the $1,000 reward for the arrest and conviction of the man. Friends of the Hesse family have written from St. Mary's, Kan., that the Hesses lived there many years ago. Mr. Hesse was married in that town to a Miss Leshmon, who was divorced and later married again and is now living in Topeka. C. S. McMaster, father of the murdered girl, has written Sheriff Roberts from New Castle, Pa., where he is employed as a salesman for a sewing machine company. The letter seems rather cold. Mr. McMaster, who was Mrs. Hesse's first husband, is married again and has a family in New Castle.

Letter from McMaster.
 His letter follows:
 NEW CASTLE, Pa., Aug. 25.—Eugene L. Roberts, Sheriff, Tecumseh, Neb.: Your message stating that Verne McMaster and mother were murdered by E. E. Hesse, just received. I am in correspondence with them since we separated in Pueblo, Colo., in 1902, and have never learned the name of the man who married Hesse. I cannot be of service to you in aiding your search for the guilty party. Hoping that you may be successful and that the guilty party will get the punishment he so richly deserves. I am, respectfully yours,
 C. S. McMASTER.

How Hesse Deserted Wife.
 Daily papers have been received here from Ogden telling of the manner Hesse deserted his young wife in the hour of trouble. Mrs. Hesse was the first to read of the dispatch in a daily paper from Tecumseh telling of the finding of the bodies of Mrs. Hesse and daughter. Hesse had not changed his name and had told his young wife he was from Tecumseh, Neb. The young woman called his attention to the dispatch, which she read and after reading the article left the house without a word. He went to the bank and drew his deposit with the exception of $117 and went to Salt Lake City. From that city he wrote his wife telling her he did not like his work in the car shops at Ogden and would seek employment elsewhere. He sent her a check for the $117 he had left in the bank. It is said he left more than a month's pay at the railroad office.

MERRICK CATTLE STEALING CASE IN COUNTY COURT
 Three Men and Firm of Butchers Involved in Action Brought by the State.

CENTRAL CITY, Neb., Aug. 25.—(Special.)—In county court yesterday Bob Sadtler and Buri Bolce were arraigned for their preliminary hearing before Judge Peterson, and Hugh Lockard and Earl Lockard were arraigned as accessories. The first two men were charged specifically with taking three head of cattle from the pasture north of Clark owned by J. W. Lumsden and disposing of the meat to Hugh Lockard and William Lockard, who operate a meat market in Clark. The Lockards were implicated by receiving the meat and it was alleged that they knew in advance of the crime, and offered a ready market for the meat. In case Sadtler and Bolce should secure it. Buri Bolce waived preliminary hearing himself and then went on the stand and testified that he and Sadtler had arranged with Earl Lockard that they would go out to the Lumsden pasture, secure the animals in the night time, take them to the Lockard slaughter house, butcher them and bring the meat in to the meat market, which they did. The complaint against Hugh Lockard was dismissed. Buri Bolce, Bob Sadtler and Earl Lockard were bound over to the district court under $500 bonds each.
