ROURKES LOSE ANOTHER GAME Mountaineers Lean Heavily on Bat Winning by Score of Five to Two.

HALL IS EASY FOR VISITORS Home Team Starts Out Well with a Lead of Two Runs but Triples. and Doubles Let in Scores or the Other Side.

Heavy work with the willow won the third and last game of the series for the Grizzlies, by a 5 to 2 score, after the Rourkes had secured a two run lead in the first two frames. Kinsella, who worked for the Mountaineers from the firing line, held the Rourkes safe. Hall was sent to the mound for the Rourkes, but the celd and wintry weather was not to the liking of the tall blonds. and he was found for twelve hits during the fracus. He worked good for the first Kearney York two innings, but a drizzling rain began to fall in the third and he began to weaken. He was found for four hits, netting two runs, which deadlocked the lead of the Rourkes had garnered in the first two frames. After that the Grizzites had an easy time with Hall and hammered him all over the lot.

The home boys started out strong and Moore drew a pass. A sacrifice by Nienoff put Moore on second, from which place he scored on an error by Lloyd. In he next frame, Schoonover opened with a single to center, went to third on an error by Frambes, and scored on an error by Quillin. That was the end of the

In the tird inning, Frambes found Hall for a single to left. Kinsella sacrificed, and Lloyd followed with a tripple to the center field fence, scoring Frambes. An infield hit by Gilmore, shot Lloyd across the platter, tying the score. In the fifth Lloyd singled to right. Gilmore sacrificed. Beall skied out and Lloyd scored on a triple to center by Cassidy, who also scored when Quillin followed with a single to left. The Grizzlies ended their scoring in the seventh. Lloyd singled, and was sent to second on Gilmore's hit of the day. Beall struck out. A single by Cassidy sent Lloyd over the rubber for his In the tird inning, Frambes found Hall

Yesterday was get-a-way day for the Rourkes and a large crowd turned out to nings; off Peaster, 1 in one-third inning; witness the last struggle with the Mountaineers. The Rourkes will be gone for a nine game trip, returning September 5. McKee and Weaver. Time: 2:25.

Walsh Pitches No-Hit No-Run Game. CHICAGO, Aug. 27.—Ed Walsh pitched the first no-hit, no-run game of his career against Boston today. It was the second game of the kind this season in the American league. One of the visitors reached I first base, Engle having received a base to balls. The locals fielded sensationally behind Walsh, who struck out eight of the opposing batsmen. Wood of Boston was in the only other man, who has pitched a brochit, no-run game this season. Early in the game Henriksen and Speaker collided, while running for Tannehill's long fly ball, and both were laid out for some time. Speaker retired from the game and Henriksen was taken to a hospital sufferling with severe pains in his shoulders, ribs

Blues Split Bouble-Hender. LOUISVILLE, Aug. M.—After lesing ten straight games, Louisville today defeated Kansas City in the first contest of a double-header, 8 to 2. Fisher's triple in the third inning, aided by Cheney's clever pitching, put the visitors out of the running, Kansas City wen the second game by batting Pfiester at opportune times. Powell, Fiene and Maddox alternated on the slab for the visitors, the latter prov-

INTERCLUB RESULTS. Singles Champion-Leo Wilson of Y. Bunner-up-Balph Newell of Y. M. C. A. park

Leo Wilson of the Young Men's Christian association won the inter-club championship Saturday afternoon, defeating Ralph Newell of the same tennis club in 6-4, 7-5 Playing will continue all week in the 8-6, before a crowd of interested tennis tennis courts.

Surprises Gallery. Wilson surprised not only Newell's supporters, but also his own personal friends by the manner in which he played the game in winning his championship and the trophies. He was out to win that champlenship and never before had the lanky "Y" athlete played such a brilliant smashing game on the tennis courts. Newell has always defeated Wilson in practice matches on the association courts and expected a victory Saturday, although he knew that his opponent was playing the and Wilson's game was varied, both in the (6) attack and defense plan. He played the net and back in the court equally well, (12) although his great height gave him an advantage over his smaller opponent when in net play. His long arms reached with ease to cover both sides from the spot in which he stood. High lobs he easily beat E. T. Manning and W. W. Buchanan deadly accurred and killed many a one with a (19) by one hole. deadly accuracy for the far corners of the court.

The first set Newell bid fair to win, his outting stroke proving hard of solution for Wilson, but the champion pulled out by a narrow margin in 6-4. The second set Newell was even closer on the heels of the other man and a deuce set resulted. Wilson proving himself the better man in a pinch and winning by 7-5. The real battle of the match came in the last set, which Wilson finally won in 8-6. Both men were on their mettle and played cautiously, Newell placing the ball with more care than Wilson because he recognized the fact that he had few points to When the set had reached deuce the gallery sat breathless while the pair fought point after point and the game waxed the hotter all the time. The pace proved too much for Newell and Wilson went out in a whiriwind finish of the last two games.

Championship doubles and consolation rounds will continue this week. A high wind blew throughout all the afternoon, making it hard to control the ball and raising and blowing the dust in a disagreeable manner. The crowd, however, stuck bravely, interested in the match. Preliminary and first round matches were played in the championship doubles and in the championship singles, but the high wind prevented a number of the players
