Now for Fall Suits

"Used to be that it required a frost to ripen nuts. Now nut trees are improved and frost is needed only to cure hay fever and ripen persimmons."

Used to be that women wore summer clothes until they were "sick and tired" of them. Now Bennett's make it easy to step into something new and the apparel one has tired of is hung away until another season.

New Blue and Black Serge Suits for $15.00

Plain tailored models in four-button, three-quarter length coat styles with skirts that are paneled front and back. And such linings we have never before seen in $15.00 suits. We mention that point to show what care has been taken of the vital parts of the garment. But the quality throughout is in perfect harmony—not skimpy or slighted in any detail. They are now being displayed in our 16th street windows.

Those who desire suits of a still higher grade are directed to our line at $35.00 as being of an exceptionally high order. Choose from broadcloths, serges, fancy worsted and rough suitings in black, grays, blues, Coronation purple, greens, tans and mixtures of various shades. Some of them are plain tailored and others are elaborately trimmed with velvets, satins and silk braids. Styles for every fancy.
