by the margin of one run in a contest foatured by several weird plays. The Champs played the poorer game of the two clubs, but won through bunching four hits on Hall in the first inning.

OMAHA TRIES, BUT LOSES

Clark, the Ames college twirler, was on the mound for Sloux City and pitched one of the wildest games of his career. In only one inning did he fail to pass a visitor, but tightened sufficiently in the pinches to win. He weakened in the ninth and was replaced by Klepner.

Hall slabbed for Omaha and but for his fatal weakness in the fourth would have won easily.

Omaha started to score in the first round. Nichoff's easy pop-up was dropped by Clark and the third-sacker was scored, while the twirler passed three more men. With the bases full and two men down Kneaves whiffed.

In the fifth Thomason singled and was scored by Schoonover's double. Two more were passed, but Hall struck out.

A ninth-inning rally threatened to win the game for Omaha. Thomason walked and was seered by Kane's double. He was forced home as Klenfer walked Kneaves. Lynch and Williams were retired on a double play and Moore struck ion booted Hartman's grounder. Three runs for Omaha and one for Sloux City came as the result of wildness of pitchers. Score:
