BENNETT'S Everything for Everybody

Have the Children's Eyes Tested Before School Begins This is quite an important matter for it may mean the avoidance of unpleasant headaches or other ailments arising from eye strain and incorrect vision. Our optician has made a study of children's eyes and will test them Saturday free of charge. If glasses are needed, they will cost from 50c up.

BENNETT'S Everything for Everybody

School Suggests Sturdy Suits for Sturdy Sons, and Something for their Sisters, from Bennett's

School Dresses Both Stylish & Practical

'Tis a wise mother who purchases liberally of such school dresses as these while they are so far under priced. Odd Lots of Coats and Suits Saturday we offer an odd lot of misses' $5.00 to $8.95 coats and suits of covert cloths, serges and wool mixtures in tans, blues, grays and other shades at $3.50. Ages 12 to 17 years.

Only Saturday and Another Half Shopping Day to Complete School Preparations. This Store is Primed for Quick and Satisfactory Service. Buying Will Be an Easy Task. The great stocks of children's clothing and furnishings have their inning Saturday and if there is a time when your child should receive more than ordinary attention in matters of appareling it is at the beginning of the school year. It is quite as important to them, Sir and Madam, that they be as finely and correctly clad as their associates in the school room as it is for you to appear in proper attire in the society and business world. They think of these things as seriously as do you. Now we are splendidly prepared to meet all these wants—coats, hats, shoes, suits, dresses, furnishings of all kinds—ample varieties as concerns styles, materials and pricings. In fact, some of the pricings in this advertisement is exceptionally advantageous; so read it through. The vastness of the stocks will furnish many pleasant surprises when you come to the store.

Many a Boy's all Wool Suit is Sheared in a Cotton Field and much of the fine hand tailoring of today is done on a basting machine. Whenever you go to buy a suit for your boy look at the lapel from the tailor's side. See if the stitches are so close that the lapel and collar are fairly kneaded into permanent shape. If the stitches are carelessly made it will not be over three weeks until the boy will make that suit look like a crumpled towel. Then, again, half wool and half cotton suits never retain their shape or color and never give satisfactory wear. Your boy's school or dress suit should come from this store, for our suits fully meet every rigid test for reliability—their goodness is always a little better than the price would seem to demand. They have always been known in this city as the standard for style, fit and wear.

All of the newest creations in boys' suits and topcoats are ready for your inspection. Large varieties in beautiful browns, tans, grays and fancy mixtures, plain weaves, diagonals, etc. Here's the roster: Single and double breasted suits for boys from 7 to 17 years. Norfolk and Sailor House suits for boys from 5 to 10 years. Russian blouse suits for little fellows from 2 1/2 to 7 years. Coats of various kinds for all ages. Only $2 to $7.50 Saturday is the Last Day of the Sale of Medium and Light Weight Suits Many an economical parent can find something at one of these prices that will exactly fit his boy's school requirements. The most popular styles, colorings and fabrics of the summer season are included. Suits worth $6.00 to $10.00 at $4.75. Suits worth $4.00 to $5.00 at $2.75. Suit Odds and Ends worth $3.00 at $1.75. The "swellest" line of boys' and children's hats and caps in the city—all the popular shades and shapes—50c to $2.00 each. A new lot of boys' blouse waists, with collars attached, made to sell at 35c each; Saturday only, 25c.

Children's Hats for Dress and School Wear

We have been compelled to enlarge the millinery store because of our greatly increased Fall stocks—not the least of which is the beautiful display of children's and misses' hats for dress and school wear. We have made extra special efforts to care for them properly this season and now present

- The Finest Showing in the Length and Breadth of the City We made special purchases of materials for children's hats, we employed trimmers and designers who are specialists in children's headwear and we purchased "ready-made" hats for the little ones from the foremost makers of juvenile millinery. The result of these efforts is plainly evident in the lines presented and the fair prices attached. Misses' Trimmings Hats Large sailor effects, trimmed with the new colored silk drapes and tailored silk veils, bows—special for Saturday's selling—$3.98 Values at $1.98 Child's Untrimmed Hats Children's untrimmed felt hats, in navy, King's blue, light blue and bright red; a good variety of girlish styles—Saturday 98c Each Children's Caps Misses' and children's caps, of fine silk velvets and silk beavers—more than fifty different styles to choose from—98c and 48c

Authentic Styles in Women's Suits, Coats and Skirts

and other apparel for autumn wear are ready for your approval and purchase. The stock is being augmented every day with garments that possess style, individuality and goodness in every thread, hook and button. You will find here styles that range from the rather plain tailored models of hard twisted or unfinished serges to those of loosely woven and rough woolen materials in the popular browns, grays and fancy mixtures. Coats are slightly longer in some instances and the style departures are long, rolled revers, often of velvet; shawl collars in new pointed and circular shapes; front and side fastenings of novelty buttons and loops—we could use an entire page in enumerating the new, catchy style changes women love. Skirts are slightly wider and show many new simulations of the panel effect. Such suits, at this store, vary in cost from $15.00 to $50.00

Table After Table Is Piled High With Men's New Fall Suits

Most men know less of the inside of their clothes than the inside of a clock—they can't find out without taking them to pieces. We just state this to make it plain that, after all, you have got to rely on the name and reputation of the store back of the clothing. We stand behind everything we sell. The new fall and winter suits will appeal strongly to you in their new, fresh colors and styles—two and three-button, perfect fitting models in blue serges, browns, tans, grays, fancy mixtures and diagonal weaves. Sizes for men measuring 34 to 50. The variety of shades and patterns is so large that you can catch a fit in a hurry at any price you want to pay. We show exceptionally strong lines at $10.00 to $25.00—one of our favorites being the $15.00 assortment. Come in and look around a bit, even if you are not thinking of purchasing. There are still a few big bargains in the suit store, such as a lot of $29.00 to $39.00 suits at $12.50, a small line of $18.50 suits at $9.75, and some odd trousers that were priced at $7.50 and $5.00 now marked at $3.75 and $2.75, respectively. The buyer also informs us that he has 75 pairs of splendid $2.00 trousers to sell at $1.45 Saturday—great values.

1,000 Pairs Men's High Grade $4 Shoes for Fall and Winter Wear, at the Pair $2.45. We say it is the greatest shoe sale we have ever known at this time of the year because it is very seldom a store in any city has the opportunity to sell a purchase of such magnitude at such prices. Classy footwear—that's it. Each one of the styles is down-to-date, whether it be the comfortable, common-sense styles for elderly men; Conservative styles for business men, or the ultra styles for dressy young men. They are not odds or ends or jobs, but such shoes as the majority of stores would put into their regular stocks instead of passing them over their heads. Find buttons and lace styles in box calf, tan Russia calf and gun metal leathers—new high tops, welted soles, low heels, Cuban heels and a host of other good points. If you want to know something more about their good qualities before coming to the store, see the display in our Sixteenth.

Choice of All Men's Negligee Coat Shirts at $1.15
