HASKELL HEADS CADET CORPS

Popular Lieutenant to Continue in Charge of High School Soldiers.

INSTRUCTION DURING WINTER

ippines Will Take Place of Regniar Drill Work When Weather Forbids Regular Training.

Lieutenant William N. Haskell of Fort Omaha will be commandant of the high school cadets again this year. It was rumored last June that he was going to the Philippine islands to join his regiment there, but he did not leave as was ex-

"I will be here in Omaha until after the Christmas holidays and possibly until next spring," said Lieutenant Haskell Saturday, The high school cadet regiment will co tinue as heretofore. There will be nine companies-the band, the bugle corps and the regular regimental and battalion staffs. George Green, last year's bandmaster, will again have charge of the high school band." In former years drill has been held on Tuesdays and Thursdays of each week, but owing to the arrangement of the double session this year, drill will be held but once a week, probably on Wednesday, according to Lieutenant Haskell's plan. The drill hour will be from 11:22 g. m. until noon, or the fifth period of the morning session. During the winter months drill will be discontinued entirely and on each week's drill day, lectures will be given by Lieutenant Haskell to the cadets in the off assembly room. It is necessary to discontinue drill during the winter because it could not be held out of doors on account of the had weather, and if held d in the halls of the school it would interfere with the classes in session.

Lectures on Military Affairs. The lectures given to the cadets will all pertain to military affairs, and the commandant believes that this form of military training will be as beneficial to the cadeta as the actual drilling. During the last school year Lieutenant Haskell delivered several lectures to the cadets on guard Talent Remembers with Sorrow What Happened at Reno and Do Not Want a Heavy Loss.

CRICAGO, Sept. 3.—"I certainly expect to win, for I am basing my plans for victory on my condition, which is better than ever before in my long wrestling career. I also believe that I will be able to meet Hack, trick for trick, and outlast him, if the match becomes an endurance contest. Just how I will try to defeat Mack I cannot say. My tactics will depend somewhat on his. I am prepared to wrestle all night, if necessary. Rack's great strength makes him a hard man to defeat. It will be a match in which generalship, as well as strength, will count. My greater experience should bring me wictory."—Gotch.

"In all of my professional wrestling victory."—Gotch.

"In all of my professional wrestling matches I never have tried to predict the outcome. I will not boast. All I can say is that I am feeling fine and have trained faithfully, and I want to sail for home September 9 as the world's wrestling champion. I never have been satisfied with my other match with Gotch, when he was credited with defeating me. I have learned more since then and have more confidence."—Hackenschmidt.

CHICAGO, Sept. 3.-Frank Gotch, the Iewa farmer, and George Hackenschmidt, the cultured Russian student, tomorrow will determine who is the mightiest wrestler in the world. For tomorrow, at 3 o'clock in the American league baseball park here, these two premier grapplers will meet to settle the supremacy.

Gotch won their former match in Chi-Iowa farmer, and George Hackenschmidt, Gotch won their former match in Chicago. April 3, 250°, but he did not pin the given universal credit for his victory. Tomorrow, however, both contestants declare, the match will not end until one man has obtained two falls. It may be necessary to finish the contest under the glare of the great arc lights, but regardless of this, the wrestlers are determined to settle their dispute by ond all possible doubt before they leave the park.

Many Sportsmen on Way. With the contest less than twenty hours match. From all parts of the country fol- Chicago . persons will attend the contest and that the gross receipts will be in the neighborhood of $100,000. Whatever they are, it is certain that they will be larger than any that have been taken in at any previous wrestling match.

Although the turnstiles at the park willnot begin to revolve until 11 o'cleck tomorrow, late tonight ardent devotees of the sport had begun to gather outside the grounds to seek vantage points for an early entrance to the field. Many of them were already provided with tickets, but they did not desire to be caught in the crush that will ensue a few hours before the contestants enter the arena.

Odds Are Two to One. Stories of Gotch's wonderful condition and Mullen. which have been circulated since he arwhich have been circulated since he arodds on him up to 2 to 1. While he was still training in Humboldt, Ia., he was but caused his stock to rise rapidly. Very little betting is being done, how ever. As an explanation for this condition, veteran sports say that the element which habitually plunged on big contests of all kinds has not forgotten the memorable prize fight which took place in Reno on July 4, 1910. The so-called "talent" plunged and lost on that occasion, and although this match in no way resembles that one, the big becors, having once been beaten, are still timid.
