

OMAHA NURSES INCORPORATE

Will Maintain Central Office in City, with Registrar in Charge.

GERTRUDE SMITH REGISTRAR

Organization is to be known as the Official Registry of Omaha Nurses of the Nebraska State Nurses' Association.

Trained nurses of Omaha are to be incorporated in one body known as the Official Registry of Omaha Nurses of the Nebraska State Nurses' Association.

At the meeting of nurses held Wednesday at Clarkson Memorial hospital the following officers of the registry were elected: Miss Ellen Stewart, superintendent of Clarkson hospital, president; Miss Carrie S. Leiser, vice president; Miss Mabel Christie, superintendent Douglas county hospital, secretary; Miss Marie C. Wick, director of nurses at Omaha General hospital, treasurer.

The purpose of the registry is to supply registered nurses to physicians and the public from one official list, as is the custom in most large cities.

The registry has started under the guidance of Miss Smith, who is well known in Omaha. She is the daughter of Mrs. Watson B. Smith and lived here until she took up nursing.

Congressman Norris Opposes Reciprocity

Fifth District Representative Says Its Victim Will Be the Western Farmer.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 7.—(Special Telegram.)—Amid the tooting of whistles and the cheering of grandstand crowds, George W. Norris, the insurgent congressman from the fifth district of Nebraska, assayed the task yesterday of refuting the reciprocity arguments advanced to a state fair audience yesterday by Secretary of Agriculture James Wilson.

Congressman Norris' crowd, which was composed largely of women, listened to his speech throughout. Mr. Norris took the stand that the present tariff bill gave protection to the farmer as regards the importation of wheat from Canada.
