Ranchman Expires While Taking Bath

Alexander T. Butler Came to His Death by Apoplexy, According to the Coroner.

Alexander T. Butler, a prominent cattle man of Casper, Wyo., was found dead in a bath tub at the Her Grand hotel at 3 o'clock this morning by J. T. Edwards of Utah, a guest. Butler's son said his father got up at 12:30 to go to the bath room, and as the son fell asleep, he did not know that his father had not returned. The coroner was notified and, after making an examination, said the man had died of apoplexy.

Butler apparently was in good health when he and his son arrived in Omaha yesterday morning. They ate dinner at the hotel last night and went out to a theater, returning at 11:30.

Fearing Eviction Ravitz Ends Life

Pawnbroker Despondent Over His Condition and That of His Wife.

Jacob Ravitz, 32 years old, and for years proprietor of a pawn shop at 13th and Eleventh streets, was found unconscious in his room at 1213 Dodge street early this afternoon, supposedly having committed suicide. Dr. Fred Langdon tried to revive him, but he died a few minutes before 7 o'clock.

Ravitz had been despondent and when informed that unless he paid the rent due on his room he would be evicted, he declared that he would commit suicide. His wife has been sick in a hospital for several weeks.

There are three children left by his death: Samuel Ravitz, 10, of Council Bluffs; Mrs. Daisy White, 8, of Council Bluffs; and David Ravitz, 5, of Salt Lake City. The body has been turned over to the coroner.

The Omaha Bee Great Booklovers' Contest

No. 25—Saturday, September 9, 1911.

What Book Does This Picture Represent?

Title
Author
Your Name
Street and Number
City or Town

Write in title and author of book and SAVE coupon and picture. Send no coupon until finish of the contest is announced. Each picture represents a book title—not a scene or a character. Catalogues containing 5,000 names on which all puzzle pictures are based—the catalogue used by the contest editor—are for sale at the Business Office at The Bee for 25 cents; by mail, 30 cents.

Rules of the Contest

All persons are eligible to enter this contest except employees of the Omaha Bee and members of their families. Each day, for seventy-five days, there will be published in The Bee a picture which will represent the name of a book. Beneath each picture there will be a blank for the contestant to fill in the title of the book.
Cut out both the picture and the blank and fill in the name and author of the book and add your name and address neatly and plainly in the space provided.
No restrictions will be placed on the way in which answers to the pictures may be secured. Each picture represents only one title of one book. If you are not sure of a title send in an answer to each picture. You may do so. BUY NOT MORE THAN FIVE ANSWERS TO ANY ONE PICTURE WILL BE PERMITTED. Incorrect answers will not be counted against contestants if correct answer is also given. More than one answer should not be put on the same coupon. Extra coupons should be used for extra answers. All answers to the same number should be kept together when forwarding to the editor. Only one list may be submitted by one contestant, though any list may have five answers to each picture.
The number of coupons used—answers given—must be plainly written on the outside of each envelope submitted, but do not write such information on the wrapper.
While not absolutely necessary, it is desirable that the pictures should be sent in each case be sent in with the answers. In order that all answers be uniform. Additional pictures and coupons may be obtained at the office of The Bee by mail or in person.
When you have all seventy-five pictures, fasten them together in a FLAT package and bring or mail them to The Omaha Bee, addressed to Booklovers' Contest Editor. Prizes will be awarded to the contestants sending in the largest number of correct solutions, the person using the smaller number of extra coupons in his set of answers will be declared winner. In event of two persons having the same number correct and using the same number of coupons, the person whose set of answers is most neatly prepared, in the opinion of the full judging committee, will receive the first prize.
Only one list of answers may be submitted by a contestant and only one prize will be awarded to one family at one address.
The use of the coupons is not obligatory upon the contestant, and an answer may be submitted in any legible manner the contestant may select.
Answers will be made strictly according to the merit of each separate list.
The name of more than one person must not be written upon any one coupon.
The awards will be made by the Contest Editor and a committee of well-known citizens, whose names will be announced later.
The contest is limited to the following territory: Nebraska, Wyoming, that portion of Iowa west of but not including Des Moines, and that section of South Dakota known as the Black Hills District.

FIRST PRIZE Value $2,000

White Steamer Automobile

A 5-passenger 1911 Model White Steamer touring car—pictures, smokestacks and noisemakers. No cranking, no shifting of gears; any desired speed. White Steamer sales increase each succeeding year. Has practically an endorsement of the United States which owns and carries most of the White Steamer cars than all other cars combined. Richly upholstered, beautifully finished, unlimited power, controlled speed. This car is on exhibition at Drummond's, Highroads and Markey Streets.

SECOND PRIZE Value $1,250

In the soft, semi-tropic, climatic zone, extending north from San Diego to Shasta County, California, lies Tehama county, in which is situated this beautiful little 10-acre ranch near the town of Red Bluff. This is fruit land of a very high order and is part of the celebrated Lutheran colony which had its inception with an Omaha clergyman. Literature describing this property may be had at the office of TOWNE-REDGOLD CO. in the City National Bank building, Omaha.

THIRD PRIZE Value $900

The magnificent, lacy walnut KRELL AUTO GRAND PLAYER-PIANO which nothing can excel. No other player-piano has in the absolute the "human touch" so desired by a musical ear and so prized by the manufacturers. This instrument will be exhibited, explained and played for anyone who wishes to see it in the ware rooms on the third floor of

THE BENNETT CO.

FOURTH PRIZE Value $275

FIFTH PRIZE Value $225

In the same town and with the same prospect of advancement, the Bee has selected a residence lot 50x120 ft., and valued at $225.
Ralston is on the only interurban trolley line running out of Omaha, and within forty minutes of the Omaha postoffice. Complete information about this property at the office of the RALSTON TOWNSHIP COMPANY, 308 South 17th St. Omaha.

SIXTH, SEVENTH AND EIGHTH PRIZES

This ingenious encyclopedia, which is a development rather than invention, has besides its convenience the value of hundreds of editors mentally equipped to make use of the greatest encyclopedia ever compiled. One of the strongest recommendations for this work is that it is from the press of the reliable old house of JOHN WILEY & SONS, of New York, London, Dublin and Edinburgh, which is founded in 1807.

This encyclopedia of twelve volumes, which is valued at $95 a set, may be seen at the Omaha office of W. A. Hixenbaugh & Co., 1514 St. Mary's Avenue.

NINTH AND TENTH PRIZES

These prizes consist of twenty-four volume cloth bound sets of the "Book of Knowledge," an encyclopedia made especially for children and sold at 25c a set. This work is written in simple language and is a "wonder book" in that it makes simple all knowledge necessary to broad education. There are hundreds of colored plates and thousands in black and white. This is a fully equipped encyclopedia made for children, and may be seen at the Omaha office of W. A. Hixenbaugh & Co., 1514 St. Mary's Avenue.
