

WARNER COMING BACK AGAIN

Crack Quarterback of Cornhuskers Sends Encouraging Word.

GUS LOFGREN ALSO TO RETURN

Latest Reports Give Nebraska University Hopes of Turning Out Another Missouri Valley Championship Eleven.

LINCOLN, Sept. 10.—(Special.)—Cornhusker foot ball stock took another bound upward this week with the positive announcement by Manager Earl O. Eager that "Jerry" Warner, crack quarterback, and Gus Lofgren, "star end," would be in school again this fall. Up until the last few days it seemed as if the Cornhuskers would lose the services of these two gridiron stars.

Lofgren will have a big task on his hands in getting his credits in shape to play foot ball. The little end was quarantined last spring for smallpox just before the final semester examinations and he was forced to miss so much work that he will have to make up that which he missed. His work is in such shape that he can make it up, however.

Frank Again at Half.
The necessity of placing Owen Frank at quarter is overcome with the return of Warner, and Nebraska will again have her sensational halfback in his natural position. Frank plays a steady, reliable game at quarter, but his greatest asset to the team was his brilliant running with the ball in smashes through tackle, and Frank did not show up as well in quarter as in the halfback position.

Coach Stehm will have eight veterans to start with. The new all-year coach will have but two places in the line and one in the back field to fill unless some of the new men give greater promise than the veterans.

Many New Men.
Of the new men "Jimmy" Pierson, a big lineman weighing 210 pounds, is the most likely looking candidate. Pierson played on the freshmen team four years ago when "Captain" Jack Temple and other gridiron stars entered the university. Pierson was regarded as the best player on the freshman squad that year, with the possible exception of Temple. He was big and aggressive and possessed a good knowledge of the game.

Purdy, the Beatrice athlete, who first played on the freshmen team at Chicago and later returned to Nebraska, is another strong possibility. Purdy has been training all summer and is in superb condition for the opening of practice. Mulligan is another Beatrice boy who will give all comers a race. Potter is a likely looking chap in the back field, while Weaver, a Norfolk High school player, is remarkably fast and clever at fullback. Carlson was the only lineman of promise on the freshman squad.

With this array of new talent and with practically an entire team of veterans, great things are expected of Stehm at the Cornhusker school, and Nebraska is already planning hopes for another Missouri valley championship. This season will also mark the resumption of athletic relations with another big eight team, for on the Saturday preceding Thanksgiving Nebraska will meet Michigan in Lincoln. Early in the season the Cornhuskers play with Minnesota on Northrup field.

A Stiff Schedule.
The schedule is the stiffest a Cornhusker squad has ever been called upon to face. The schedule embraces two games with "big eight" members, three with Missouri valley conference leaders and two hard practice games. The schedule is as follows:

- October 7—Kearney Normal at Lincoln.
- October 14—Kansas State at Lincoln.
- October 21—Minnesota at Minneapolis.
- October 28—Missouri at Lincoln.
- November 4—Iowa State at Ames.
- November 11—Doane at Lincoln.
- November 18—Kansas at Lawrence.
- November 25—Michigan at Lincoln.

This schedule calls for the richest foot ball menu ever served to Lincoln devotees. The Michigan battle will attract thousands while the gridiron struggle with the "Tigers" earlier in the season will probably result in one of the greatest games of the season, for the Missourians have been exceptionally strong the last three years and indications are that another strong team will represent the school again this season.

An Eastern Assistant.
Nebraska will draw almost entirely from the east for the coaching staff. Although the name has not been made public it is understood that an eastern man—a graduate of the Ohio State university and a prominent athlete—will be chosen as assistant to Stehm. No formal action in the selection of an assistant coach can take place until the athletic board meets at the opening of the school term, but it will probably accept the recommendation of the committee.

The prospective coach is a Lincoln physician and a gridiron star at his college.

"Knockout Brown" to Meet Bill Uvick
Good Preliminaries Accompany Middleweights' Go in South—Omaha Friday.

"Knockout Brown" of Chicago and Billy Uvick, middleweight fighters, who are said to possess considerable knowledge of the fighting game and some staying ability, will box ten rounds at Stank's hall, South Omaha, Friday night.

The contest will be the main go of the evening. It will be preceded by a good card of preliminaries, according to the promoters. Fight fans are taking considerable interest in the bout and the hall's capacity is expected to be taxed.

Beefy Candidates Come to Creighton for Gridiron Work

While Loss of Former Stars is Felt, Newcomers Are Encouraging to the Coaches.

First call for foot ball practice was issued Friday night at Creighton university and about twenty eager early birds responded. Assistant Coach Morgenstern had the candidates in charge. Anything strenuous was excluded from the evening's program, the players indulging principally in loosening up their punt boots. The greater part of year's strongholds will again be in the lineup, but few have as yet reported. Of those missing Frank Marrin and "Red" Kyle are most needed. Rhonek will return to school this year, but has completed his four years of foot ball and will therefore be ineligible. But this ordinarily discouraging outlook seems to be overhauled by the very opportune appearance of several strong and reputable newcomers. The most likely one of these is a young husky built chap by name of Murphy. He tips the beam in fighting weight at 185 pounds. His particularly good point is speed and he handles the pigskin as no foreign thing. With this chap undoubtedly making good and bolstering up Coach Miller's line he is already assured of a sterling defense. Stajleton is another big husky who excels Murphy by a few pounds in the best yards in all probability fill in guard. O'Neil, McGraw, Bud Sullivan, McCarthy and young "Farmer" Burns are out and contending for one of stellar roles.

If enthusiasm is not playing too strong a part in the foot ball prospects rumored about the college, Creighton is destined for the biggest year in its history. Coach Miller realizes the importance of his schedule and fully appreciates the strength of Marquette, Colorado Springs and St. Thomas. Then, too, Creighton finds itself at a considerable disadvantage in having four long trips on the season's schedule: at Milwaukee, Colorado Springs, Tanitico, S. D., and St. Paul. Another team, the Western Union college of Iowa, has been added to the schedule, and this aggregation will be the first on whom Creighton will test her mettle.

Monday morning practice will begin in full swing under the twin supervision of Coaches Miller and Morganstern.

Peru Normal Ready for Gridiron Year

Coach Thacker Has Good Lineup of Old Stars and New Material that Look Like Champions.

PERU, Neb., Sept. 9.—(Special.)—Prospects for a winning foot ball team at the Peru Normal are better than ever before. Already the foot ball men are coming back and practice will start Monday.

Among these are Captain Shaver, Renfro, Lundy, Ralston, Schott, Sims, Gifford, all players of last year. Shaver and Renfro won places on the All Nebraska team last fall and big things are expected of them this year. Sims is also a star man, and he, Ralston, Lundy and Renfro playing the back field, the team will be exceptionally fast on offensive work.

Coach Thacker of a Michigan high school is here looking over the ground and getting things lined up.

Thacker has coached for three years in Michigan and has won every game of foot ball, basketball and base ball that his team has played in the last three years.

Word has been received from different men over the state who have played high school foot ball that they were contemplating entering the normal this fall, and with these and a host of scrubs of last year to back up the team, it ought to be a winner.

The schedule for the season is a stiff one. Among the teams to be played are Wesleyan, Hastings, Grand Island, Amity, Taber, Warrensburg Normal and Kearney Normal.

BOWLERS READY FOR OPENING

Mercantile League Plays Initial Games Monday Night.

CHICAGO SYSTEM IS ADOPTED

A Few New Faces Will Be Seen, but for Most Part Last Year's Teams Will Remain Intact.

The Mercantile will be the first of the many leagues to commence its regular bowling season. The schedule calls for the opening games Monday night. The schedule is as follows:

Midland vs. Root on alleys Nos. 1 and 2. Corey & McKenzie vs. El Pazo on alleys Nos. 4 and 5. Columbia Insurance vs. Outlaws on alleys Nos. 6 and 7. O. U. V. vs. Spauldings on alleys Nos. 9 and 10.

A few new faces will be seen among the bowlers, but in most cases the teams will remain intact and will shoot with the same lineup as last season.

Vulture Among Missing.
It is to be regretted that Past President Bob Vulture will be among the missing in this league this season, as it was he who practically put the league where it is, and it is hoped that the officers in charge this year will try and follow the good example set by the past president.

The Chicago system of shooting league games will be used by this league on the opening Monday, every team in the league shooting their games at the same time. This will be the first time it has been tried in the city and many of the bowlers of other leagues will be present to witness the tryout.

Two Leagues Incomplete.
The two big leagues, the Omaha and Commercial, are still in an incomplete and doubtful state of organization. When everything is taken in consideration this condition is really appalling, to think that all the younger leagues are ready and will commence their schedule during the coming week and the two big fellows that should set the pace are still dragging.

O'BRIEN SHUTS OUT ATHLETICS
Former Denver Pitcher Twirls P'ine Ball for Red Sox.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9.—Tom O'Brien, a right handed pitcher formerly of the Denver, Colo. club, who reported to Manager Donovan yesterday, twirled five ball against Philadelphia today and Boston won by 2 to 0. The visitors' tallies were made off Plank's delivery in the first inning as a result of a single by Hooper, Yerkes' double, an error by Baker and Speaker's sacrifice fly.

ENGLISH AND FITZGERALD TO GO
Controversy as to Which is Better Man to Be Settled.

Clarence English and Jack Fitzgerald have been matched for a boxing bout before the Ak-Sar-Ben club in South Omaha, September 15, to settle the old controversy as to which is the better man. The two have met often and still there is doubt which will win this time.

Quigley an Umpire.
Last Tuesday Willard Quigley hiked over to the Mercantile to umpire for the balance of the season. He tickled the indicator at Shenandoah Tuesday and Wednesday and worked at South Omaha Thursday, Friday and Saturday. This was practically his first chance at umpiring, as he only judged a few arguments in Omaha. Nevertheless, he made good from the start.
