WATER BOARD LETS CONTRACT

Bidders for $65,000 of Machinery and Work Get Jobs.

INJUNCTION WOULD MAKE DELAY

Fremont Benjamin Brings Action Signed by Frank A. Mesmore to Force Expenditure of Money on Water Main Extensions.

Not hastened in any degree by the knowledge that an application was being made for an injunction restraining them from carrying out the carefully prepared plan for the enlargement of the water plant.

The construction of the reservoir will be the largest item and the bids for the work were first considered. All were local bidders.

Bids for New Pump. There was a wide range also in the bids for furnishing the new pump.

The new pump is to be of the cross compound opposed type. The high pressure cylinder is twenty-four inches in diameter.

The application was based upon the allegation that the board is proceeding unlawfully and is exceeding its authority.

Hunting for Complainant. It is said that the few people who are opposing the improvement of the plant and seeking to embarrass the water board.

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE

Improvement Indicated by Most Reports from Trade Centers. DRY GOODS DEMAND IS BETTER. Enlarged Operations in Pig Iron Are Indicated by Returns for August.

Steady improvement in business conditions is indicated by most reports which come from the leading industries and from trade centers.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—H. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade tomorrow will say: Steady improvement in business conditions is indicated by most reports which come from the leading industries and from trade centers.

An improved demand for dry goods is noted both in the primary markets and in the trade centers.

Woolen and worsted mill report better inquiry and stock goods are being called for steadily.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say: Three factors helped to expand trade in a moderate way this week—fall festivals, the advance of the season and the ending of the vacation period.

On the whole, recent developments are relatively more favorable, but still conservatism in buying is everywhere visible.

Business failures in the United States for the week ending September 7 were 191, against 164 last week.
