Former Initiative and Referendum - At a meeting of the Seventh Ward District Legislative League held September 6, a resolution was passed requesting all sympathetic members of the initiative, referendum and recall to communicate with Jesse T. Brillhart, 101 Park avenue, Omaha for the purpose of forming a state organization

Transferred to Federal Court - A transcript of judgment in the case of James Polita, administrator of the estate of Christine Knottovich against the Chicago Northwestern railway was filed Saturday in the office of the clerk of the United States circuit court. The original petition was filed August 1 in the state courts and asks damages for the death of Knottovich, who was killed while employed in constructing a track near Missouri Valley

Take Up Gas Question Soon - Legal questions relative to the city against the gas company to enforce the dollar ordinance will probably be taken up about October 1. It is considered probable by the city attorney that the matter will be referred to the district court to a master who will act as referee, give the first hearing of the dispute, which will deal entirely with the rights of the city to regulate the price of the commodity. The papers will probably be filed about September 3
