

FLOATS FOR THE BIG PARADE

Samson Announces Titles of Twenty for the Electrical Pageant.

FORMER YEARS ARE RECALLED

Work on Floats is Nearly Completed and the Columns for the Court of Honor Have Been Built.

Titles have been selected for the twenty floats that will appear in the Ak-Sar-Ben electric parade. Outside the title float of the parade, which will be "Dreams of Former Years," the initiation float and the king's float, each float will suggest the theme of a former parade.

Here are the titles of the floats, also the years which former parades, here recalled, were given:

I—Dreams of Former Years.
II—Feast of Mankind, 1906.
III—Fast of Olympia, 1907.
IV—Parade of Quivers, 1907.
V—Constellations, 1908.
VI—The Alhambra, 1908.
VII—Gems of Grand and Comic Opera, 1909.

VIII—Isles of the Sea, 1909.
IX—When Knighthood Was in Flower, 1909.
X—The Festival of Fairyland, 1909.
XI—Poem Pictures, 1909.
XII—The Story of the State, 1909.
XIII—The World of Mystery, 1909.
XIV—The Nations of the Earth, 1909.
XV—Days We Celebrate and Songs We Sing, 1909.

XVI—The Golden West and Samson in Polaris, 1909.
XVII—The World's a Stage, 1909.
XVIII—The Story of State and Samson's Quaint Quips, 1909.
XIX—The Initiations.
XX—His Majesty the King.

There were two parades in 1908. The work on the floats, which are being constructed in the East, will be completed Wednesday night. The tall white columns which will embellish Samson's court of honor on Douglas street from Sixteenth to Eighteenth are completed at the Den.

DAIRY EMPLOYEES HAVE OUTING

Various Forms of Amusement Are Indulged In. One of Which Was Flaming of F. Emiliac.

The first annual picnic of the employees of the Atlantic dairy was held Sunday at Hillside park, Ralston. About 60 attended. Music, dancing, refreshments and sporting contests furnished diversion for the day.

An interesting ball game was played between the Giants and Cubs, in which the former came out the winner by a score of 7 to 5. The finding of the mysterious F. Emiliac was the chief feature of the day. Late in the evening Miss Finn succeeded in buttonholing the unknown person and saving the correct words, thereby winning the prize.

The following were the sporting events and the winners in each:

Married men's race: G. Leffingwell, thermos bottle; H. Rundquist, $2.
Fat men's race: F. E. Oakman, year's subscription to the Sunday and Evening Bee, donated by The Bee Publishing Company; F. Dastum, pipe.

Single men's race: J. Bartlett, $2.50.
Ladies' ball throwing contest: Lily Chambers, box of candy; Mrs. E. Cross, pair scissors.

Ladies' race: Mrs. Tucker, cake plate; Mrs. Rundquist, box of stationery.
Boys' race: Roy Paulson, pocket flashlight.

Girls' race: Miss Wahl, box of stationery.
Broad jump: G. Leffingwell, year's subscription to the Daily News; F. L. Kernan, Herald.

Men's relay race: Quigley, Kernan and Bartlett, $2.50.

The committee in charge of the day was composed of H. A. Cross, F. L. Kernan and C. F. Schwager.

COTTON RIPENS IN OMAHA

First Boll to Open Is Sent to Arkansas as an Exhibit of What Can Be Done.

The first boll of cotton in Henry Williams' cotton patch at Twenty-third and Grant streets opened Sunday and Williams will send it today to his brother in southern Arkansas.

Williams says the cotton is as good as can be grown in this state and that it will be out of danger of frost in a few days. He judges that his one-plot patch has a yield that will run about a bale and a half to the acre, which, at the prices now prevailing, would mean about $15 for an acre.

What Williams will do with his crop is a secret that he has not yet disclosed. He says he sees no reason why Nebraska should not be a good cotton country. Williams is a waiter at the Commercial club.

DEMENTED MEN CAUSE TERROR

Two Unbalanced Persons in Separate Parts of Town Go Through Strange Antics.

Wandering about in the neighborhood of Forty-third and Center streets for the last four days, Hans Jorgensen succeeded in frightening almost into hysterics the women and little girls of the vicinity by his strange actions. He was trailed to his lair, a clump of bushes, by Policeman Kennedy Sunday night, and arrested. An insanity charge was placed against him.

Henry Rohan, 2601 South Ninth street, threatened the lives of his family at 3 o'clock Sunday night by brandishing a knife and daring any one of his brothers and sisters to move. He was then backed into a corner of a room at the home when the police arrived. He was handcuffed and taken to the police station, where an insanity charge was placed against him.

DAHLMAN BRINGS BACK A CANE

Mayor Is Presented with Memento at Boies Made by Harry Orchard in the Pen.

As a memento of his visit to Boise City, Ida, Mayor Dahlman brings back a finely toolled cane made in the penitentiary there by Harry Orchard, whose confessions were so famous a factor in the Meyer-Haywood trials a few years ago. The mayor went on business to Pocatello and then on to the capital. The walking stick is made of circles of leather strung on a heavy shaft and the silver head is inlaid with shells. It bears an inscription "To Mayor Dahlman from his Boise friends." Boies is another one of the cities that will soon consider a commission form of government.

FREIGHT RATE HIGH IN ALASKA

Forces Publishers to Charge Fifteen Cents a Copy for Newspapers at Whitehorse.

Nebraska shippers who kick on the size of their freight bills would think Union Pacific and Burlington freight charges amount to nothing if they should compare them with charges in Alaska.

According to the Weekly Star of Whitehorse, Y. T., a copy of which has been received at the office of The Bee, freight charges from Skagway to Whitehorse on the White Pass & Yukon road on 66 pounds of print paper were $3.10. This is one reason why the Star charges 15 cents per copy for its paper.

New Fall Coats

We have a particularly elegant line of women's new Fall Coats, which are freshly unpacked, to put on sale Tuesday.

Since there is seldom more than one of a single style in the assortment we might call it a "sample" line.

And they are very new—tailored within the past week and rushed to us on the fastest express train.

We notice that the styles are becomingly fetching, the quality far above ordinary and the workmanship notable because of the carefulness exercised.

You surely ought to see them Tuesday, if possible, for they will not remain long in the store.

Here are three numbers to give you an idea of their general character.

54-inch plain tailored broadcloth coats lined with Skinner's guaranteed satin and variously relieved with braids or buttons, $17.50 to $25.00 each.

Long coat of wide wale chevrot, with cuffs and collar of satin finished with checked velvet—a very dashing and handsome model—only $33.00.

Coats of warm, woolly double-faced cloth, striped coatings and mixtures showing collars, cuffs and trimmings of entirely new design, and enhanced with touches of color; a liberal variety of styles to choose from, $25.00 to $35.00 each.
