WILLIAMS SAVES THE GAME

Makes a Most Sensational Catch of Fly with Bases Filled.

DOUBLES POWELL AT SECOND Rourkes Stop Ninth Inning Rally by Williams' Great Catch After Hall Goes on the Mound

With three men on bases and but one out in the ninth and one run needed to tie the score, Gus Williams, Omaha's right fielder, who has been sold to Cleveland, saved the day for the Rourkes by making the most sensational catch of the year and doubling Powell out at the second bag. Williams' sensational catch gave the Rourkes a 5 to 4 victory over St. Joseph. Williams was playing close in when Reilly clouted the ball to right. The big Omaha fielder turned as the bat hit the ball and ran like a deer. From the stands it looked like the Josles would pass the Rourkes on the hit, as from appearances it was absolutely "impossible for Gus to even touch the leather. Just as the ball was about to strike the right field fence. Williams gave a leap and pulled the ball out of the atmosphere about an inch from the fence. The St. Joe base runners, who thought it a clean hit, started to run for RYE, N. Y., Sept. 11 .- Today Thomas G. Stevenson of Boston and A. H. Gussman of Belleville, N. J., started the seventeenth amateur championship of the United States Golf association.

Leading off at 8 o'clock, Stevenson and Gussman were followed at four-minute intervals until well into the afternoon by the golfing stars of two countries, and notably by H. H. Hilton, the British champion.

The test today was an eighteen-hole medal play round with a similar round tomorrow, after which thirty-two who hold best cards will play an eighteen-hole match play round in the afternoon. Only sixtyfour players can start tomorrow. A special prize goes to the best card for the thirtysix holes, while a gold medal and a year's possession by his club of the Havemeyer oup awaits the winner with a silver medal to the runnerup and bronze medals for the other two semi finalists.

A storm was waiting at the second green for Setvenson and Gussman, and they, with about forty other early starters, were thoroughly drenched before the rain ceased at 10 o'clock. There were very few withdrawals.

Stevenson finished with 89 and Gussman with 108. R. C. Cochrane of Baltimore came in with a card of 84. Former Champion Robert A. Gardner of Hinsdale and Yale made the first 18 holes

The best early scores follow: Robert A. Gardner, 76; Albert Seckel, Riverside, 77; George Brown, Wyantenuck, 79; Roy White, Englewood, 30; Richard Mott, Huntington Valley, 81; B. S. BOXING MATCH DATE CHANGED

English Will Meet Fitzgerald on Thursday Instead of Friday.

The Business Men's Athletic club of South Omaha received a message from Clarence English Sunday stating that it would be impossible for him to meet Jack Fitzgerald on Friday, as he has a fight with Kid Ferns at St. Joseph the following week before the Robidoux Athletic club. It is agreeable with all concerned that the date be changed to Thursday. English said in his telegram that he is working out at the Grand Avenue Athletic club. This is the club that promoted the Al Kaufman-Jim Flynn bout some time ago. Jack Fitzgerald can be seen every day working hard at the Shamrock club of South Omaha with a troupe of trainers, including Jack Solomon, the late lamented Stanley Ketchell's sparring partner. Thursday Instead of Friday.

Steinbergs Win Championship. The Steinbergs won the championship of Omaha and South Omaha in the under 18 Omaha and South Omaha in the under is class, not having lost a single game out of fifteen played, when they defeated the White City Ramblers in one of the longest, fastest and best games ever seen on Dietz park. The game went fifteen innings and was a pitchers' battle between Altman and Probst, with Altman of the Steinbergs having the best of the argument. He allowed only five hits and secured fourteen strikeouts, while Probet only secured five strikeouts and allowed eleven hits. Both pitchers received sensational support from their teammates. by the score of 14 to 6. Young started to pitch, but Quigley, the manager of the Managers, pulled him in the fifth round after five runs were made off him, but that wasn't all his fault, as the Managers had eight errors chalked up on them, especially the outfielders, and had to almost call an ambulance on one of, the fly balls, the ball going through the fielder's hands and almost knocking his eye out. Kelly finished the game and was almost invincible, striking out nine in four innings.
