Address on Trust Decision. At the Chamber of Commerce luncheon President Taft said:

'My Fellow Citizens: I propose to take up the question which has occupied the attention of the American people for now twenty years, that of industrial combinations known as "trusts." During the last year we have had two great decisions by has not yet come to realize the effect that congress. He served in congress since those decisions are certain to, have. It that year, is not that the construction which the court has put upon the act is different frem that which most members of the profession, and most subordinate courts. and indeed the supreme court itself, had before indicated as the proper construction of the statute; but it is that it is now finally settled, by two fully considered decisions in respect to two of Cheng Tu, dated September 13, reading: the largest and most powerful of these combinations, what their illegality consists in, and how they are to be treated. in view of the finding that they are tember 7, but there have been several en-

the so-called anti-trust or Sherman act. Persons who do not understand the effect of these decisions and really do not understand the law have a great deal to say which is intended to lead the heeded. Dispatches to the French and public to the belief that in some way or other the supreme court has emasculated the statute and prevented its operation against objectionable and injurious trade combinations and conspiracies. #### State Bank in Ohio Closes Its Doors and Examiners in Charge

CINCINNATI, O. Sept 18.-The Metts doors today on order of the state banking department of Ohio. State Bank Examinera Rogers and Baxter will remain in charge of the bank until a deputy is appointed. The bank, which was or-ganized six years ago, has a capital stock amounting to $110,000.

Its total resources are $302.000 and its deposits about $750,000. Of the deposits $125,000 are city and county funds, which are guaranteed. The bank had a state charter and they did mostly a savings business. T. J. McClure is president and Alfred Morrison cashier. In a statement given out by them they claim that all depositors are fully protected and that there will be no loss. The reason given by the state authorities for closing the bank was that the officials of the mstitution had been given too much latitude in making loans on collateral not approved by the state. A big crowd gathered in front of the
