BULLETIN.

TORONTO, Sept. 21.—At 8:45 o'clock the protection of the emperor and empress and the cabinet ministers at Kiev conceded the defeat of the liberal government. Its summary was: Conservatives, 94; Liberals, 62; Conservatives gain, 46; Liberal gain, 11.

MONTREAL, Sept. 21.—Three hours after the closing of the polls the steady addition of gains of seats to the conservative column, with the west, aside from Manitoba, largely unreported, indicated the practical certainty of the defeat of the Laurier government.

Six of the government ministers failed to secure re-election. They are: William Patten, minister of customs; Mackenzie King, minister of labor; William Fielding, minister of finance; Sir Frederick Borden, minister of militia; Sidney Fisher, minister of agriculture; G. F. Graham, minister of railways.

At 8:45 o'clock the returns showed 86 Liberals and 92 opponents elected, a net gain of 34 for the opposition, as follows:

Be Prov. Gov't.	Oppn Gov't	Oppn Elect.	Oppn Gain.
18 Nova Scotia	6	2	2
18 New Brunswick	8	2	2
24 Quebec	34	18	4
24 Ontario	7	56	15
24 Manitoba	1	5	4
24 Saskatchewan	1	0	0
7 Alberta	1	1	0
Total	86	92	34

Net opposition gain, 34.

The opposition gained heavily in the maritime provinces and in Ontario, while it barely held its own in the province of Quebec, where the conservatives, with only sixteen out of sixty-five districts unreported, gained six seats.

The Liberals apparently swept Saskatchewan. Early returns showed the following Liberals leading by large majorities:

Assiniboin, Turiff, Battleford, Champaigne, Regina, Martin, Humboldt, Neely, Sault Ste. Marie, McNutt, MacKenzie, Cash.

McKay, conservative, leads in Prince Albert; Bathwell, conservative, leads slightly in Moose Jaw and McLean, but outside votes were pulling down the city majorities in the liberals' favor.

In Manitoba the liberals had the following seats: Liegar, Greenway, Dauphin, Cruise, Provencher, Molely.

The conservatives led in Minnedosa, Brandon and Portage La Prairie by the city vote.

Early returns showed five conservative gains in Ontario cities as follows: South Ontario, 2; Ottawa, Brantford and Kingsport, with no liberal gains. One hundred and six towns and cities in Ontario gave majorities against reciprocity.

Returns from Halifax indicated the defeat of Opposition Leader Borden and his running mate, Crosby, by two government men.

MacKenzie King, minister of labor was defeated in Berlin.

Sir Frederick Borden, minister of militia, Liberal was defeated in Kings County by A. De W. Forster, conservative, by

POLICE INTRIGUE IN RUSSIA

Scandalous Criminal Conduct in High Circles Rumored.

STOLYPIN KILLED BY A GUARD

Assassin Appointed by Director Kurloff to Protect Person of Premier—Trepoff Prevents Escape of the Murderer.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 21.—Full exposure of the scandalous criminal intrigues in high governmental circles leading to Premier Stolypin's sacrifice are forbidden, says the Novoye Vremya, by patriotic reasons. The paper says that only a mere fraction of the findings of Minister of Justice Chichagovitch, who is investigating the assassination of Premier Stolypin at Kiev, can ever be published.

Only General Trepoff's prompt measures in throwing a cordon about the theater and directing the work of the secret police, says the Vremya, prevented the escape of Bogroff from the hands of justice. Colonel Kulibakoff made a strenuous but unsuccessful effort to have the prisoners kept in the secret police headquarters instead of the court. But when Trepoff surrendered Bogroff to Kulibakoff, the paper declares few details of the crime would ever have become known.

The inquiry into the assassination of Stolypin with particular reference to the revolutionary and police elements involved is being conducted by M. Chichagovitch. Greater sensations than those so far published are promised. Vice Director of the Department of Police Verigin is under strong suspicion of the authorities, who hold as in a measure responsible for the outrage.

DISORD IN POLICE DEPARTMENT.

The protection of the emperor and empress and the cabinet ministers at Kiev formed the subject of departmental discord. Governor General Trepoff demanded general oversight of the protective measures, but was overridden by the director of the department of police, M. Kurloff. Trepoff then tendered his resignation, which was not accepted. Kurloff, Verigin, Lieutenant Colonel Spiridonov of the secret service police and Colonel Kulibakoff, chief of the secret police organized the protection, which cost $10,000.

While Verigin and Kurloff were at Kiev, on the eve of the emperor's visit, Dmitry Bogroff was consulted and given the responsible position of guarding the premier, as he promised to track suspicious terrorists, Nina Alexandrovna and Nicholas Jacobovich. It is incomprehensible to those engaged in the inquiry how a subordinate, as Verigin was, dared to disregard Stolypin's circular regarding revolutionary spies and allow Bogroff, a spy and an informer to guard the premier without setting other agents to watch him.

Verigin was Kurloff's right hand man and maintained close relations with Kurloff's family. Kurloff, against Stolypin's most determined opposition, married the divorced wife of a young adjutant. Stolypin was reported to have tracked his wife to the lodgings of the liberal author, Mrs. Tyrova.

A domestic search has been made of all the rooms of the correspondent of a London newspaper and his brother residing in the lodgings of the liberal author, Mrs. Tyrova.

It was reported that Bogroff's father was arrested on the frontier while returning to Russia, but a later report said that he was in Berlin. Bogroff's parents, on receiving the news of the crime, addressed a telegram to M. Stolypin, expressing abhorrence at their son's act. Bogroff's brother, who was held at the St. Petersburg secret police headquarters, was transferred to the fortress of his uncle, a physician, and was arrested at Sakhalin. Another Bogroff, also physician, has been arrested at Sakhalin. Eighty men and thirty women, pro-liberal, are under arrest at Kiev.

Twelve thousand Jews have left Kiev since the assassination and the exodus continues. M. Cuklin, chief of the Patriotic League, has been arrested for anti-Jewish discourses. Prefect Tollimatchoff of Odessa announces guarantees for the preservation of order.

Returns from Halifax indicated the defeat of Opposition Leader Borden and his running mate, Crosby, by two government men.

MacKenzie King, minister of labor was defeated in Berlin.

Sir Frederick Borden, minister of militia, Liberal was defeated in Kings County by A. De W. Forster, conservative, by
