OFFICERS' NAMES IN STONE

Members of State Normal Board Given Monument.

ON CORNERSTONE AT WAYNE

Secretary Mellor Says Free List at Big Exposition Practically Cut Off--Omaha Boy on Staff of Nebraskans.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 23--(Special.) Upon the cornerstone of the new building which is being erected at Wayne for the use of the state normal school there are chiseled the names of the members of the State Normal board. Such an inscription was made today by State Superintendent Crabtree, who returned from Wayne and has viewed someone's else handiwork with his own eyes.

Secretary W. R. Mellor of the State Fair board, when asked for a list of the free passes given out during the recent state fair, said that such "free" passes had been issued and that the habit of giving such admittances was stopped several years ago.

Secretary Mellor asserted that tickets of admission were given to exhibitors and owners of concessions so that they could sell and come to Secretary of Agriculture Wilson and Congressman George W. Norris, both of whom delivered addresses at the big event.

Omaha Boy School Editor

Samuel H. Buck of Superior was elected editor of the Daily Nebraskan, the university student paper, today and Fred C. McConnell of Omaha was elected associate editor at a meeting of the student publication board.

SHERIDAN COUNTY FAIR IS UNPRECEDENTED SUCCESS

GORDON, Sept. 23--(Special.)--The Sheridan county fair closed a most successful four days' exhibit Friday. The 1911 fair was a record-breaker in every respect--the biggest crowd, the largest and finest display in every department, the best weather, the biggest gate receipts, the best street attractions and the best satisfied crowd ever assembled in the county.

MRS. GORTY IS RECOVERING

Nebraska City Woman Shot by Her Husband Ten Days Ago Will Prosecute Him. NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., Sept. 23--(Special.)--Mrs. Frank Gorty, who was shot through the right breast by her husband a week ago and for a time was thought would not recover, is doing well and if no complications arise will be able to be out in about ten days.

Omaha Shriners to Help North Platte Masons Celebrate

M. H. Douglas, chairman of the executive committee of the North Platte Commercial club and prominent in Masonic circles throughout the state was in Omaha yesterday, conferring with Penetance L. B. Hoyt of the Tangle Temple of the Ancient Arabic order of the Mystic Shrine, in an attempt to secure an even larger representation of Omaha nobles than is already assured to attend the October ceremonial session.

West Point Band Will Build Auditorium

WEST POINT, Neb., Sept. 23--(Special.)--The West Point Cadet band has filed articles of incorporation. The capital stock is fixed at $30,000. A board of five directors was elected, who chose from its number the following officers: President, Rudolph Brazda; secretary, Walter Kerst; treasurer, R. H. Kerow. The other two directors are H. S. Radler, leader of the band, and L. R. Malchow. This incorporation was established for the purpose of building and eventually obtaining ownership of the new auditorium now being built at West Point at a cost of $20,000. It is the purpose of the band to pay back to the subscribers of the building fund the money loaned them without interest, until the cost of the building has been repaid by the band, when it shall become the property of the corporation.

MAN ORDERED TO LEAVE TOWN WANTS PROTECTION

TECUMSEH, Neb., Sept. 23--(Special.)--A middle-aged colored man giving the name of W. M. Singleton and claiming to be a garbage man, has been hanging around the town of Sterling, this county, for the past month or more. It is claimed that he has been intoxicated a good share of the time and that he has made himself generally obnoxious. The town marshal ordered Singleton to leave town yesterday and the Pioneer around the town of Sterling, this county, for the past month or more.

ARAPAHOE PAPER MOVES

Owner Takes Outfit to North Deaver. ARAPAHOE, Neb., Sept. 23--(Special.)--J. H. Mooney, is moving the Pioneer office to North Deaver. The Pioneer is the oldest paper in this part of the state and since Mr. Mooney has owned it has ranked among the leading democratic papers of the state.

Beatrice Men Caught By Cave-in of Sewer

BEATRICE, Neb., Sept. 23--(Special.)--While working in the ditch for the new water works system in the north part of the city Friday, Lee O'Connor of Lincoln and Robert Waters of this city were caught in a cavern of sand and barely escaped with their lives. O'Connor was lying down packing the pipe when the sand rolled in on him, burying him completely. He was rescued with difficulty by the other men who were working near him. Waters was buried up to his armpits and worked his way out unassisted. The ditch where the cave-in occurred is eight feet deep.

MOTHERS Preserve Baby's Skin

Word was received here Friday from Mount Clear, Colo., stating that the little child of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Heck, former Beatrice residents, had been run over by a train at that place and instantly killed. The body was taken to Altoona, Kan., for interment.

SLOT MACHINES UNDER BAN OF GRAND ISLAND MAYOR

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Sept. 23--(Special.)--Mayor Ryan has issued an order putting every slot machine in the city out of business beginning October 15. The slot machines were noncommissioned in this city some years ago, but in some manner became reinstated some months ago, first as mere "salesmen" then as gaming devices, the candy and cigar stores leading in the reinstatement and having the greater number of the machines up-to-date. These have been times, it is alleged, when bunches of young lads and men boys would be standing about the machines awaiting their turn. The order of the mayor makes a clean sweep of a total of thirty machines.

Chairman Kennedy Visits at Lincoln

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 23--(Special.)--Chairman Kennedy of the republican state central committee arrived here from Omaha this evening to talk over the state campaign work with Governor Aldrich.

North Platte Will Have Trade Junket

North Platte will run a trade excursion in nearby territory on October 27 and 28, with a large representation of North Platte business men. Representatives of a number of Omaha jobbing houses are planning to accompany the excursion, which will be on the Burlington and Union Pacific. Advertising literature will be distributed at all of the towns visited.

TECUMSEH CONGREGATIONS MAY UNITE THEIR FORCES

TECUMSEH, Neb., Sept. 23--The congregations of the Tecumseh Christian and Baptist churches sent representatives to a meeting at the Baptist church last evening, having in view the uniting of the two churches here. Rev. U. G. Miller, former pastor of the Baptist church, is leaving the city, and the Baptists, now without a pastor, have a good church building. The Christian congregation has a pastor, Rev. W. C. Lesley, but they have a poor church building. Neither congregation is a strong one, but united it would be different. It is thought by some of those who attended the meeting that the consolidation of the churches will result.

Breach of Promise Suit Settled.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., Sept. 23--(Special.)--The breach of promise suit of Miss Lulu Lloyd against George Justice, a wealthy retired farmer, wherein she demanded $20,000 has been settled out of court and the case dismissed. Justice filed a motion recently asking the court to order an examination of the plaintiff, by medical experts, but Judge Travis overruled the motion and the defendant then made a settlement with the plaintiff and the suit was dismissed. Both parties are quite prominent residents of this city and leaders of society.

Miss Bradley Adjudged Insane.

SEWARD, Neb., Sept. 23--(Special.)--Miss Mayme Bradley, who was a teacher in the Milford city schools, and who had invitations issued for her marriage to Prof. Walter Plybon, and the guests assembled for her wedding, was adjudged insane and taken to the asylum by Sheriff Gillen. Prof. Plybon knew nothing of the affair and only the diseased mind of the girl was responsible for the sensational affair.

"Jack the Hunter" is Placed.

SEWARD, Neb., Sept. 23--(Special.)--Joseph Vlach, the Saline county "Jack the Hunter," who tried to embrace Miss Nelson, cashier of the Farmers' and Merchants' bank, at Milford, Tuesday, and who was arrested and brought by Sheriff Gillen to the county jail here, was fined $100 by Judge Gladwin. He paid the fine. He is 60 years of age.

AUBURN, Neb., Sept. 23--(Special.)--The clothing house of Graham Clothing company, conducted by T. E. McKnight, was entered last night and several suits of clothing and other articles taken.

EASTERN IOWA CITIES ALLEGED DISCRIMINATION IN RATES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23--That Iowa cities on the west bank of the Mississippi river are being discriminated against in freight rates was a charge preferred to the Interstate Commerce commission today by the Board of Railroad Commissioners of Iowa. The rates affected by the complaint are practically all in effect east of Iowa to the Atlantic seaboard. The complaint was directed against the Santa Fe railway and approximately 150 other carriers. It requested that the rates be so adjusted as not to be higher than those concurrently in effect to and from Quincy, Ill., and St. Louis, Mo.
