You and Your Friends Are Cordially Invited to Attend the First
"Omaha Combined Style Show"
Week Beginning Monday, September 25

At the Bennett Store you will find magnificent stocks of the world's best merchandise, most carefully and discriminately selected from the leading fashion and manufacturing centers of the globe--Apparel for men, women and children; yard goods of all kinds, furnishings and decorations for the home beautiful--in fact, everything that is new and good can be had at this store. This formal opening, with its wealth of merchandise in each of its fifty-seven departments, merits the attendance of every person in Western Iowa and the State of Nebraska, even though it might necessitate a day or night of travel to come. It is the literal truth, plainly and emphatically spoken, when we say that the assemblage of the styles and qualities in all lines presented in this season's formal opening exhibits now stands equalled by but comparatively few stores in the Great Middle West and excelled by none. People from out of town, especially, will delight in the wealth of opportunities this store affords.

A Grand Millinery Opening Introducing People You Will Meet in the Millinery Store

This page shows a new idea in the advertising business--and there is a good reason for it. You have helped make the millinery store the best west of Chicago and we realize that if you are to make this establishment your "business home" you must know more of the people in it. So, we introduce to you, by means of this advertisement, the women in charge of the various sections of our great millinery store. Under each picture you will find the person's name and the merchandise under her personal supervision. Each one has pleased hundreds of customers because she thoroughly understands the styles and merits of the various things assigned to her care, and each one is capable of rendering to you the same satisfactory service. Believing it will be to your advantage, we suggest that you study this advertisement, and then, when visiting any section, ask for the lady in charge. You will always be assured of intelligent, competent assistance.

Our showing embraces hundreds of new Parisian hats from the small, chic shapes--cleverly twirled and caught here and there into new effects--to the largest, most elaborately trimmed creations. Their beauty and charm is quite irresistible. These three extra specials are for the opening day only.

This Unfolding of Winter Garment Modes Is for You

We shall not spoil the pleasure of your visit by telling here of all of the many novelties we have discovered at home and abroad or of the completeness and attractiveness of the stocks. You can read style magazines and articles without number and not gain one-tenth the amount of style knowledge a visit here will give you because style is something impossible to describe and better understood than expressed. Like Niagara, you can't appreciate it until you have seen it. So, let these few mentionings and our earnest invitation be reason for your coming tomorrow and every other day convenient during the "Omaha Combined Style Show" week.

The various lines include the jaunty and ultra-fashionable designs as well as all of the plain tailored models. Fabrics, trimmings and tailorings measure up to our high, unvarying standard of quality.

Elegant Evening Costumes in Many Styles Fine Tailored Suits at $49.50 to $59.50

Many very effective ideas are shown in low neck styles for evening wear--lavender chiffons over white satins with floral borderings; gold braiding around the yokes; skirts and waists trimmed with black fringes, etc. One model is of pale blue net made over satin with deep floral border of pink roses; has pink satin folds, gold lace trimmed waist and pink girdle--$49.50. Also pretty dresses for street and informal wear.

The majority of these are made from the very finest chiffon broad-cloths in cadet blue, black and the coronation shades. The coats have large revers, heavily embroidered, collars and cuffs of velvet with silk embroidery work and finest peau de egypte linings. The skirts are paneled both front and back and finished with embroidery work to match the coats. Very smart and dressy.

Suits at $37.50 to $45.00

Suits at these prices are of two-toned zibelines in such popular combinations as brown and black, cadet blue and black and coronation purple and black. Two-button cut-away styles with large revers trimmed with velvet and embroidered cuffs to match. Skirts have panels, two large folds and high girdles.

Tailored Suits at $35.00

English chevots, mannish wosteds, French boucle cloths and striped homespuns enter into the making of this superior line. Coats are in cutaway and plain straight models. Velvets, fancy buttons, braiding and silk frogs and ornaments are greatly used in the many trimming schemes. Skirts trimmed to match the cloth.

Coats at $25.00 to $35.00

Rough materials have the call in the coat stock although mixtures, striped materials and reversible cloths are much in evidence. Large revers and large collars are in high favor and velvets and large fancy buttons relieve the garments at collars, cuffs and pockets. Brown, purple, tan, Royal gray and other colors as please your fancy.

Junior Coats, $9.50 to $13.50

Quite a pleasing assortment of girlish styles will also be given special attention this week. Coats of checked and plaid back materials are most stylish while the new Junior polo coat finds favor with many girls and their mothers. Cadet blues, tans, grays and browns for ages 13 to 17 years.
