

TAFT'S TRIP THROUGH IOWA

Governor Carroll and Officials Will Accompany Party.

SPECIAL CAR IS CHARTERED

Principal Stops Will Be at Des Moines, Ottumwa, Waterloo, Fort Dodge, Iowa Falls and Knoxville.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

DES MOINES, Sept. 24.—(Special.)—The program for the welcome to President Taft in Iowa, which is now complete, leaves little to be done, and it is certain that when he comes through Iowa the latter part of the week he will be received with the acclaim that is due his high office. The governor took personal charge of the arrangements in the state and has provided the various parties that are to meet the presidential party with special cars has been secured which will carry the governor and two of the state officials, also the governor's military staff and some of the members of congress. This will accompany the presidential train all through Iowa. The members of the party will join the party en route to the president here and the dinner at Ottumwa and other social features of the trip.

The president is to speak at a number of places along the line of the Illinois Central from Council Bluffs to Waterloo on Thursday. His first public appearance will be at Waterloo, the home of the junior United States senator. A big meeting has been arranged at Waterloo. In Des Moines the breakfast will be at the Grant club and by invitation only, so that the number of guests will be limited. The president is to be introduced by Governor Carroll. The local reception committee is headed by Senator Cummins.

At Iowa Falls the president is to speak at a home-coming festival and at Knoxville he will meet another home-coming crowd. But most of the meetings arranged for him will be purely political in nature and it is anticipated that the president will discuss some of the phases of national political life at some or all of the meetings.

Movement for a State Primary.

There is a movement well under way in the state for having the matter of the delegates to the next republican national convention settled by a state wide primary of the members of the party. It was suggested by the standpatters and later taken up by the progressives and the leaders on both sides are inclined to agree upon some plan that will avoid an injurious contest in the party next year. As to whether or not they can agree upon the matter is yet to be determined, but otherwise the matter of the attitude of the party in national affairs will be decided by the wide caucus and convention system. The machinery for this will have to all be built up again, and in many counties special primaries will be used in place of the caucuses. Thus far there is very little activity among politicians on the matter of candidates for delegates, but following the trip of the president through the state it is expected there will be something doing.

No Fish for Iowa Rivers.

It is probable that there will be no supply of fish for the Iowa rivers this fall. The state game warden has been in the habit of sealing the large bayous along the Mississippi river to take out the young fish to distribute them to the smaller streams. But he reports that the Mississippi river is nearly dry and has been so for so long that the bayous have very few fish and they cannot be taken out as in the past. The commissioner probably will take the young fish from perch from Spirit lake and other lakes and put them into the Iowa rivers.

Want Rate on Feeders Restored.

The Iowa stock shippers will make another effort to secure a reduction in the rate to Iowa points on cattle "feeders" for Iowa farmers. Some time ago when the railroad commission refused to increase the minimum weight for carload lots of live stock the railroads, so it is claimed, without the special reduction for "cattle feeders" and made all pay alike. The shippers and farmers have decided upon going before the Interstate Commerce commission to have these rates restored and the Iowa Railroad commission has filed the case on behalf of Iowa shippers.

Will Buy Water Works.

First definite steps looking toward the purchase of the water plant by the city from the Des Moines Water company since the authority was granted last spring will be taken next week. The city council, through the legal department, will ask the supreme court to name a board to sit in condemnation proceedings as provided by law. The necessary papers will then be filed. Three district judges outside of Polk county will constitute the arbitration board and their appointment and selection rests with the supreme court.

To Bring Back Convict.

The State Board of Control has directed Warden Barr of the state reformatory at Anamosa to have requisition papers ready to bring Charles B. Smith back from Winnipeg, Canada, if he should by any chance be released from custody up there. Smith is the convict who, aided by his brother, escaped from the reformatory after shooting Guard Hamaker.

Meon Law Case Set for Hearing.

The supreme court has indicated to the attorneys in the various cases involving the validity of the Meon law, limiting the number of saloons in cities, that the court would be ready to hear them next Tuesday morning. Quite a number have asked to be heard in the case, as there are several important points to be considered. The attorneys have been here this week ready to argue the case, but

How Nature Makes New Complexions

(From The Family Physician.) It is well known that the human skin is constantly undergoing a tearing down and building up process. With advanced years or waning vitality this tissue-change takes the form of a soiled surface skin stays on so long that its owner gets a "poor complexion." Common sense tells us this dead skin cannot be rejuvenated or beautified by any cosmetic, lotion or powder. The natural thing to do is to remove the offensive skin—remove the bad complexion. It has been found that ordinary mercurized soap completely absorbs the desiccated skin, in minute particles, so gently, gradually, as to cause no inconvenience. Mercurized soap, which any drugist can supply, is put on at night like cold cream, only not rubbed in, and washed off in the morning. If you would have a brilliantly beautiful complexion, just use this simple treatment.—Adv.

the large number of oral arguments has made it impossible.

Settlement Growing for Wilson.

Quite a number of democratic lawyers of the state attended supreme court sessions here this week, and generally they report that the sentiment is now in favor of the nomination of Woodrow Wilson for president is growing in the state. Some of them insist that if a vote was taken in Iowa today Wilson would lead all others in the race.

Arson Case in Southern Iowa.

The state fire marshal has secured the arrest of three persons accused of having to do with the burning of a large elevator at Moulton some time ago. The elevator was insured for $18,000, and when burned it was supposed to have a large amount of lumber in it, also a vast amount of grain. Investigation convinced the state fire marshal that there was little lumber or grain in the elevator and the former owners have been arrested.

DUMONT COUPLE PLEADS GUILTY TO CHARGE OF ARSON

ALLISON, Ia., Sept. 23.—(Special.)—Mrs. A. F. Pfeiffer of Dumont, indicted for incendiarism, pleaded guilty in the district court Saturday and were sentenced to pay a fine of $500. In addition the husband was sent to jail for six months.

The couple made an unsuccessful attempt to burn a building containing some of their furniture of a small value that they might collect the insurance. Their attempt, which in some phases was cleverly conceived, failed of success because of the enthusiastic promptness of the volunteer fire department of Dumont.

Attaching to chairs and other articles of furniture fruit jars containing oil, each one of which was held in place by a string, the couple joined all the strings and held them taut by a larger string which was soaked in oil. It was set on fire, and while the couple were away from home it was left to burn itself in two, release the string which held the oil jars, which fell, flooding the oil over the floor and causing it to be ignited by a lighted candle which was left at the right spot.

Child Disguising Match Heads.

CHAPLIN, Ia., Sept. 24.—(Special.)—The little 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Jones of this city, while Mrs. Jones was working in the kitchen with the little one playing about, she climbed up on a chair and got hold of some matches that had been dampened and were put aside to dry. Mrs. Jones knew nothing of it at the time, but later discovered that the child had stuck the end of each match in its mouth and had sucked the phosphorus. A physician was summoned at once, but it was too late and the child died in terrible agony.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Sept. 24.—(Special.)—Because, as it avers in motions for change of venue, men eligible for jury service in Lancaster county are prejudiced in several cases involving claims for damages on account of the Salt creek floods of the years 1907 and 1908 the Burlington railroad has taken the first step toward the removal of pending actions to other counties. At a recent meeting Lammer and Koennen were arrested for assault and upon a hearing the defendant was fined $25 and costs. This was followed immediately by another arrest of the same party on a peace warrant, under which he was required to give a $500 bond. The trouble arose from the fact of Koennen's refusing to give any part of the road for the passage of Lammer's automobile. During the quarrel it is alleged a gun was drawn. All the parties are prominent and wealthy citizens and large land owners.

TO PREVENT OVERFLOW OF REPUBLICAN RIVER

BLOOMINGTON, Neb., Sept. 24.—(Special.)—An organized effort is being made to prevent the destruction of crops caused by the overflow of the Republican river at Bloomington. Much rich bottom land is rendered almost worthless because of the constant danger of overflows. L. S. Douglas and W. A. Dunlavy, who have large interests along the river, spent this week in Nebraska county studying the Nemaha river, which has been straightened within the last year from sixty-five miles to thirty-one miles. Last summer the Nemaha took off one of the largest floods in years without overflowing the land and crops were raised this season for the first time in many years. It is believed by many that this report of the work done in Nebraska county will result in an attempt to straighten the river here.

ALL KINDS of GOOD THINGS. When any number of any magazine has so many features of real interest as the October Century, it "strikes thirteen." Among the baker's dozen are these: English libel laws differ from our own only in their enforcement. The much-assailed Mayor of New York discusses this difference with both perception and feeling. The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor is a very great religious body. Francis E. Clarke, its founder, tells wherein this greatness lies. Tuxedo is a development of our social life known only by name to the many. It is here described by one of the few who live there, and illustrated by Vernon Howe Bailey. "The Garden in Town" holds out to city dwellers an alluring prospect of rus in urbe that is as practical as it is alluring, according to Miss Frances Duncan. The sprightly discussion of "The Roman Art Exhibition of 1911" gives a somewhat unexpected impression in its comparison of the various nations on a basis of modern painting. Nothing so good as William Winter's dramatic surveys have been published in a long time. In the October number he treats the various interpretations of "King Henry VIII."

CONFERENCE TO CLOSE TODAY

Bishop Nuelsen Will Read Assignments of Ministers This Morning.

CONFERENCE WELL ATTENDED

Eight Are Ordained as Deacons and Three as Elders—Some Are to Accept Charges in Nebraska.

The north Nebraska conference of the Methodist church, which began its sessions Tuesday of last week, will conclude its business this morning, when devotional exercises will be held at 9:30 o'clock, to be followed by the reading of the appointments and the assignments for the ensuing year.

The entire conference work Sunday was given over to devotional exercises of one kind or another, there being no desire to transact routine business. At 9:30 o'clock in the morning the conference love feast was held, conducted by Rev. William Gorst. An hour later the regular morning services were held, Bishop John L. Nuelsen preaching the sermon.

In the afternoon Methodists from all over the city assembled at Trinity, where at 3 o'clock Bishop Nuelsen ordained Carl B. Bader, Earl E. Bowen, Carl T. Steiner, G. C. Albin, W. N. Wallace, H. G. Parker and Milo W. Rose as deacons and Amos C. Bonham, John H. McDonald and Charles Ford as elders.

None of the young men ordained to the ministry have yet been called upon to fill charges, but some of them are said to have places in prospect, probably in Nebraska. In delivering the sermon or charge to the candidates for pulpits Bishop Nuelsen impressed upon the minds of the young men sitting before him that the life they had chosen would not be found to be an easy one. He told them it would be found full of work and that they must ever be earnestly carrying out the plans of Christ if they expected to succeed.

Better Times After a change in Food

Lack of energy is usually the outward sign of faulty nutrition. Folks who don't feel "spry" because of lack of the right kind of nourishment. FEEL RIGHT When You Feed Right. You know one always feels "very fit" when the head and nerves swing along peacefully and with that certain sense of power that is unmistakable. But when overwork or anxiety breaks down the soft gray matter in the brain and nerve cells (anxiety will do it quicker than overwork) faster than the food you have been using replaces it, then to save yourself from that horror of darkness, nervous prostration, you must change food and take on some sure-rebuilder. That's the mission of Grape-Nuts, made of the selected parts of wheat and barley containing the natural phosphate of Potash which combines with Albumen in the human body and makes the soft gray filling of the brain and nerve centers. Another thing to be considered is that Grape-Nuts is "processed" in making and the starchy parts converted into a form of sugar, exactly as the process of digestion in the body. So Grape-Nuts has really passed the first and of digestion and therefore the food is quickly assimilated in the most perfect manner by babe or athlete.
