HAMILTON MAN TO PRISON
Former County Judge at Aurora Must Serve Two Years.

EMBEZZLEMENT IS THE CHARGE

Congressman Norris at Lincoln Tells How Democrats from Nebraska Cheered When Underwood
Was Roasting Bryan.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 28.—(Special.)— Joseph H. Edmondson, formerly county judge and county attorney of Hamilton, must serve two years in the penitentiary for embezzling funds belonging to the minor children for whom he was acting as guardian. The supreme court has affirmed the judgment of the district court, which found that the defendant had been appointed guardian of the persons and estate of Fred, Grace and Goldie Smith, minor heirs of Fred Smith, deceased, which was valued at $300. Edmondson furnished money only for the children's education until 1909, when the youngest became of age, and all three demanded their balances.

Friends Turn Bryan Down.
Congressman Norris, who was in the city today, asserted in speaking of William J. Bryan, who returned to the city today, that the attack made on the Nebraska by Oscar Underwood before the adjournment of congress made his blood boil, and that before the Alabama had finished he wanted to take the floor in behalf of Mr. Bryan.
In describing the scene which took place at that time Mr. Norris, the fifth district congressman, said: "Underwood was bitter in his denunciation of Bryan on the domestic side while cheering at each thrust at Mr. Bryan interrupted the speaker every minute."
"Why, I saw members from this state, men who owe their political advancement to Bryan, wildly applauding the denunciation of their leader and fellow citizen."

Hartigan on Retired List.
General John C. Hartigan, formerly adjutant general of the Nebraska National Guard, has been placed on the guard retired list at his own request. The order of retirement has been issued by Adjutant General Ernest H. Phelps. General Hartigan enlisted in the Nebraska National Guard in 1897 and has served as captain, major, colonel and adjutant general. The law provides for the voluntary retirement of guardsmen who have served ten years in the organized militia. Formerly the law required fifteen years' service, and any time served in the volunteer service of the United States was to be counted double. The law enabled former adjutant generals who were soldiers of the civil war, including General A. V.
Coles, General J. D. Gage and General J.
H. Culver, to be retired. It was rumored that the law was passed in that form to prevent former General P. H. Barry from being placed on the retired list, but General Barry's civil war record combined with his service in the guard exceeded the fifteen years by one month and he was placed on the retired list.

South Omaha Case Seen.
Attorney Dean Ringer of South Omaha, a former Carhusker football player and state Young Men's Christian association worker, and a man who is furnishing Governor Aldrich with evidence against Police Commissioners Ryan and Pivonia, called at the executive office again today. He brought with him considerable additional evidence in the matter to prove that the liquor laws are being violated under the regime of the two men, who are charged with their enforcement.

Attorney Grant G. Martin, who thought at first that there was little room for a case under the Sackett law, is now quoted as having declared that the state has a good case and that proceedings toward ousting the two men will be started early next week.
The law requires the police commissioners of cities to maintain a proper and efficient police force, a thing which Mr.
Ringer contends is not being done at present. "If the two commissioners take a policeman into a saloon after closing hours as has been done in this case, and treat him, surely they can be said to be the maintainers of a proper force," declared the South Omaha man today.

Daniel Worth Much Alive.
A man who has been rumored dead for years by his Lincoln friends has been found to be still on earth and enjoying good health and prosperity on the deserts of Arizona. Daniel Worth, who was graduated from the State university with the class of 1893, is the man who was supposed to be dead. But he has written to G. W. Kline, secretary of the university alumni association, that he is still on earth.

PERU COMMERCIAL CLUB
GIVES RECEPTION TO PUPILS

PERU, Neb., Sept. 28.—(Special.)—The Peru Commercial club reception in the parlors of the Methodist church Tuesday evening of this week to the faculty of the State Normal school at Peru was a success in every way—in largeness of attendance, in appropriateness of decorations and program and in spirit of fellowship between the school and the business interests of the city. After an hour of handshaking and social intercourse the president of the club, Mr. Bedell, extended the members of the faculty present the greetings of the club. To this President D. W. Hayes gave appropriate response. Colonel Thomas J. Majors spoke on "What We Are Here For," and Prof. E. A. Whittenack on "The Commercial Men of Peru." Mr. R. Wiley spoke on "The Normal School Faculty from a Business Man's Viewpoint," Prof. C. F.
Beek on "The Teacher as a Citizen," Dr. B. Z. Shelhorn on "The State Normal School Board and Peru," J. D. Bishop on "Advertising Peru," and Dr.
J. M. McKenzie, the first president of the school, on "Some Changes in Peru and the Faculty of the School." Refreshments were then served by the committee of women. The committee from the club in charge of the arrangements for the reception consisted of Reg-W. E. Darrow, Rev. A. J. Hollingsworth, C. R. Weldon and B. C. Gifford.

STACUS, Neb., Sept. 28.—(Special.)— David Everett of Unadilla, one of the oldest and best citizens of Oto county, met with a very serious accident yesterday. He was in the Farmers' Lumber company's yard at Unadilla and while standing beside a pile of lumber the pile toppled over on him, crushing him very seriously. He is not expected to live.

Attempt to Blow Open Bank Safe at Wabash

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—Robbers early this morning attempted to enter the Farmers State bank at Wabash, a little Cass county village.
Several dynamite discharges were heard by citizens of the town, but not until about 7 o'clock this morning was Cashier Cremer notified. An investigation disclosed that the combination of the safe had been blown off as well as a large hole in the side of the vault. Whether the robbers obtained anything is not known and until experts can open the vault officially the bank will not be able to tell us the success of the attempt.
A team which had been stolen from South Bend was found during the forenoon in that vicinity, both horses having given indications of being driven until exhausted.
President O. O. Thomas of the bank, who resides in Lincoln, and James Malone, accompanied by three detectives, are making a search with bloodhounds for the robbers.

DR. J. T. HAY OF HOSPITAL FOR THE INSANE IS DEAD

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—Dr. John T. Hay, superintendent of the Hospital for the Insane, died this morning of heart disease, after an illness of only two days. He was confined to his bed at the state institution, of which he had charge Tuesday. Early this morning he began to sink, and death followed two hours later.
At the time of his death his wife and son were at his bedside. Dr. Hay was about 65 years old. He devoted the greater part of his life in Nebraska to the work of caring for the insane.
He first became connected with the state hospital for insane in 1879, and served as assistant for a period of fourteen years. When Aldrich became governor he reappointed Dr. Hay, and he again took charge in February, 1911. In the various instances Dr. Hay practiced medicine in Lincoln, acting as assistant for the County Board of Examiners and specializing in insanity cases.
Governor Aldrich has decided to retain Dr. B. F. Williams at the head of the Lincoln asylum till January 1, 1912. His assurances that he will then appoint Dr.
Dishong of the Norfolk asylum superintendent of the Lincoln institution. Dr.
Dishong is now first physician at Norfolk. He served three years as assistant for Dr. Greene. Dr. Dishong is now preparing suggestions for the care of the insane, embodying new theories of treatment, to be submitted to the governor.
He is said to have effected some remarkable cures at Norfolk.

SCOTT'S BLUFF COUNTY FAIR OPENS WEDNESDAY

GERING, Neb., Sept. 28.—(Special.)— The twenty-first annual county fair for Scott's Bluff county opened yesterday and there is every indication that it will exceed the record of any previous exhibition, although the fair has long been recognized as one of the best in the west end of the state. The race course is affected by seepage, and there is not likely to be much racing, but other amusement features are numerous, the chief attraction being aviation flights by Hillery Beachey, who is associated with his brother Lincoln Beachey in a number of record performances, and who is now on the ground with his biplane. Captain Hardy will shoot, and other amusement will be furnished by wild west and carnival outfits. Bands from Minatare and Scott's Bluff will furnish music.

FOOT BALL STOCK ON RISE

Doane Boys Are Hard at Work and Have a Good Team in the Making.

CRETE, Neb., Sept. 28.—(Special.)—Foot ball stock at Doane has been on the rise.
Tuesday night's practice completed the first week of practice and the outlook for a winning team is much brighter.
Coach Johnson put the boys through a stiff scrimmage Saturday morning and again Monday and the experienced way in which the variety played up the scrub line augurs well for the future.
While no definite line-up has been arranged, a somewhat tentative one can be given. In the back field Gobie, Kret-singer and Korab have been at their old positions, with R. Higby, Moorman and Rice working at the same positions. In the line Adams is holding down the central position, with Blust and Bates at guards, and Barnum trying out for one of the positions. At tackle Captain Bronson and P. King are playing good ball, while Gates, Moorman, Rice and Dickinson all are on the varsity squad trying for end. Wilkinson is at his old position of quarter, with Krebs as "sub."
The first game of the season will be Friday of next week when Doane plays Cotner at Crete.

Many Claimants for Land.

Telegram.)—C. L. Bates, the man who holds for-sizable possession of about forty acres of rich bottom land, and who defended his claim tooth and claw Monday morning when McCreeary tried to pull the posts Bates had set, has since erected a house on his claim. Monday night he protected his interests with a shotgun, but no bloodshed resulted.
Since the trouble began, other claimants have come forward. The Burlington lawyers here are preparing to bring outer and suit for trespass against Bates, claiming the land as accretions to the company's right of way. The city of Plattsmouth, it is rumored will assert its right to the land in dispute, claiming under a patent to the mayor of Plattsmouth, which the city authorities say included all of the land not patented to other parties.

Folk Fair Is Over.

OSCEOLA, Neb., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The Polk County fair closed here today. It has been by far the best fair and the largest attended of any ever held in the live stock exhibits and those of agricultural hall. The races were well filled and participated in by many horses from central Nebraska.
Silver Creek and Stromsburg played a game of ball today, Stromsburg winning by a score of 4 to 2.

Man Hangs Himself
in Battle Creek Jail

BATTLE CREEK, Neb., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—Henry Stammerjohann, a carpenter living some seven miles north, was brought to town by his people yesterday in a state of stupid intoxication. He was placed in the hands of the city marshal for safe keeping. It was expected to send the man to Lincoln for treatment in the asylum, but when the marshal went to the jail this morning his prisoner was dead, having hanged himself during the night, constructing a noose with his suspenders and leather watch chain which he wore. No cause is known for the act. There will be no inquest.

TWO ALLEGED FORGERS
ARRESTED AT JANSEN

FAIRBURY, Neb., Sept. 28.—(Special.)— J. L. Upton and M. S. Torison are charged with stealing a book of United States Express money orders from the Rock Island agent at Jansen, six miles northeast of Fairbury. They filled one of them out for $42.50, brought it to Fair-bury and cashed it at the First National bank. Upton tried unsuccessfully to cash it with the agent at Jansen. The men then came to Fairbury, tried the Harbrite and Goodrich Bros. banks, but they refused to cash the check and advised the fellows to take it to the United States Express agent in this city. Instead of doing this it was taken to the First National bank and the money secured. After receiving the cash Upton and Torison returned to Jansen and proceeded to have a time, and the Rock Island agent, realizing that something might be wrong, notified Sheriff Chirside at Fairbury, and he made a trip to Jansen and arrested them. They pleaded not guilty in county court and were bound over to the October term of district court.
