

COUNTRY CLUB WINTER CLUB

Plans Are Now Under Way to Install a Heating Plant.

IT IS TO BE DECIDED SOON

Half of the Big Club Building is to be heated and used for winter parties by the members.

Plans are under way to make the Omaha Country Club a winter club as well as a summer club. The proposition was considered today by the board of directors at a meeting at the Omaha club and the members were a unit in saying it would be a good thing, provided the cost of installing a heating plant does not prove too high.

J. B. Baum and A. V. Kinsler were appointed a committee to investigate the cost of installing and maintaining a heating plant, to report at a meeting of the board to be held next Monday noon at the Omaha club.

It is the plan to heat something over half the club house including dining rooms and parlors and a space which can be devoted to lockers for those who play golf in winter. The idea arose from the fact that many of the members of the club said they would like to give more parties in the winter, if the club house were only available for them. If the proposition is adopted the heating plant will be installed the first week in November.

In case the contemplated improvements are decided upon, the summer season at the club will close the last Saturday in October. If they are not decided upon, the season will close the previous Saturday, as the service of the present employees, whose contracts expire November 1, will be needed for a week or so in putting things away for the winter. Frank Colpeter, president of the Country club, has been working out the idea.

Asphyxiated Man Exile from Home

Bitterness between J. H. Peterson, the Wyoming ranchman who died by asphyxiation in the Murray hotel Tuesday night, and other members of his family moved the Dane to forsake his native land and come to the United States thirty-seven years ago.

Peterson believed a brother and a sister had defrauded him out of a large amount of his father's estate and had come to the new country to repair his broken fortunes. He accumulated $200,000 worth of property in Wyoming.

Mrs. Karen Lausen and her daughter, Miss Karen Lausen, sister and niece of the ranchman, will leave Friday morning for Hawaii, Wyo., to bury Mr. Peterson and to take charge of the property. They will be accompanied by Sophia Nelson, Jr., who will seek appointment for Mrs. Lausen as administratrix and appointment for himself as foreign administrator.

The Peterson ranch is one of 15,000 acres, twenty-four miles from Rawlins. Peterson named it "Separation ranch," the name being a reference to his troubles in Denmark and his separation from his family.

"Peterson has a brother and a sister in Denmark," said Attorney Nelson. "When they were separated from him when he had not been seen since he left Denmark, thirty-seven years ago. He had not heard from them for twenty years. His sister and niece, with whom he was on friendly terms, came to live with him two years ago."

"Peterson hardly ever left the ranch. He was entirely unused to city ways and modern improvements, such as gas and electric lights. That is the explanation of his death. Mrs. Lausen told him how to turn off the gas, but it is supposed he failed to follow her directions."

"The evening of the night Mr. Peterson died he and his sister and his niece went to a moving picture show, the first he had ever seen."

"While there Mrs. Lausen lost her purse, containing about $80. That was about all the cash they had with them."

"Coroner Crosby advanced them money for tickets to Rawlins and $20 for additional expenses and advanced money for all other expenses."

"Peterson and his relatives were going to Denmark for a couple of months' visit. The ranch had been left in charge of Herbert Peterson, the foreman. There are about twenty cattle and 60 head of horses on the place now. A quarter million dollars is a conservative estimate of the value of the property."

DUNKARDS TAKE OVER SEWARD STREET CHURCH

The Seward Street Methodist church, Twenty-second and Seward streets, organized in 1886 and for many years the most flourishing of the Methodist churches of the city, has been abandoned by that denomination and has been rented to the Dunkards, of whom there are about 125 members in Omaha and South Omaha.

The Seward street Methodists held their last services in their own house of worship last Sunday, after which an organization they decided to disintegrate. The members of the church will be divided equally between the Walnut Hill Methodist church and Trinity Methodist in Kountze place.

The reason of the abandonment of the Seward Street church by the Methodists is in a measure due to the fact that the business along Lake, Twentieth and Twenty-fourth streets in the last few years has so encroached upon the residential sections in that vicinity, where a greater portion of the members resided, that they have moved to other portions of the city and generally too far away to make it convenient to attend the church to which they had formerly belonged.

PARK BOARD TO BUY NEW DREDGE FOR CARTER LAKE

The Park commissioners are considering the advisability of purchasing a dipper dredge for use in excavating from the bottom of Carter lake. They figure that the cost of such a machine will be in the neighborhood of $2,000 and will likely invite bids in the near future.

Should a dipper dredge be built, or purchased, it will be one of the kind that will dig out the bottom of the lake, hoist it to a scow, which will be towed to the shore and there unloaded, the sand and silt being transferred to the low spots along the shore of the lake and beyond the high water line.

The commissioners contend that the suction dredge has been doing satisfactory work, but that now to secure the necessary depth and an even bottom in the lake it is necessary to secure some other kind of a machine.

DR. LYNCH TO GO TO ELGIN

Local Methodists Call Dr. Williams of That Place to Come Here.

NEGOTIATIONS NOW UNDER WAY

Elgin Minister Comes to This City at Request of Bishop and Holds Conference with Representatives of First Church.

Rev. M. B. Williams, D. D., will be transferred from the Rock River conference of the Methodist Episcopal church to succeed Rev. Frank N. Lynch, D. D., pastor of the first church of Omaha, and the local minister will take the pastorate vacated by Dr. Williams at Elgin.

At the request of Bishop J. L. Nissen, Dr. Williams came to Omaha today and met a body of first church members at a luncheon held at the Rome hotel. All of those present declare that the visitor made a very favorable impression. The luncheon was rather of an informal nature, yet it gave the visiting minister an opportunity to express his views of organization and administration of the affairs of a church like the First Methodist. Practically all of Dr. Williams' experience in the ministry has been in what are known as "down-town" churches, in and around Chicago, and the local members believe he is the best available man for the first church, which is in a "down-town" district. Dr. Williams expressed himself as being pleased with Omaha as far as his observations have gone.

Dr. Lynch likewise says he is pleased to be transferred to Elgin, as the Rock River conference, which is one of the most important in the Methodist church, offering a wide field and great opportunities.

Wiese Falls Down a Flight of Stairs

Gus A. Wiese, secretary of the I. A. Root company, is now able to be at his post a short time each day, after having been considerably used up in a tumble down a flight of stairs Sunday morning. Mr. Wiese heard a noise downstairs during the darkest hour of the early morning and he arose to investigate. Fearing that the sleeping children would be awakened should he turn on the lights he concluded to grope his way to the seat of disturbance below. He missed the top step and landed in a heap at the bottom with various bruises and a broken rib.

LIEUTENANT HASKELL STILL HAS THE FAREWELL GIFT

High school students last spring presented Lieutenant Haskell, commandant of cadets, with a watch, when he thought he was to be sent to the Philippines. Army plans were changed, however, and Lieutenant Haskell is back at the High school as commandant, sporting the "farewell" gift.

Rules of the Contest

All persons are eligible to enter the contest except employees of the Omaha Bee and members of their families. Each day, for consecutive days, there will be published in The Bee a picture which will represent the name of a book. Research each picture there will be a blank for the contestant to fill in the title of the book. Cut out both the picture and the blank and fill in the name and author of the book and send your name and address neatly and plainly in the space provided. No restrictions will be placed on the way in which answers to the pictures may be secured. Each picture represents only one title of one book. If you are not sure of a title and wish to send in more than one answer to each picture, you may do so. BUT NOT MORE THAN FIVE ANSWERS TO ANY ONE PICTURE WILL BE PERMITTED. Incorrect answers will not be counted against contestants. If correct answer is also given, more than one answer should not be put on the same coupon. Extra coupons should be used for more answers. All answers to the same picture should be sent together, according to the list. Only one list of answers may be submitted by a contestant, though any list may have five answers to each picture.

The number of correct answers given must be plainly written on the outside of each list submitted, but do not write such information on the wrapper. While not absolutely necessary, it is desirable that the pictures should in each case be sent in with the answers, in order that all answers be uniform. Additional pictures and answers may be sent to the office of The Bee by mail or by hand. When you have all seventy-five pictures, fasten them together in a PLAT package and bring or mail them to The Omaha Bee, addressed to Booklovers' Contest Editor. Prizes will be awarded to the contestants sending in the largest number of correct solutions. In event of two or more persons having the same number of correct solutions, the person using the smaller number of pictures to his set of answers will be declared the winner. In event of two persons having the same number correct and using the same number of pictures, the person whose set of answers was most neatly prepared, in the opinion of the judging committee, will receive the first prize.

Only one list of answers may be submitted by a contestant and only one prize will be awarded to one family at one address. The use of the coupon is not obligatory upon the contestant, and an answer may be submitted by any legitimate means the contestant may select. Awards will be made strictly according to the merit of each separate list. The same of more than one person must not be written upon any one coupon. The awards will be made by the Contest Editor and a committee of well-known citizens whose names will be announced later.
