

RECORD MONTH IN LIVE STOCK

Total Receipts Beat September of Last Year by 1,365 Head.

SHEEP CLOSE TO HIGHEST MARK

Omaha Last Year Sold More Lambs and Sheep Than Any Other Two Markets Together, Including Chicago.

The South Omaha live stock market broke all records for the month of September at the close of business September 29, 1911. It was as compared to September, 1910, the previous record September, with 613,723, an increase of 1,365 head.

October, 1910, was the heaviest month in the matter of sheep receipts in the history of the market, with a total of 847,332 head. The entire range country forcing to market many sheep which were really unfit to market. This year the marketing is normal, the increase being due to the large crop of lambs last spring as a result of favorable conditions prevailing at that time.

In comparing with last year one compares with the heaviest year sheep that the market ever had, when receipts totaled 817,586 head over any previous record year, which was a greater gain than any other market has ever shown. The marketing of range sheep last year was abnormal owing to the drought prevailing over the entire range country forcing to market many sheep which were really unfit to market. This year the marketing is normal, the increase being due to the large crop of lambs last spring as a result of favorable conditions prevailing at that time.

South Omaha Record Climbs. Though many of the other markets are showing increases in receipts of range sheep this year over last, when comparing to last year they are for the most part comparing to a year when they showed decreases from the previous year, whereas in the case of Omaha comparisons are made this year with 1910, which broke all previous records by more than 80,000 head, which practically equalled the combined gains of the six other large markets of the country, namely Chicago, Kansas City, St. Joseph, St. Louis, Denver and Sioux City.

The prospects are that Omaha will about break even for the month of October and may close the year about even with 1910, which will be a creditable showing for the Omaha market. Now is the time of year when the farmers and prospective feeders in the corn belt are coming to South Omaha for their supplies and those contemplating sheep feeding this year will find it to their advantage to get their supplies during October, for with the close of that month range runs will let up and prices will go higher, as there are always a few people who put off until the last day.

Omaha last year sold to countrymen more than 1,700,000 head of sheep and lambs, which was as many as any other two markets sold, including even Chicago.

Dog Comes Long Way to Find His Master

An English bull terrier belonging to W. J. Scriven of Clearfield, S. D., began to mourn when his master left home eleven days ago and a few days later started out to hunt for him. Thursday afternoon, Mr. Scriven was coming out of the postoffice building in Omaha, when the terrier jumped into his arms, barking joyously.

The dog had been to Omaha once before with his master, and as Mr. Scriven thinks followed the same route when he started on his journey this week. Clearfield is 338 miles from Omaha, and the dog's intelligence in knowing the route is regarded as remarkable.

Scriven had a letter from his brother two or three days ago, saying the dog had disappeared, but he was much surprised to find him in Omaha.

Cupid Works Change in Regimental Staff

In the official roster of the Nebraska National Guard, the name of Captain Frank A. He is now the husband of a former Ashland girl, Miss Luella Lansing. They were married at Ashland September 27.

LOOKS AFTER OFFICERS' MESS

BISHOP FAVORS CAMP LIFE
Says it is One of the Best Known Methods of Training a Young Man—Plans Big Camp for Next Year.

Bishop George A. Beecher of the missionary district of Kearney says camp John H. Mickey is the most orderly camp of national guardsmen he ever attended, and he has been at practice maneuver camps in Nebraska ever since he entered upon the work he is now carrying on. While carefully superintending the officers' mess, where fifty men are fed, the bishop recalled some of his earlier experiences in camp: "The first time I went 'camping' was with the boys of the North Platte club seventeen years ago, and I've been going with them ever since, except this year. When I came to Omaha I went out with the Omaha boys.

Camp for All His Boys.

"Next summer I expect to take all the boys in my district, north and south, on a camping trip to western Nebraska. There is excellent trout fishing at the place I have in mind, plenty of good, clear water, lots of woods and scenery that is unsurpassed. "I was chaplain of Company G in Omaha six years ago," continued the bishop, "and I served as mess officer, had charge of the post exchange and did whatever the colonel of the regiment had for me to do. General Phelps appointed me regimental chaplain in February and I have come here this summer because it is in the interest of my work. "We are now serving fifty men here, and although we have had considerable inconveniences, we will be prepared to welcome some of our friends to Camp John Mickey before the maneuvers are over.

Hears Little Profanity.
"My object in coming to this encampment is to be of whatever assistance I can to the young men and the boys of our state. There is one thing that is absolutely certain you can say of Camp Mickey, I have heard less profanity in this camp than in any camp of guardsmen I ever attended. I think the citizens of the various towns where companies of guardsmen are organized ought to take an active personal interest and pride in the personnel and feel that the representatives they send to these camps are worthy their pride. A great deal depends on the interest the public takes in the national guardsmen.

"These young men have come here to study the science of war and the ethics of drill. Any town can have the best boys in the town in their companies if they will support them with their sympathy and interest. If they don't it won't be the best element in the town that joins the guard. Personally, I think the guard is a good thing for the boys, because it helps to develop them physically as well as mentally and morally, if they have the capacity to respond to the opportunities. I have observed that it is the effort of those in authority to elevate the standard of the young men as far as possible. "Would Not Get Well in War. "There is no state organization that brings together from every section of the state so many young fellows as the National guard. At camp they receive instructions from regular army officers in target practice and camp discipline and drill, and these instructions are very efficient, many of the detailed methods employed by the regular army being used. I have no doubt that in case of war the guardsmen would acquit themselves with credit to their state and their town. "Guard" stands for honor and for manhood and patriotism, and these guardsmen would without question acquit themselves in war in a manner that would elicit the highest emulation and regard.

Marital Hostilities Halted by Crawford

Judge Bryce Crawford had adopted a novel form of judicial procedure to halt hostilities between Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Rutherford. He has ordered that the husband, who has threatened to kill Mrs. Rutherford, be confined in jail for fifteen days, to give the wife an opportunity of filing suit for divorce and securing an injunction against further annoyance. The Rutherfords have been separated for some time, and the husband has been rather vicious in his demands that she return to him.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 29.—A Teheran dispatch says that according to government advices a great battle was fought yesterday at Nobaran, fifty miles from Teheran. TAFT VISITING DES MOINES was glad to be in Des Moines and "glad to find everything so peaceful." "There is a general impression outside of Iowa that you are in a constant state of ebullition," the president continued. "I am glad to know that is not true and to find gathered about this board all those elements which, when mixed, are supposed to produce a dangerous effervescence." Senator Cummins, one of the insurgent leaders in congress, joined heartily in the laughter. The president spoke of the importance of Iowa as one of the food producing states of the union. He declared that the dire prophecies of James J. Hill and Harry Wallace as to the exhaustion of the soil made me hasten to the breakfast table each morning in the hope of at least getting one more meal. Mr. Taft said he did not agree with these prophecies, but conservation of the soil undoubtedly was one of the pressing problems now before the people. The president spoke in more or less of a humorous vein about his trip and the "double-headed editorial" that have been printed about it and was constantly interrupted by applause and laughter.

A CERTAIN CURE FOR CATARRH

The mucous membranes of the nose and throat are exposed to the irritating influence of dust, impure air, etc., and for this reason are the places Catarrh usually first manifests itself. But these are simply exciting causes, the inflammation and discharge being really produced by an impure and irritated condition of the blood. It is well enough to use some local treatment to cleanse these membranes, but any one can readily see that if the inflammatory matter is left in the blood, such treatment cannot possibly have any permanent effect. S. S. S. cures Catarrh by cleansing the blood of all impure catarrhal matter and irritating germs and at the same time builds up the system by its fine tonic effects. When S. S. S. has purified the blood, the mucous surfaces are all nourished and made healthy. There can be no inflammation of the membranes then, because the blood is pure, and every tissue receives nourishment instead of irritating matter. Our book on Catarrh will interest every sufferer of this disease, and it will likewise give proper advice as to what is best to use as a local aid while S. S. S. is purifying the blood. This book is free to all, and we will also be glad to give any special advice you may feel you need. S. S. S. is sold at drug stores.

Suffered With Diarrhoea

For two days I suffered terrible agony with Diarrhoea and Gripping pains, when a friend recommended Wakefield's Blackberry Balsam to me and I sent out and got a bottle. The effect it had on me was wonderful. It quickly relieved the pain, quieted me and I went to sleep after commencing the Balsam. When I woke up it was cured and have not had an attack of the trouble since. I have been subject to bowel trouble and have tried a good many other remedies with no satisfaction, but this one is just what I needed and I take pleasure in writing you this letter telling of my experience with it. Very truly yours, S. STACE, 88th and Buffalo Ave., Chicago.

Gray Hair Makes You Look Old

How often one hears the expression, "She is gray and beginning to look old." It is true that gray hair usually denotes age and is always associated with age. You never hear one referred to as having gray hair and looking young. The hair is generally the index of age. If your hair is gray, you can't blame your friends for referring to you as looking old. You can't retain a youthful appearance if you allow your hair to grow gray. Many persons of middle age jeopardize their future simply by allowing the gray hair to become manifest. If your hair has become faded or gray, try Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation which has a chemical basis. It is simple, inexpensive and practical, and will banish the gray hairs in a few days. It is also guaranteed to remove dandruff and promote the growth of hair. It is a pleasant dressing for the hair, and after using it a few days itching and dryness of the scalp entirely disappears. Don't neglect your hair. Start using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur today, and you will be surprised at the quick results. This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.
