CASH PREMIUMS FOR SHEEP

Big Awards Will Be Made to Winners at Show in December.

MANY VISITORS ARE COMING

Stockmen and Farmers Will Be Here in Large Numbers to See the Fine Specimens on Exhibition.

Between $3,000 and $5,000 in cash premiums will be offered in the national sheep show in Omaha in December and between 1,500 and 2,000 sheep and goats, also wool in all stages between the sheep's back and a pair of trousers, will be on exhibition. The show will be held in the Auditorium.

It will be in connection with the convention here of the National Wool Growers' association, which is expected to bring 1,500 delegates. These, with the stockmen and farmers who will come from nearby territory, will make perhaps 2,500 visitors at the show from outside the city.

Sheep will be here, not only from the west, but from many eastern states. Ohio the third state in the union in sheep growing, will have many entries. Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin and Illinois will send large delegations to the growers' convention.

Chairman H. H. Brandeis of the general committee to arrange for the show has named these subcommittees:

Finance—A. C. Smith, H. H. Brandeis, W. H. Huchols, David Cole, T. B. McPherson. This committee will raise $5,000 in subscriptions.

Arrangements—E. Buckingham, A. C. Smith, David Cole, J. M. Gillan, C. H. King. This committee will have charge of the pens, decorations and music.

Exhibitors—W. H. Huchols, G. W. Harvey, J. L. Faxton, J. A. Schoemaker, A. F. Stricker. This committee will look after premiums, judges, programs and advertising.

Show—T. B. McPherson is chairman, the other members to be named. The committee will have charge of admissions, sale of advertising space and concessions.

Visitors at the show will be entertained at the South Omaha stock yards, a South Omaha committee having been named to co-operate with the Omaha committee in caring for them.

Militiamen Make Short Work of Load of Luscious Pies

A vendor of luscious pies entered Camp John H. Mickey and began to cry his wares. Lean and hungry guardsmen, who for two days had existed on pork and beans and black coffee, gathered about his wagon and looked hopefully at the rich food, and would have looked hopefully on had not one of the militiamen spread the report that pie sellers were forbidden to enter the camp, as pies were sold cheaply at the canteen. When this information communicated itself through the camp, the guardsmen were munching pies.
