DUNDEE VILLAGERS FOILED

Dr. Elmer R. Porter Wins Another Skirmish in Store Case.

FAIL TO GET A JUSTICE COURT

Ask County Commissioners to Appoint R. M. Crossman Justice of the Peace, but Board Puts Matter Over.

Attempt of the trustees of the village of Dundee to thwart Dr. Elmer R. Porter's plans for a grocery store in the residence district by enlisting the ald of the county commissioners resulted in failure Saturday. The trustees asked the board to appoint Attorney R. M. Crassman of Dundee, justice of the peace in the district, but the boar deferred action and probably will refuse the request.

Name and Address.

A few weeks ago the village board, led by H. P. Leavitt, its attorney, caused the arrest of John E. Sager and others, who were drilling a well on the Porter property. The complaint against them was filed in county court under an ordinance prohibiting the bringing of well boring apparatus inside the village limits.

The case still is pending in county court, but Porter, through his attorney J. C. Kinsler, has questioned Judge Leslie's jurisdiction, maintaining that only the justice of the peace in Dundee precinct has jurisdiction in enforcing village ordinances.

Leavitt and J. E. George slipped into the commissioners' meeting Saturday, hurriedly drew a petition for Crossman' appointment to the office that has been vacant for years, signed and filed it. Commissioner Pickard's aid and that of Chairman Bedford were secured. Pick ard moved to grant the request. George spoke in favor of it and Commissioner

· Bedford tried to put the question at once Commissioners Lynch, O'Connor and Elsasser demanded the matter be laid over and the chairman had to grant the demand. Kinsler had heard of the move planned by the trustees and had warned the brae commissioners and secured their omise not to take hasty action

The Knights of Columbus are to give Cardinal Gibbons a gciden rosary on his jubiles next menth, and the chain has a rather romantic history. The rosary is composed of fifty golden nuggets and is valued at $1,000. Some years ago a nun in Newfoundland wished to establish a home for girls, and in order to do so asked each visitor to ner convent to give if for a brick to go in the new building. While this plan was being carried out a Newfoundland youth struck it rich in the Klondike and returned nomb to marry a girl who was much interested in the projected home. On their wedding day he gave the nun fifty auggets for the work, and these were later made into a rosary. The nun valued it at $100 and offered to sell it to one of the officials of the Catholic society so that the money could go to the business fund. He took it, suggested it be given to the cardinal on his jubilee and the nun was sent $1,000 in return for the present. Not only the rosary and its romanic story, but the benefit it has wrought, should appeal strongly to the recipient.

Face Paint Tabooed; Remove Skin Instead

"A few years ago only one class of women painted their faces," says Dolly Madison in Chicago News. "It was a sign of social ostracism and was tabooed in refined circles. The custom has become so universal we must admit it is to be deplored and to be shelved as soon as possible."

How foolish to seek artificial beauty" of this sort, obnoxious from artistic and moral standpoints, when it plexion by the use of ordinary mercolany drug store, is so effective, non-injurious and nexpensive, no one need think of using anything else for the purpose. Applied like cold cream at night, and washed off in the morning, it at once begins to show its remarkable rejuvenating effects. It gently absorbs the lifeless surface skin in tiny particles, showing the fresher, livelier, beautiful underskin. Naturally it takes with it all surface defects.-Adv.
