November she will visit Chicago, where she is to take part in another wedding. Miss Mabel Balcomb has given up her apartments at the Colonial and will leave this autumn to spend several months in New York.

Miss Miriam Patterson expects to leave this fall for New York to continue her musical studies.

Miss Esther Byrne goes to Washington, D. C. to be present at the wedding of her brother, Mr. Joseph Byrne, and Miss Lucy Jones, October 17.

Wedding Bells

The engagement is announced of Miss Thekla Buell, granddaughter of Mrs. William Karbach to Mr. Thomas F. Naughtin. The wedding will take place in October.

Miss Tess Davidson of Sioux City, who has many friends in Omaha, was married Saturday at the home of her father, Mr. Ben Davidson, to Count Oscaldo de Zuilani of Venice by Mayor Smith. The count's brother, Signor Guiseppe de Zuilani, was the best man. The couple leave today for Venice.

At St. Stephen's church, Ashland, on Wednesday, at high noon, was celebrated the marriage of Miss Luella Lansing, youngest daughter of Mrs. Ada Lansing, to Mr. Frank A. Anderson of Holdrege, Neb. The Rev. John D. Rice, rector of the church, officiated. Mr. Harvey Rathbone and Mr. A. E. Burr of Lincoln were the ushers. Miss Duty von Mansfeld was as the organ and the church choir, of which Miss Lansing was a member, sang "O, Perfect Love." The bride, accompanied by her brother-in-law, Mr. Ernest Wiggenshorn, entered to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march.

The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Anderson and Mr. Charles Anderson of Holdrege, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Raymond, Miss Eleanor Raymond, Mrs. F. A. Liveringhouse, Mr. Philip Harrison, Mr. Alfred Burr and Mr. Harvey Rathbone of Lincoln, Miss Dora Fricke of Plattsmouth, Dr. Albert A. Fricke of South Omaha, Mrs. Russell Hart, and Miss Beas Dumont of Omaha.

Miss Anderson has made Ashland her home for the past seven years. She has been instructed in physical training in Brownell Hall for two years. She attended the University of Nebraska, where she was a member of Delta Gamma sorority.

Mr. Anderson is county attorney of Phelps county. He graduated from the University of Nebraska and the University law school. He is a member of Delta Upsilon and Phi Delta Phi fraternities. They will be at home after November 15 at Holdrege, Neb.

As the night of the coronation ceremony and ball approach, the air is filled with guesses. Everyone is mystified; while Samson, that Wilcox wizard who plans the surprise, is going about chuckling to himself.

Last week the finger of suspicion pointed at two of the season's debutantes. Both of these young women are on the list of the princesses of the court. Both are attractive brunettes. The one is the daughter of a prominent wholesale merchant; the other, the daughter of a well-known banker.

But now suspicion is shifting and centering upon another daughter of Omaha—a petite brunette of the dainty type, who made her debut two years ago. This popular young woman is the daughter of a wealthy Omaha banker. Strangely enough, her name does not appear upon the list of princesses. If Samson has selected this young woman to wear the royal crown, he will be digressing from the custom of former years which has been to chose a young woman who is both a debutante and one of the princesses of the court.

It is rumored too, that the custom of choosing the king from among the board of governors will not be followed this year as in former years.

One of the innovations in connection with the ball itself will be that of giving the past queens of the kingdom of Quivers, special boxes near the throne at the Den.

All other social affairs of the week are supplementary to the Ak-Sar-Ben festivities. Most of the entertaining is for the women who have come from out-of-town for Ak-Sar-Ben.

Society Travels Eastward.

Many travelers of Omaha who have postponed eastern trips until after Ak-Sar-Ben, will start soon after the festivities for New York and other eastern cities.

Mrs. Mildred Rogers plans to accompany her grandmother, Mrs. Deering, of Portland, Me., as far as Chicago, where she will be the guest of Miss Helen Forbes.

Mrs. Jerome Magee leaves Saturday for New York, and will visit Mrs. E. Dimon Bird at her summer home in Greenwich, after which Mrs. Magee will meet her mother, Mrs. Herman Kountze, and they will return to Omaha.

Miss Nannie Page expects to go to New York the latter part of November and be present at the debut of a school friend. She will probably remain east for three or four weeks.

Mrs. W. A. Paxton, Jr. has not definitely decided, but will probably spend considerable time in New York, where she plans to take apartments for the winter.

Miss Louise Dinning leaves next Sunday or Monday for New York, where she is to be one of the bridal attendants in a nuptial wedding, and on her way home in

At the Field Club

Mrs. Victor Rosewater and Mrs. C. C. Rosewater entertained at auction bridge this afternoon at the Field club in honor of Mrs. Alleyne D. Peters of Des Moines, guests of Mrs. C. C. Rosewater, and for Mrs. A. F. Weiss of St. Louis, guest of Mrs. A. F. Smith. Five tables of players were present.

The Field club closed its season Saturday evening with a dinner and dance second only in attendance to the opening, over 500 members and guests being present. One of the larger dinners was that given by Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Foster, for which twenty covers were placed, the table being decorated with Ak-Sar-Ben colors.

Mrs. Charles Marsh entertained at dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Alleyne D. Peters of Des Moines. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Peters, Mr. and Mrs. C.

Pleasures Past

Miss Gertrude Branch was hostess Saturday at the meeting of the Pi Beta Phi sorority.

Miss Marie Woodard entertained at a matinee party Saturday afternoon at the Brandeis, when "Seven Days" was the attraction. The guests of honor were Miss Murray, Miss Sullivan and Miss Yund, guests of Misses Irene and Beatrice Coad. Twelve guests were present.

Columbian Circle club of Sacred Heart Parish entertained at cards Friday, at its hall. Prizes were awarded to Mesdames: M. Y. Franklyn, J. J. Ekins, J. Hogan, F. Foster, George Loline, W. S. Murphy, W. J. Cusick, J. Jensen, M. Nodel, and J. Matherly. The next meeting will be October 15.

Miss Edith Norris gave a kitchen shower Thursday for Miss Alice Pritchard. In the center of the tea table stood a miniature tin bride. The rooms were brightened with Shasta daisies and bows of white tulle. The guests were:

Misses—Alice Gates, Millie Kessler, Irene Kessler, Nellie Pritchard, Grace Thompson, Henrietta Benedict, Frances Thompson, Ethel Fullaway.

The O. C. C. club was entertained by Mrs. G. D. Trout Friday afternoon at her home. Ak-Sar-Ben colors were used in decoration, and those present were: Mesdames: C. H. Walrath, Davis, J. F. Zippel, H. S. Weller, F. S. Porter.

La-Fayette Silverware

No more durable and beautiful silverware has been fashioned than that bearing the name of LaFayette. This silverware has been patterned so as to meet the demand for perfect tableware that shall harmonize with the prevailing classical styles of interior decoration. The pleasing simplicity of its form and its ornamental features reflect a refinement that is a grace to the dining table of the best home. It is the kind of ware that will become a permanent member of the household. For the value given in LaFayette patterns, the price asked is most modest.

Terse Tailor Talk-- La-Book

Far Rather a "Ready Made" garment than a Lady's Suit Poorly Tailored!

There are Ladies' Tailors and Ladies' Tailors! There are "workmen" who command $10 per week; there are "artists" who command $75; with a vast sprinkling between possessed of more or less ability. I have discharged "tailor" after "tailor" for inefficiency; there is a certain standard that MUST be upheld, else the work ISN'T genuine "Ladies' Tailoring."

Even GOOD tailoring is sometimes turned out WITHOUT that "style" you crave; sometimes a dressmaker will essay "tailored" work by employing a "tailor" or two; in most of these cases the touches that proclaim the deft, stylish eye of the REAL ladies' tailor, are LACKING; in events of this sort it would have been FAR better to have bought a garment "Ready Made."

Now that I've told you the weak points of ladies' tailoring, will you not let me point out the GOOD ones also? Will you not let me show you finished specimens of MY work; will you not SEE the product that has made my name synonymous with all that is good and stylish in the way of ladies' tailoring? See the GENUINE tailoring and say: "La-Book is RIGHT!"
