THE U. S. NAVY IS TODAY COMposed of the finest body of picked men in the world. It has no place for the never-do-well or the fallure.

More than 1,000 men apply for positions in the Navy each week. Only 20 per cent of these pass the examination, and are accepted. This shows that the Navy picks its men with discreve care and pulps. tis men with rigorous care and pains.

The Navy does not urge any man to enlist. But it does urge both parents and sons to investigate the opportunities the Navy offers young men (17 to 35), either as a four years' training or as a life's work.
