What Book Does This Picture Represent?

Street and Number

Write in title and author of book and SAVE coupon and picture. Send no coupon until finish of the contest is announced. Each picture represents a book title—not a scene or character. Catalogues containing $,000 names on which all puzzle pictures are based—the catalogue used by the contest editor—are for sale at the Physiness Office at The Bee for 26 cents; by mail, 30 certs.

Rules of the Contest

Rules of the Contest

All persons are eligible to enter this contest except employes of the Omaha Bee and members of their families. Each day, for seventy-five days, there will be published in The Bee a picture which will represent the name of a book. Boneath each picture there will be a blank for the contestant to full in the title of the book.

Cut out both the picture and the blank and fill in the name and author of the book and add your name and address nearly and plainly in the space provided.

No restrictions will be piaced on the way in which answers to the pictures may be secured. Each picture represents only one title of one book. If you are not sure of a title and wish to send in more than one answer to each picture, you may do so. BUT NOT MORE THAN 'I'VE ANEWERS TO ANY ONE PICTURE WILL BE PERMITTED. Incorrect answers will not be counted against consestants if correct answer is also given. More than one answer should not be put on the asine coupon. Extra coupons should be used for extra answers. All answers to the same number should be kept together when needing in the set. Only one list may be submitted by one contestant, though any list may have five answers to each pixile.

The number of coupons used—answers given—must be plainly written on the outside of each BET submitted, but do not write such information on the wrapper.

While not absolutely necessary, it is desirable that the pictures should in each case be sent in with the answers, in order that all answers be uniform. Additional pictures and coupons may be obtained at the office of The Bee by mail or in person.

When you have all seventy-five pictures, fasten them together in a FLAT package and bring or mail them to The Omaha Bee, addressed to Booklovery Contest Editor. Prises will be awarded to the contestants sending in the largest number of correct colutions, the person using the swarles number of extra coupons in his set of answers will be declared winner.
