

MERRY MONARCH CROWNED

Joseph Barker is King, with Miss Elizabeth Davis Queen.

THROUGH ATTENDS BIG BALL

Crowning Event of Ak-Sar-Ben Fall Festival is Witnessed by the Pick of the King's Subjects Friday Night.

(Continued from Eighth Page.)

ing gown of white satin veiled in pearl trimmed net.

Mrs. W. O. Paisley—Black and white messaline; black velvet bands; bebe Irish lace.

Miss Antoinette Parkinson—Evening gown of pink chiffon marquisette over cashmere de lux, with crystal fringe trimming.

Miss Edith Patrick—Light blue marquisette over blue satin.

Mrs. George Prouditt of Lincoln—White satin evening gown, elaborately embroidered with pearls and crystals.

Miss Miriam Patterson—Evening gown of blue satin with crystal overdress trimmed with crystal net.

Marcia Perkins of Fremont—Yellow chiffon over self-tone satin, crystals and silver trimmings of brown marbou.

Miss Gladys Peters—Coral satin dancing gown, round length with overdress of cream lace and bands of coral velvet trimmed the bodice and skirt.

Mrs. M. C. Peters—Grey crepe meteor over grey satin, with handsome ornamentation in iridescent passementerie and corals, train, diamonds.

Miss Elizabeth Pickens—White satin evening gown veiled in white chiffon trimmed with bands of crystal and pearl ornaments.

Mrs. Charles Pickens—Cream colored hand-made lace over white satin, hand embroidered with pearl trimmings.

Mrs. W. A. Piel—Pale blue striped marquisette over messaline silk, trimmed with silver fringe and satin roses.

Miss Grace Pierson—Pink satin with pearl net panel in front and back.

Miss Jessie Pierson—Gown of coral satin with overdress, black apasand net, decollete, entraine.

Miss Ellen Pomeroy of Waverlyville, Va., guest of General and Mrs. F. A. Smith—Exquisite gown of shaded cerise chiffon over self-tone satin charmeuse.

Mrs. William Sears Poppie—Self-tone tropic velvet evening gown with the bodice elaborately embroidered in crystals and pearls.

Mrs. Nathan Post—Violet satin, gold and silver hand embroidered bodice and drapes.

Miss Katharine Powell—White marquisette over white satin; gold fringe trimming.

Miss Louise Powell of Lincoln, visiting Mrs. Harry Judson—Pink chiffon tunic, with design of white beading over pink satin.

Mrs. Guy H. Pratt—Black and white spangled chiffon over old rose messaline.

Miss Marcia Pratt of Fremont—Pink satin evening gown with tunic of pink chiffon edged with black lynx.

Mrs. John Redick—White messaline, with trimming of pearl beads.

Mrs. H. Rehder—Black lace robe over messaline, diamonds.

Miss Lena Rehrd—Coral messaline; gold trimmings and real lace.

Miss Ella Reynolds—Black satin with overdress of black beaded net, American beauty roses.

Miss Alice Richards of Kansas City, guest of General and Mrs. F. A. Smith—Pink chiffon richly embroidered in bugie or white beads draped over white satin.

Mrs. T. L. Ringwalt—White net, embroidered.

Miss Mary Ringwalt—White chiffon, heavily embroidered in white.

Mrs. Warren Rogers—Black crepe de chine.

Miss Mildred Rogers—White embroidered mull with Irish lace.

Miss Mary Alice Rogers—Green satin, draped with chiffon embroidered in gold beads and trimmed with black lace; French roses complete the costume.

Mrs. C. C. Rosewater—Sea green chiffon, elaborately embroidered in gold draped over white satin with black velvet panels in the front and back reaching to the hem of the train; the bodice and sleeves were made of iridescent crystal draped with the green chiffon.

Mrs. Victor Rosewater—Side chiffon tunic over pink satin with a shimmer of silver trimmings.

Mrs. C. W. Russell—Black net in beaded design over Copenhagen blue, with trimmings of lace.

Mrs. J. E. Scobie—Black lace robe with touches of gold lace.

Miss Helen Scobie—White lace robe with dainty motifs of Duchess lace.

Mrs. Charles Sherman—Light green messaline, with pearl trimming at neck and sleeves.

Miss Annie Sievers—Marquisette over salmon pink messaline; pearl and silver trimming.

Mrs. Wm. Sievers, Jr.—Golden brown bordered chiffon over messaline; yellow and gold spangled trimming.

Mrs. A. F. Smith—Black embroidered lace.

Mrs. Frederick A. Smith—Looked distinguished in a black satin evening gown, made with square train, the bodice and sleeves were elaborately embroidered in silver. A pearl necklace and lavalier were worn with this costume.

Miss Helen Smith—White silk voile over yellow satin; lace at neck and sleeves.

Miss Rebecca Smith of Elwood, Miss, guest of Miss Elizabeth Sweet—Dancing gown of white lace, spangled in gold, over white satin; pink chiffon roses formed the trimming.

Miss Ruth Smith, guest of Miss Louise Lord—Grey crepe meteor with overdress of ecru lace and chiffon, embroidered in gold thread.

Miss Rose Smyth—A dainty dancing gown of white satin made round length, draped with white chiffon embroidered in coral and silver.

Mrs. Earl E. Sturicker—A turquoise blue satin bordered marquisette trimmed in chenille fringe rose colored satin.

Miss Dorothy Stucke—Yellow chiffon over silk, with trimmings of hand embroidery in fringe of silver beads; cluster of forget-me-nots.

Miss Sullivan, guest of the Misses Coad—Princess lace robe over white satin train; crystal trimmings; pearls.

Miss Elizabeth Sweet—White meteor satin with overdress of embroidered chiffon with touches of gold and lace.

Mrs. E. T. Swobe—Embroidered white net over pink chiffon, beading of pearls on bodice; Chantilly lace on bodice and skirt.

Mrs. Thomas Swobe—Heavily jetted black marquisette tunic over gray satin, touches of orchid velvet on bodice and skirt.

Mrs. Frederic W. Thomas—Pink satin evening gown draped with Dresden bordered chiffon; the bodice elaborately beaded in crystals.

Mrs. Joseph W. Thomas—Imported hand made lace, cream color, draped over white satin, with bodice and panels embroidered in pearls, pearl ornaments.

Miss Vivian Toll—Apricot satin, with overdress of pink silk marquisette; beaded with medallions and fringe of coral and gold.

Miss Fern Troutman—A delicate pink satin, with overdress of silk marquisette and duchess lace; trimmed with chenille fringe.

Mrs. H. A. Wagener—Pale blue satin, veiled with chiffon, elaborate jeweled trimmings in coral and gold.

Mrs. Olive Watson of Lincoln, guest of Mrs. C. A. Hill—Stunning gown of evening gown with long square train, the bodice was draped on one side with cream Venetian point lace, with this was worn deep pink French roses.

Mrs. Gordon W. Wattles—One of the more elaborate gowns with the new oriental trimming, semi-precious stones were embroidered on the imported white lace, which was draped over white satin. A band of oriental embroidery formed the hem of the skirt. With this costume was worn a collar of pearls and diamonds.

Mrs. Charles F. Weymuller—Black velvet trimmed in hand-embroidered net, over yellow.

Mrs. W. H. Weymuller—Opera batiste over green messaline.

Mrs. Glenn C. Wharton—Was stunning in an imported gown of black satin charmeuse. The only trimming was the dull gold lace which formed part of the bodice and the short sleeves.

Mrs. Herbert Wheeler—Dainty evening gown of gold colored satin embroidered in self tones.

Mrs. William T. Wilder—Blue marquisette over white silk, trimmed with bands of silver and jet, ornaments of diamonds and pearls.

Mrs. Frank Wilhelm wore a striking costume of white satin, richly embroidered with pearls and crystals.

Miss Gilbert A. Williams—Pink meteor

Beautiful Princesses of the Realm of Quivera

ELIZABETH PICKENS

VIOLET JOSLYN

NINA DIETZ

HELEN SCOBIE

MILDRED BUTLER

MYRA BRECKENRIDGE

MARGARET McPHERSON

MILDRED RODGERS

ELIZABETH SWEET

MARY RINGWALT

RUTH HITCHCOCK

LOUISE DINNING

silk over pink messaline trimmed with gold fringe.

ing her education at Mrs. Scoville's in New York City.

Coronation Notes. The queen's gift from the Ak-Sar-Ben was a diamond and pearl crescent pin.

Key to the Situation—Bee Advertising.

Tip Top Bread... 5c at all grocers

U. F. STEAM BAKING COMPANY

CLASSES STARTING NOW IN MUSIC READING and time preparatory to regular courses in Voice Culture, Piano and All Other Instruments
Dignified positions given to graduates and professionals in general. Wanted, immediately, good voices for operatic and concert chorus. Apply
Professional School of Music Exchange
401-2-3 Boyd Theater Building. OMAHA, NEB.

Ak-Sar-Ben Special Offerings

FOR Saturday we are showing some of the most beautiful of the latest Paris models at special prices for Ak-Sar-Ben visitors. Really distinct, fine quality hats of the most popular shapes are among the very latest of our new arrivals. There is a certain charm and grace about these hats that lends an air of refinement to the wearer. They are wonderfully artistic and the assortment is almost unlimited. Some of these hats are worth as high as $15.00.

Saturday $5.95

TRIMMING FREE

Mrs. Richards

2d Floor City National Bank Building.

A Vacant House Today

is a

Rented House Tomorrow

If

Advertised in THE BEE

Hayden Brothers Ak-Sar-Ben Special Piano Sale

is attracting a great many buyers, and as the sale will continue for the balance of the week, we are going to extend to all the people of Omaha and Nebraska, a cordial invitation to visit our salesrooms and view the many beautiful pianos that are on sale at exceptionally low prices

Below are a few of the many bargains.

| | | | |
|--------------------------|-------|--------------------------|-------|
| Wheat & Son. | $45 | Decker & Son | $125 |
| Kimball | $50 | Geo. Steck & Co. | $125 |
| Kimball | $65 | Vose & Son | $125 |
| Singer. | $90 | Haines & Co. | $140 |
| Singer. | $98 | Chickering | $145 |
| Shoninger | $100 | Kranich & Son. | $150 |
| Fischer (used) | $100 | Chickering. | $190 |

HAYDEN BROS.

Piano Department

Douglas Street Entrance