buyers for thin cows the market ruled fully steady for anything of this kind. Good veal calves ruled firm all week, while the heavier grades showed a decline of 25g20c. Outlet for bulls, stags, stc., was good all week and prices well sustained.

Business in atomics of the market and prices well sustained.

Business in stockers and feeders was probably the largest of the season, but it was not sufficiently large to clean up the heavy offerings even at prices lighted lower than last week. Outlet was fair most of the time for well bred and well fleshed steers and these showed the least decline. Low grade and off quality stock cattle were a drag on the market from start to finish and closed about as low as any time this season. Yard traders will be compelled to carry over a good many cattle till next week.

HOGS—Hog trade was distinguished by meager supply, fast action and substantial advances. In market parlance, only a handful of stuff was received, the run being one of the smallest of the year. Packers started out buying in snappy fashion and willingly paid prices safely a dime higher for the big bulk of offerings, some little business at the close showing loglise advances.

Only twenty-five loads were received in all and with buyers buillish the session proved a short one. Yards were practically cheared at $1.20 o'clock. Shippers took very little interest in the market and there was no support whatever of a purely speculative character.

Three prices bought most offerings, almost half of the run seiling at $6.40. All but a few scattered doads landed within $6.4095.45. Hest bacon animals on sale reached $5.30, a dime above yesterday's top.

Small receipts during the week caused

Minneadous defeated South Dakota yesterday by a score of 5 to 0, but the showing made by the Maroon and the Gold was none too encouraging to its followers even though the team had been strengthened greatly.

Minnesota scored the only touchdown of the game, three and one-half minutes after the game started, but after that South Dakota, proving to be much sirenger than was expected, played the Gophers to a standstill and even had the better of it during the latter part of the game.

Returning a punt seventeen yards to Minnesota's forty-five-yard line at the same.

Returning a punt seventeen yards to Minnesota's forty-five-yard line at the same show small gains over prices a week ago. The better sorts are now quotable about 10fflic above last statirday's figures, while merely good kinds are in lively demand at levels strong to bat.

Minnesota's forty-five-yard lost of the phall across the goal line, Stevens making the touchdown.

Minnesota's forty-five-yard lost of the next play. Long successive gains by Rosenwald, Stevens and Capron took the ball across the goal line, Stevens making the touchdown.

reached the even money $8.00, yesterday, but straight strings, all fat, were rare exceptions, and the sorting process was necessary to obtain the big bulk of killing stock. Fat lambs, not very toppy, are moving around $5.50.

Fat sheep have been selling readily at all times, a light proportion of good wethers, ewes, etc., sharpening the domand. Current values are easily firm with those of a week ago. Choice heavy wethers are closing as high as $4, while really good ewes are bringing $3.3563.40, yesterday's top being $5.65. Fat yearlings were seasonably scarce, producing a poorly tested market.
