The evening of Tuesday, October 34, has been selected as "society quight" at the Omaha Land show, and the management of the show is making elaborate preparaops to entertain its guests at that time. known Omaha society matrons and emong the women of the army et are to be invited to be patronesses of event and the debutantes of the last seasons will be hopor guests.

A special program of music has been anged for the occasion, which probbly will be the most brilliant event durg the exposition. The concert will be given by the Ferullo band, which is proneed the greatest Italian organization ever brought to America.

Fancesco Ferulto, the director, is a veritable battery of temperament and musical intensity. He is a fiery little Italian and does not confine himself to creations of his native school or to e latter-day popular trifles for his rep-Bizet, Massenet, Baint-Szens, Wagner, Tschnikowsky and Lisat are famillar to him, and they receive as exwellent and intelligent treatment at his hands, as do his own countrymen. As a special feature of the concert Monz. Herrd Begue, baritone, and Mme. Marie Regue, contratto, both from the Metrofitan grand opera, will appear in Cinaba for the first time. The concert mises to be the most important musicul event of the season.

tary at the Young Women's Christian association whose job it is to fit self-supporting girls into the right places. This sounds easy, but In really very difficult; for the reason that so many of the girls who are just starting out on their careers as wage earmers are unfitted for the places which they wish to get, and because employers will not hire beginners.

Nearly every inexperienced applicant who comes to Miss Odiorne wants office work, and office managers want only experienced workers.

None of the girls will take places to do housework. And there is always a super-abundance of places of that kind. The calls from housewives who need cooks, second girls and malds for general housework . as numerous as those from inexperienced girls, who want, to
